HORNETS WIN AND LOSE IN LAST 2 OF SCHEDULED GAMES

Lose to Cathedral Six 5 to 4 and Whip Crookston Pirates 7-0

The Hornets, after losing a heartbreaking game to Crookston Cathedral on Saturday night, by a 5 to 4 score, concluded their pre-tournament play Tuesday evening by trouncing the Crookston Pirates, 7 to 0. The sixth annual northwest junior hockey tournament will be played on the Arena ice Friday and Saturday.

Saturday night's game, which was as fast, exciting and well-played as the Hallock vs. Hornets tussle, found Cathedral marking up three of their five goals while the locals had men in the penalty box. In the opening period, after Tony Dorn had scored following an ice-length rush, Spanky Sullivan took an assist from Jim Medved and racked up a goal while Bob Baker was serving a tripping penalty.

The Hornets moved into the lead in the second period when Dorn, from six feet out, whipped a shot past Bud Schroeder, and the locals held that margin until the opening minutes of the third period. Spanky Sullivan banged in brother Bill's rebound, tying the score at 2-all; but Bob Baker circled the Cathedral net, and then beat Schroeder with a backhand shot.

With Les Vigness in the penalty box, Cathedral exploded for two rapid-fire goals. Medved, on a solo rush, came in close to beat Mortrud, and seconds later, Bill Sullivan and Medved, the Crookston co-captains, combined on a neat play, with Sullivan scoring. The Hornets knotted the game when Dorn's hard shot, after Tony had carried the puck to the Crookston goal, rebounded off Schroeder's pads and gave Baker a chance to flip the puck into the net. Cathedral's game-winning marker came a minute later when Bill Sullivan, from the corner, passed out to Medved, and Jim slid the puck into the goal.

Tuesday night's encounter with the Crookston Pirates found coach Pagliarini's team rolling up a five-goal lead in the first period, and then adding a tally in each of the following periods to win by a 7 to 0 score. The Hornets out-skated and out-played the Pirates, and but for the fact that Coach Pagliarini used a number of reserves and kept his first string "under wraps", the score would have been much greater. The shut-out, the first of the year for the Hornets, is credited to Mud Mortrud and Corn Olson, who shared the net-minding duties for the locals.

Prowlers Whip Bagley Quint 36 to 25 Friday

Pilot with Air Forces

LT. CLIFFORD M. SPARBY

Pilot in the U. S. army air forces, who this month received his commission upon his graduation from a pilot training school at Pecos, Texas. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Sparby of Grygla.

The Prowlers scored their fourth win of the season Friday night, defeating the Bagley Flyers, 36 to 25, on the local floor. This week Coach Hanna's team engages in two out-of-town games, meeting the district's top-ranking Crookston Pirates at Crookston on Friday night, and traveling to Bagley for a return game against the Flyers on Saturday night.

Friday night's erratic contest found the Prowlers bouncing into an 11 to 3 first-period lead, and if the locals had connected with several long passes (Billy McKechnie being "open" on a couple of "sleeper" plays) the Prowlers score would have been larger.

Trailing by a 17 to 6 score midway in the second period, coach Kermit Anderson's team, with John Miller and Herb Beltz directing the play, picked up 8 points, to slice the Prowler lead to 17 to 14. But Roger Tunberg, looping in a goal from the side of the floor, and then taking a pass from Chuck Richards, scored on a close shot, giving the locals a 21 to 14 lead at the half.

McKechnie's free throw and Evenstad's two one-handed tosses boosted the Prowler lead to 26 to 14 in the opening minutes of the third period. Bagley's Swanson rang up a free throw; Roy Remick notched a rebound; and Swanson followed with a pair of set-up goals after recovering rebounds, and the Flyers were within 5 points of the locals, 26 to 21. Evenstad, receiving a pass from Herb Claffy, dribbled in for lay-up shot; and after Carlson and Merritt had registered free throws, Miller connected with a one-handed try from the side of the floor, bringing the score to 30 to 23 as the teams moved into the final period.

Beltz tallied a free throw. Tunberg drove in for a close shot; Merritt added a point on a free throw. Herb Beltz' gift toss scored Bagley's final point; while Carlson, on a free throw, and McKechnie, on a "sleeper" play, added the Prowlers' final counters.

Virg Evenstad and Billy McKechnie, with 12 and 9 points, respectively, led the Prowler scorers; while Alden Swanson, with 8 points, and youthful Johnny Miller, with 6 points, highlighted the Flyer attack.

In a preliminary game, the Prowler Reserves eked out a 20 to 18 win over Scholin's Sod Busters.

WILD CANARY LIVES IN HOME 17 YEARS

Benson.—Little did the William Cameron boys think back in 1927 when they picked up a little wild canary with a broken wing and took it to their home that it would be their pet for seventeen years. Just a few days ago, Dickie, as they called him turned up his toes and died. Most of the time he sang beautifully and behaved generally as a tame bird.

Cathedral's the Favorite

Don Norman's Crookston Cathedral team, by reason of its 5 to 4 conquest of the Hornets Saturday night, earned the right to be seeded the No. 1 team in the northwest junior hockey tournament that gets under way on the Arena rink tomorrow. And that No. 1 position pits Cathedral against Fargo in a first-round game Friday afternoon, and against the winner of the Roseau vs. N. W. Aggies game in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon.

On the record, the Blue Wave shouldn't have much difficulty in reaching the finals and there, according to form, they should face either the Hornets or Hallock. The Hornets and Hallock have been placed in the lower bracket and they will probably tangle in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon, and if the game is as fast and hard-fought as the previous Hallock vs. Hornets contests, the winner will perhaps be a bit game-worn when it faces Cathedral in the finals.

Now that co-captain Bill Sullivan is rounding into shape, Cathedral will be at full strength for the tournament. Bill, back at left-wing, adds plenty to the Blue Wave scoring punch, and it gives Coach Norman an extra spare, as he can move Bud Salem back into the second line. None of the teams in the tourney, by the way, are too well-supplied with spares, and the "key" players will be forced to play most of the time.

Hovie in Hornets Lineup

Coach Pagliarini's Hornets will be stronger than they have been for the past few weeks, for Wes Hovie will be in the lineup. Wes has been out of action for a month because of a badly injured knee, but he was on the ice Tuesday night and the knee appeared strong enough to stand the gaff of hockey's sudden stops and turns.

Eveleth's last-minute entry, which was received yesterday morning, was not accepted by the tournament committee as it would have meant a re-scrambling of the tournament schedule. The Rangers would have added considerable color to the meet, but they had ample time to make known their intentions.

A Mathematical Chance

The Prowlers still have a mathematical chance of getting into the district tournament without having to engage Red Lake Falls in a playoff game. If the Prowlers beat Crookston tomorrow night, and if Warren loses its two remaining games, to Crookston and Red Lake Falls, Coach Hanna's team would move up into third place. Roger Tunberg, Johnny Powell, and Dick Biddick figured out that answer; but when they get results like that they're stretching math too far.

The Prowlers haven't had the benefit of Norm Furuseth's play since the game at Bemidji, and now it's learned that Norm, who's one of the stronger Prowler reserves, has been suffering from quinsy. He has lost about 18 pounds during the illness, but he maintains that he'll be ready to return to practice next week.

A Coincidence

A week ago the men's singles bowling tournament developed into a duel between a pair of Wally's (Wally DuChamp and Wally Carlson); and this week, in the women's handicap singles bowling tourney, the two top places were taken by a pair of Bea's (Bea McLeod and Bea Embury). And the two Bea's had nearly as close a contest for the women's title as Wally D. and Wally C. had for the men's championship. Bea Embury, bowling on Saturday night, came up with a fine 727 total; but Bea McLeod, rolling on Sunday, had scores of 164 and 193 on alleys 1 and 2, and then finished with a 166 and 157 on alleys 3 and 4, and with a 13-pin handicap per game, totaled 732, for a 5-pin margin over the runner-up.

Don't forget that there is a mixed doubles tournament scheduled to be bowled on Saturday and Sunday.

Miscellany

The Hornets had a couple of midgets in their lineup Tuesday night. Bob Amundson and Mert Ripley, members of Les Vigness Bombers, suited up and got to see a lot of action in the game against the Pirates. Incidentally, that was the third hockey game the two had been in that day.—Coach Pagliarini is now a sailor. Pag was in the Thief River Falls contingent that was inducted into the services at Fort Snelling on Monday, and the navy picked him up.

FURTHER CUT IN TRAFFIC DEATHS IS EDITORS' AIM

M. A. Johnson, Blue Earth Editor, Heads Campaign This Year

M. A. Johnson, Blue Earth Post and Register, has been named chairman of the Minnesota Editorial association's new traffic reduction committee, by Carl C. Carlson of Long Prairie, president of the association. The new committee will direct the coordinated efforts of Minnesota's 450 newspaper editors to reduce the state's toll of traffic deaths and injuries.

Other members of the committee, as announced by Mr. Carlson, are Henry Knipp, Le Center Leader; J. G. McGowan, Benson News and Swift County Monitor; Norman E. Nelson, Cloquet Pine Knot; and Severyn D. Youso, Benton County News of Foley.

Minnesota editors have long taken a leading part in accident prevention work. Their activities were first coordinated in the "Save 100 Lives" committee appointed in 1940, with Basil Walters of the Minneapolis Star-Journal as chairman, through 1941. John E. Casey of the Jordan Independent was chairman in 1942 and J. L. Markham of the Hennepin County Review of Hopkins in 1943.

Efforts of the state's newspaper editors to promote safe driving habits and to make motorists and pedestrians conscious of traffic hazards are given a large share of the credit for the reduction in Minnesota traffic fatalities in the last two years. Deaths due to motor vehicle traffic accidents in Minnesota have dropped from 626 in 1941 and 439 in 1942 to 270 in 1943. Decrease in fatalities has been relatively greater than wartime decrease in traffic.

Hospital Service Assn. Elects New President in Minneapolis Feb. 17

Samuel W. Pinkerton, secretary and sales manager, West Publishing Co., trustee of St. Luke's Hospital, St. Paul, was elected president of the Minnesota Hospital Service Association at the association's annual meeting held Thursday night, February 17th at St. Mary's Hospital, Minneapolis.

A report submitted by A. M. Calvin, executive director of the association, stated that one out of every nine subscribers received hospital care during 1943. This amounted to a total of 65,174 subscribers hospitalized during the past year at a total cost of $1,940,662.00.

"Since the organization began in 1943", said Mr. Calvin, $8,637,500.00 or 80.8 per cent of the total income, has been paid out for the hospital care of Blue Cross subscribers. One out of every five persons in the state, a total of 560,000 subscribers, is now enrolled in the Blue Cross Plan."

Ceiling Prices Are Set for Restaurants, Taverns, OPA Announces at Fargo

Effective March 6, restaurants and taverns in the Fargo-Moorhead district may not charge more for any type of meal, food item or beverage than they charged during the period of April 4 to 10, 1943, District Director Harold W. Bangert announced.

Previously, restaurants had been asked by OPA to hold to the April 4-10 prices on a voluntary basis.

The Fargo-Moorhead district office will distribute a digest of the regulation directly to the trade. And restaurant or tavern operators who fail to receive copies may obtain them at their local war price and rationing boards.

"We realize, of course, that a great many of the restaurants in the Fargo-Moorhead district have been complying with OPA's request for voluntary adherence to the prices they charged during the April 4 to 10, 1943, period," Mr. Bangert said. "However, some restaurant prices have advanced, and as a result, OPA decided that in fairness to the many who are complying, ceilings should be made mandatory. Violators of the regulation which goes into effect March 6, will be subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, treble damage suits and suspension proceedings."

Minn. Production Credit Units Increase Volume

War has reached into the 61 production credit associations of Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota to claim 27 persons who were engaged in providing farmers with financing for the production of foods and fibers, but in spite of these inroads the associations have, during the past year, kept up their services and wound up the year 1943 with over $700,000 more short-term production loans on their books than they had the year before, and with a gain of approximately 800 in membership, it was learned from the Production Credit Corporation of St. Paul this week.

Fit Saws for Efficiency

STATE TAX DOWN, LOCAL TAXES UP, SPAETH REPORTS

State Tax Commissioner Reports on Levies Payable in 1944

State taxes on real and personal property to be paid this year have been reduced $3,889,230, or 40 per cent, compared to a year ago, but this cut has been offset, taking the state as a whole, by increases in taxes which have been made by local units of government, G. Howard Spaeth, state tax commissioner, reported to Governor Edward J. Thye this week.

Minnesota property owners as a group thus will pay about the same amount of taxes this year as they did last year. Total real and personal property taxes for the two years, imposed by all units of government, just compiled from reports of county officials, are:

Average tax rate in the different counties is slightly lower, 84.06 mills for 1943 compared to 84.36 for 1942. Valuations are a little higher.

School districts and municipalities are responsible for most of the increased levies by local units of government, the report showed. School districts of the state increased their levies $2,083,257 for 1943 over 1942, much of it, Spaeth believes, due to necessity of increasing salaries for teachers and other employees. Municipalities boosted their levies by $1,600,186. The municipal officials could say that more than $870,000 of this increase was made necessary to replace money which the cities and villages formerly got from the moneys and credit tax, now suspended, but the school officials did not have that claim, for the money lost to the school from the suspension is being replaced from the income tax. Higher school costs apparently were general. In only three counties was there a reduction in total school taxes.

Townships of the state increased their levies but slightly for 1943, only $309,248 in all, and counties but $147,000. Forty-one counties, as a matter of fact, reduced their county levies.

The legislature at its last session reduced the maximum levy which the state might make on property from 9 to 6 mills, but the auditor, in spreading the levy found that he could put the levy at 4 mills, outside the three big cities, making a total cut of 0.6 mills.

Picture of the "Other Party" on your party line
That's right—somebody very much like yourself. Responds quickly to courtesy, is friendly, considerate of others' rights, perfectly willing to live by the Golden Rule.
Yes, most folks are "nice people." That's why we know that thoughtful sharing is a sure way to pleasant party line service.
NORTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Locomotives take a terrific pounding as they pull their heavy loads across the country. After each run they must be thoroughly inspected and made ready for the next. The picture shows one of the giant steam locomotives that hauls Great Northern's trains across the Rocky Mountains on a turntable at the railway's roundhouse at Whitefish, Montana.

Reinforcements

Roundhouses aren't very glamorous places. They don't make pretty pictures. The men and women who work in them know the smell of smoke and the feel of grease.

For theirs is the serious and rather grimy business of grooming thousands upon thousands of horsepower, day in and day out—overhauling, repairing, servicing and checking the tons of whirling steel and iron that haul the trains.

They fight too, these men and women—fight time, for engines are desperately needed all around the clock; fight engine failures, for failures delay this grim business of war.

When this country went into the war, the Great Northern had 882 engines. That was fewer—by 513—than were in service during the first World War.

With fewer but more powerful engines, the Great Northern is moving more than twice the traffic it did during the first World War. That gives an idea of what has been going on in its roundhouses and locomotive shops.

When Japan struck at Pearl Harbor several huge Diesel-electric engines were nearing completion for the Great Northern. But almost immediately came the interruption of gasoline and fuel oil deliveries to the East coast by ocean.

This important task had to be taken over by the railroads, and the engines which were built to haul Great Northern freight trains across the continental divide were rushed into action in other parts of the country.

For more than two years the Great Northern has had to do its part of the war job with what it had. Not until recently has there been any relief in sight.

But now three new mammoth Diesel-electric engines are hauling heavy freight trains between Havre and Whitefish, Montana. Each engine rates 5,400 horsepower, measures 193 feet, and weighs 463 tons.

By fall it is expected that ten more of these engines will be in operation on this mountain division. They will release nearly twice that number of steam locomotives for service on other parts of the system.

And that is good news for the determined workers in roundhouses and locomotive shops whose achievement in meeting every requirement for power, when it was needed, has fashioned another brilliant Victory for the home front.

DUANE BARRY KILLED IN TRAFFIC ACCIDENT

Duane Barry, [illegible]-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Barry [illegible] formerly of this community, met death unexpectedly [illegible]. Duane had [illegible] downtown in Seattle to purchase valentines for his former schoolmates in the West Spruce Grove school, when he was struck by a trolley and instantly killed. The accident occurred at Fourth Avenue and Pike street and according to a Seattle newspaper, Duane was crossing the street when the red light was against him. The remains were taken to South Dakota for burial at the side of a sister who preceded him in death.

LAND O'LAKES NEWS

THINK ABOUT IT THIS WAY

ALL DAIRY FOODS, to get from the farm to the consumer, MUST make the following movements: (1) production (2) creamery or processing plant (3) packaging, merchandising, advertising, jobbing or wholesale selling (4) retail selling.

PRODUCTION NO. 1 is YOU—the dairy farmers of the Northwest. No. 2 is a variety of independent and cooperative creameries. No. 3 is a lot of reputable companies—both large and small, who facilitate the flow of dairy foods on to No. 4, the ultimate retail sale in the grocery store.

EACH TYPE AND GROUP mentioned above deserves and usually gets a return for its investment and effort in handling dairy foods.

PROGRESSIVE DAIRY FARMERS, through membership of their cooperative creameries, and the membership of these creameries in LAND O'LAKES, control and have a potential return from the first three movements of their merchandise. This method of marketing offers the individual dairy farmer MORE control and MORE potential returns than any other method of marketing dairy products.

CARRIED MILK OVER 50 YEARS

Olivia.—Some three weeks ago when August Siegler sold his cows he terminated milk deliveries which he had been making regularly for over 50 years. It was recalled that without a break he had faithfully carried milk to one home since August 23, 1893. It was estimated he had carried 18-½ tons of milk to the home in that time.

A compromise is when a man agrees to buy what his wife wants if she'll stop crying.

DRIVERS LICENSES REVOKED IN MONTH HIT TOTAL OF 146

314 Licenses Are Suspended in January, Division Announces

Good weather and open roads in January tempted Minnesota motorists to more travel and also to more traffic violations of the type which led to forfeiture of driving permits. Total revocations and suspensions were 460, compared to 408 in January, 1943, according to the monthly report of E. P. Lee, supervisor, drivers license division, state highway department. There were 146 revocations and 314 suspensions, compared to 166 revocations and 242 suspensions in January, 1943.

Driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor led the list of causes for revocations with 119 and inebriacy brought revocations to six more drivers. Repeated convictions for speeding brought 11 revocations, hit-run driving 5 and reckless driving 4.

Excessive speed was responsible for 101 suspensions; refusal to take driving test, 68; failure to show financial responsibility following an accident, 35; refusal to give doctor's statement on eye test, 23; reckless driving, 23; disregarding signs and signals, 18.

Five-sixths of the revocations were for mature persons between the ages of 21 and 55. Only 15 were 56 or older and only 9 were persons under 21. Only two were women.

One-third, or 103, of the suspensions were for persons under 21 years of age, while 90 were from 21 to 35 years old, 76 were from 36 to 64 and 45 were 65 years or older. Only 7 were women.

750,000 Tons of Rubber Netted in Salvage Drive

Scrap rubber turned in by the public since 1942—a total of 750,000 tons—is being used at the average rate of 35,000 tons per month, C. E. Rufer, district salvage manager who was in charge of the scrap rubber drive for the Fargo district, said today.

"Of the total amount collected," Mr. Rufer said, "at least 75 per cent has proved to be one of the most important factors in tiding the nation over the rubber shortage."

The reclaimed rubber from the scrap collection campaigns has an important use in many vital military products, Mr. Rufer said. Civilian use of the reclaimed rubber is being made in connection with the manufacture of recapping material, heels and soles for shoes, and many other essential items.

CLEAN CAR WINDSHIELDS PROMOTE SAFE DRIVING

Keeping your car or truck free from "any sign" poster or other non-transparent material upon the front windshield, side wings, side or rear windows other than a certificate or other paper required to be displayed by law," is one of the requirements of the Minnesota traffic act. It is also one of the essentials for safe driving. Best place for tax stamps, ration stickers, special permits or other necessary stickers, is the lower right hand corner of the windshield.

Former Residents Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Myhre, former residents of Newfolden, who left here 16 years ago celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, February 18. Rev. Thv. Myhrer, who has been soliciting for a gift for the occasion from their many friends, received the following letter from them:

"We beg to acknowledge the unexpected receipt of the very generous gift from our many friends, in and near Newfolden, on this, our golden wedding anniversary date. It is a great surprise to us to be remembered in this way, after so many years absence from your midst, and mere words fail to express our feeling and appreciation, as it touches our hearts and makes us realize that we will be unable in any way to repay the donations and meaning thereof. We cherish the memories of the many pleasant years it was our privilege to live amongst you, and enjoy your good will and friendship, and it is elevating to be reminded that you all have us in remembrance, and that to us is a heritage much valued. We say to each of you thanks and wish you good luck and God's Blessing."

Win 1-Lose 1

The high school basketball team won an easy victory over Lake Bronson here Tuesday of last week by a score of 26 to 16. Our boys started out by playing bang up basketball and by the middle of the second quarter the score stood at 16 to 1 for Newfolden. Then Coach Leslie Anderson took his first string players out of the game and used the reserves and the score at the half was 18 to 5. At the end of the third stanza the score was 20 to 10. At the middle of the last quarter the first string took the floor again but seemed to be unable to click and the final score was 26 to 16.

On Friday night they journeyed to Badger and took a beating from a rough, rangy Badger team. Badger has a small gym and for many years they've had tall and rough players. Any team playing them on their own floor know they have been in a tough scrap.

The next game will be here on Friday, Feb. 25 with Stephen. They have played Stephen and lost to them earlier in the season and will be out to even the score with them. Next Tuesday Coach Anderson will take his team to Lake Bronson for a return game.

TH LOAN DRIVE VINDS UP WITH 4 PCT. OF GOAL

Pennington County Goes Far over Quota of $386,000 in Campaign

EXCEEDS ALLOTMENT BY OVER 50 PER CENT

Chairman Paul A. Lundgren Thanks Solicitors and Public

The Pennington County Fourth War Loan Drive came to a close Tuesday, with a total subscription for the county of $593,974.75. This gives Pennington County a credit of 154% of its $386,000 quota, and places Pennington County fifth of the 86 counties in the State.

"The people of Pennington county," said Paul A. Lundgren, who, finance chairman here, "deserve considerable praise for the way in which they have always supported the bond campaign. In no drive has the county been below its quota and in no drive has the county been lower than 16th out of the 86 counties in the state. It has also been gratifying to watch the progress of the various bond drives, and to note that even though all municipalities have not attained their full quota, they have been very close to the quotas set so that in the whole the distribution of the bond purchases has been quite even throughout the county.

"It is rumored that the Fifth War Loan Drive will be staged in June. We want to continue the fine showing that Pennington county has made, and the committee therefor extends its appeal that the people generally plan their finances so that they will be able to meet the quota should it come in June.

"It is impossible for the county committee to personally thank the 200 or more persons who took an active part in the solicitation of the funds for this drive and we, therefore, take this opportunity of extending our sincerest thanks to them. Naturally we also hope that these people will continue their good work for the coming drives.

"Without discrediting the efforts of anyone in this drive, a special mention should be given to Andy Anderson, our genial postmaster, for the able manner in which he handled the city drive as chairman for the city of Thief River Falls."

Board to Plan Postwar Projects Is Organized

Under the sponsorship of the city council, the newly created Thief River Falls postwar planning board held its organization meeting in the Palm Garden Cafe Monday evening. The board will assist the council in planning community projects to be undertaken following the war by co-ordinating proposals advanced by various local groups and individuals.

Comprising the board are Aldermen Frank A. Rinkel and J. Robert Petersen; Roy J. Oen, representing the local chapter of the National Aeronautics association; Norman Peterson, Junior Chamber of Commerce; Stanton R. Dahlen, Rotary club; Archie Hensrud, Lions club; and E. B. Benson, acting as a representative of the Civic and Commerce association pending a permanent appointment.

The group organized by electing Mr. Oen chairman, Mr. Petersen vice chairman, Mr. Hensrud secretary, and Mr. Dahlen treasurer. The officers were authorized to draw up a set of by laws to be submitted for approval at the next meeting of the board.

The members adopted a resolution commending the council for its forward-looking move in authorizing the creation of a planning board.

Among the projects discussed for development after the war were a new filtration plant for the waterworks department, new First st. bridge, the resurfacing of the paved streets in the business district. Plans were made to send representatives to St. Paul to confer with officials of state agencies relative to projects requiring state or federal assistance.

BOY SCOUT TROOPS TO COLLECT PAPER SATURDAY, MAR. 4

Public Asked to Tie Bundles Securely and Place Them Along Curbs

The three local scout troops will make a city-wide paper drive, Saturday, March 4th in conjunction with the Eagles lodge which is furnishing the necessary trucks. Morris Owen, district scout commissioner, states that the drive will last two hours, beginning at 1:00 P. M. and lasting until 3:00 P. M.

Mr. Owen asks that the public cooperate in this war-service project by tying their bundles of paper securely with twine or heavy cord. Carelessly tied bundles means a serious wastage of precious war-time effort.

"Place the bundles on the curbstones in front of your homes", he said, and the scouts will do the rest. In case of bad weather do not set out your bundles. For in that event, the drive will be postponed a week so as to avoid loss of paper through wind or excess moisture."

This will be the largest wartime paper drive in Thief River Falls to date. The Eagles are furnishing six trucks with drivers, and each local scout troop is furnishing a complete patrol of eight boys. L. B. Hartz, district scout finance chairman, is providing a van to be loaded for immediate shipment of paper as it is brought in by the trucks.

DRIVE FOR RED CROSS OPENED ON WEDNESDAY

Solicitors Open Campaign to Collect $10,500 in Pennington Co.

25 MEN SOLICITING BUSINESS DISTRICT

Total of 200 Million Sought in National Campaign Now Under Way

The Pennington county campaign to raise a quota of $10,500 in the annual Red Cross War Fund appeal, got off Wednesday to a well-coordinated start under the supervision of George L. Riddick, drive chairman, with teams of solicitors at work in the business and residence districts as well as in the rural areas of the county.

A group of 25 men who are covering the business section attended a kickoff breakfast Wednesday morning in the Rex Cafe, while the women who are conducting the solicitation in the residence districts received their supplies and instructions at a meeting Saturday afternoon. Kermit M. Olson is captain of the men's team, and Mrs. Clarence Knudson heads the women's committee, while Mrs. Edwin Hanson of Rocksbury is in charge of the canvass in the rural sections.

Volunteers of more than 10,000 communities were on the starting line Wednesday, ready for the annual War Fund campaign to raise $200,000,000, the minimum required to continue Red Cross services both overseas and at home, according to the statement of Leon Fraser, New York city, national campaign chairman.

An estimated 3,000,000 workers, many of them with sons or husbands in the war, have begun a nation-wide door-to-door canvass to gather in Red Cross contributions, Mr. Fischer said.

Ninety per cent of the $200,000,000 fund, he reported, will be spent on the ever-expanding Red Cross service to American soldiers and sailors in distant theatres of war, and their families in the United States. Approximately $60,000,000 of the sum to be raised will remain in Red Cross chapters throughout the country for direct aid to servicemen, their dependants in distress, and home front emergencies and services such as disasters.

President Roosevelt, by official proclamation, has designated March as "Red Cross month." In his proclamation message he called upon the American people to observe the month "by opening their hearts to this humanitarian appeal," pointing out that the war has entered a decisive stage "requiring the fullest measure of individual sacrifice."

Norman H. Davis, chairman of the American Red Cross, meanwhile, declared that the Red Cross during the next 12 months must assume a greater burden than ever before in its history.

Dr. Borreson Reports on Sanatorium Costs in '43

The annual financial report of Oakland Park sanatorium for 1943, released last week by Dr. Baldwin Borreson, superintendent, reveals that in spite of rising costs of supplies, there was little change in the daily cost per patient, due in part to the fact that substantial inventories had been carried over from the preceding year.

Total maintenance expense declined from $47,859.40 in 1942 to $47,171.10 last year, while the cost of provisions went down from $11,214.38 to $10,020.49. The aggregate number of patient days was 18,501 in 1943, virtually the same as the total of 18,0?? for 1942, and the total culinary expense last year was $15,844.39, compared to $16,082.95 in 1942.

Receipts from state aid, pay patients and miscellaneous amounted to $14,572.73, down from $15,717.59 in 1942, leaving a total net cost per day per individual in 1943 of $1.82, compared to $1.77 in the preceding year.

Making up the maintenance expense last year were the following principal items: Administration, $3,720.79; care of patients $11,928.74; culinary, $15,844.39; domestic, $4,301.25; agriculture, engineering, buildings and grounds, $9,127.91; and expense of field nurse, commission expenses, insurance and other items, $2,248.08.

24 SCOUTMASTERS WIND UP TRAINING COURSE WITH HIKE

Enjoy Evening Camping Trip in Vicinity of Holt Last Sunday

The scoutmasters training course was brought to a close last Sunday, February 27th, with an evening camping trip near Holt. The twenty-four men who took the hike were given an opportunity to apply a few of the scouting skills and techniques learned in the six-weeks training course.

The hike started at the home of Hartley Peterson, vice district scout chairman, who planned and directed the outing. On the hike a prepared trail was followed by means of the direction signs of the pioneer and voyager. Along the trail were special "skill-stations" at which the men had to demonstrate their knowledge of first aid, knot tying, fire building, the use of the compass, international Morse code, signaling and the scout oath.

At the end of the trail the men were treated to a pot of northwood style bean hole beans by the host, Hartly Peterson. The men also cooked kabob or grilled steaks at the Barzen-Kobliska grill. After the supper the troop proceeded to the Lutheran church basement for the semi-formal windup of the course.

Thirty men will be awarded the scout masters training certificates which will entitle them to be a scoutmaster in any part of the United States. The certificates will be awarded at the next camping session to be held in about a month.

Legislature to Act on Soldier Vote Next Week

Provisions of a bill to be submitted at the special session of the Minnesota legislature opening in St. Paul next Wednesday, March 8, designed to permit men and women in the armed services to vote in the 1944 primary and general elections, were announced this week, following completion of the work of drafting the proposed law in the office of Attorney General J. A. A. Burnquist.

Under the terms of the bill, the date of the primary election is advanced from September, as at present, to Tuesday, June 20, to give time for the ballots to be delivered to people in service and returned by them before the date of the general election in November. The bill provides that candidates in the primaries may file for office between March 20 and April 20.

Outlined in the bill is a blank form with which county auditors will be called upon to supply soldiers and sailors in making request for ballots. The application form may be signed by the service man himself, or in his behalf by his spouse, a parent or other close relative aged 18 or older.

When completed and sworn to, the request shall be filed with the county auditor, who will keep a special record of name, residence address and mailing address of the service man, and will forward to him as quickly as possible a ballot with a return envelope imprinted with the words "Official War Ballot".

Acquaintance of Local Family Author of Book

Residents of Thief River Falls will be interested in Borghild Dahl's autobiography, "I Wanted to See," to be published by Macmillan on February 29th. It is a story of great human interest and amazing courage, with a foreword by Dr. William L. Benedict, head of the department of ophthalmology at the Mayo Clinic. The author is a friend of the J. L. Wold family. They were neighbors when they lived at Twin Valley.

Miss Elma Blackstad, who has been living in Harrisburg, Pa., for the past year, visited Wednesday of last week with her sister, Mrs. I. R. Geving. She left the following day for Spokane, Wash.

Quartet from This City Has Reunion in London

Joyful participants in a recent reunion while on leave in London were four servicemen from Thief River Falls now on overseas duty. Included in the quartet were Lieut. James Nesse, pilot in the U. S. air corps, his brother Lowell, pharmacists mate in the navy medical corps; Malcolm Magnuson, technical sergeant in the air corps; and Kenneth Halldin, sergeant in the railway corps of the army. The Nesse brothers, who had not seen each other for 18 months, spent five days together.

Members of Community Church Join in Special Services Next Sunday

At the altars of the Community Methodist church next Sunday, March 5, members will pledge rededication of "Self, service and substance" to wartime tasks and opportunities of Christians as the culminating feature of the denomination's nation-wide second annual Week of Dedication, February 27 to March 5, Rev. Dan T. Beadle, minister announced.

Nearly 8,000,000 Methodists will take part in the observance in 42,000 churches throughout the nation. They will renew their Covenant with God and give their substance to building His kingdom in the hearts and lives of men.

At the service men, women, and children will make personal commitments of dedication and contribute to a sacrificial, voluntary offering. This offering will be used to carry on war emergency projects of the church.

March came in with a few threatening snarls yesterday, but certainly not with a roar. There was just enough snow in the air to serve as a reminder of winter, with a trace of rain that whispered sweetly of spring. Neither the lion nor the lamb deserve more than a draw on their performance in that first round.

Do you remember the size of your last year's contribution to the Red Cross? That should be doubled this year to meet your proportionate share of this year's nearly doubled county quota. We have figured out a way to meet our share of it painlessly. Instead of denying ourselves some of the things we should have we will deny ourselves a few of the things we can get along very well without. That way we will do our bit without really making a sacrifice at all.

Hockey fans will have an opportunity to enjoy a real thrill this week-end when the Winnipeg Monarchs meet an all-star team, selected from five towns in this corner of the state, in a two game series at the Arena. The Monarchs are considered the best in Winnipeg and the best in Winnipeg is always good. It is a fine way to close a successful season, giving the cream of our league's crop an opportunity to test their strength against an adversary of proven quality. At the rate our youngsters are developing we can look forward to a time when we will be able to meet our friends across the line at their own game on even terms. The games to be played here with the Monarchs will give us some idea of how much more we will have to improve to be in their class.

It sometimes happens that in attempting to solve one social problem we create a flock of new ones, and that is a danger that should not be lost sight of by those who prescribe remedies for the problems of our youth. Community canteens, with their sub-teen age dancing, probably will not prove to be an unmixed blessing.

After the violent storm of last week that threatened to blow the administration's house down, a beautiful calm seems to have settled over our national capitol. The President and congressional leaders speak affectionately to each other once more and all appears to be peace and happiness. That is how it appears. Things are not always what they appear to be however and it isn't likely that the present truce will become a permanent peace. On the contrary it is possible that last week's puff of wind was merely the forerunner of the real blow that is yet to come. We are rapidly approaching a condition in this country that will force Congress to force the administration to drastically change its domestic policies, and this Mr. Roosevelt is not likely to do without a struggle. We are nearing the end of the era of unlimited credit and approaching the time when we will have to choose between confiscatory taxes or an honest dollar. The worst of the storm is ahead of us.

While we probably are inflicting equally severe damage to the enemy in the European theater of the war, our progress in the Pacific is vastly more interesting. In the Pacific our forces have moved forward in a series of lightning stabs that have demonstrated not only the great power of our military machine but also the ability of its leaders. It has been the type of running play that appeals to the spectators. We now have confidence that our air and sea power is sufficiently superior to enable us to gradually drive the Japs off the seas, and we know that when their navy and merchant marine are knocked out the Nips will have their backs to the wall. Mingled with our recollections of Pearl Harbor and Bataan, that is an exceedingly pleasant prospect. In Europe the problem is different. Our day in and day out bombing of German cities, a tremendous thing in itself, has become a commonplace, and no longer appeals to the imagination because the results are not apparent. Our progress in Italy is slow. In considering our operations in the European theater, however, we should keep in mind that we are accomplishing two things — gradually sapping the strength of the enemy and keeping our own casualties down to the lowest possible levels. If we wanted to sacrifice men we no doubt could move faster. Under the circumstances, let's be patient, and satisfied with our present progress. Progress is being made.

After listening to John Brandt, president of Land O'Lakes Creameries Inc., we know he has come to the conclusion that it is patriotic to speak frankly and honestly to the people about the problems with which we are confronted. And after getting the reactions of the people who listened to John Brandt express his views on public spending, war debts, war bonds, subsidies, inflation, freedoms, and a lot of other problems the people are going to be confronted with suddenly, we concluded the American people want the facts. It would be a wholesome thing for the country if the minority party would develop a little fearless leadership of the John Brandt type. In its present lethargy, however, there is little to be expected of the Republican party if we may judge the party by one of its Minnesota spokesmen who recently declared we could not pay higher taxes because then people would not be able to send their children to college. Fancy a man, over his ears in debt, telling his banker he could not pay the interest on the note because he wanted to send his kid to Harvard.

LOCALS WHIP HALLOCK IN SEMI-FINAL ROUND

Hornets Trounce Crookston Central High Team by 14 to 0 Score

Crookston Cathedral won the sixth annual Northwest junior hockey tournament championship by defeating the defending champion Thief River Falls Hornets, 3 to 1, in a bruising finals contest Saturday night. To reach the finals, the Cathedral sextet defeated the Fargo high school Midgets, 5 to 4, in an overtime game Friday afternoon; and then edged out Roseau high school, 2 to 1, in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon.

The locals meanwhile were scoring an overwhelming 14 to 0 win over Crookston Central on Friday night, and marking up a 5 to 0 victory over Hallock in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon. The Roseau Cloverleafs entered the semi-finals by scoring a 4 to 0 win over the Northwest Aggies; while Hallock, in a first-round game, eliminated Williams, 4 to 3.

Following Saturday night's championship game, Lou Miller, Crookston, president of Northwest Junior Hockey association, acting in behalf of the Crookston and Thief River Falls voitures of the 40 & 8, presented the trophies to the winners, the runners-up, the consolation winner and the sportsmanship winner. Co-captains Bill Sullivan and Jimmy Medved accepted the championship trophies for the Crookston Cathedral team, while captain Marlyn Dorn, for the Hornets, accepted the runner-up trophy. The consolation trophy was won by Williams, and was presented to captain Don McKinnon. The sportsmanship trophy was won by the Crookston Central sextet.

Midway in the opening period of Saturday night's finals game, Bill Sumpmann, member of the Cathedral's second line, pushed the Blue Wave into the lead when he recovered a loose puck on the Hornet blue-line and skated in on goalie Mortrud and beat the youngster with a shot from close in. The soft ice conditions handicapped the play of both teams, and caused considerable "contact" play and heavy body-checking.

The large crowd, estimated at about 700, saw Cathedral move into a 2 to 0 lead in the second period when be-spectacled Johnny Noah lifted a backhand shot from the west side-boards and into the north goal. The Hornets, striving to overcome the Blue Wave lead, notched a goal in the opening minutes of the third period. Tony Dorn circled the Cathedral defense and, from the corner, slipped a pass out to Les Vigness in front of the Cathedral goal, and Les punched the puck past goalie Bud Schroeder. With five minutes of play remaining, Cathedral "iced" the game when Dennis "Spanky" Sullivan, taking a pass from Noah, fired a high, hard shot past the Hornet goalie.

Jimmy Medved, Bill Sullivan, Johnny Noah, and goalie Schroeder were outstanding for Coach Don Norman's team. Captain Tony Dorn, Bob Baker, and Les Vigness skated themselves into near-exhaustion during the game. The loss of Bud Brossoit in the first few minutes of play, the fast skating left-wing being forced out of the contest because of a badly bruised left knee, affected the play of the Hornets to a considerable extent.

Turning in their finest game of the tournament, the Hornets, by a 5 to 0 score, defeated a strong Hallock team in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon. Bob Baker accounted for the first three Hornet goals, two of his scores coming as the result of long shots from the blue-line. Bud Brossoit and Les Vigness registered the other Hornet tallies.

The Hornets first-round game, against Crookston Central, turned into a rout as Coach Pagliarini's team pounded in six goals in the first period, five scores in the second, and three in the final period. Wes Hovie, with three goals and three assists, was the high point man for the Hornets. Baker and Brossoit each had three goals and an assist; while Tony Dorn raked up two goals and two assists; and Les Vigness had one goal and three assists. Sonny Johnson banged in two goals and an assist.

In a game played as the preliminary to the championship finals Saturday night, Williams high school, by a 4 to 1 score, defeated the Northwest Aggies to win the tournament's consolation trophy. Williams had scored a 1 to 2 win over Crookston Central in a Saturday morning contest to win a place in the finals; while the Northwest Aggies had taken the measure of Fargo, 3 to 2.

Don Kobetsky's goal gave the Aggies a 1 to 0 first-period lead; but Williams, on goals by Dan McKinnon and Warren Lindgren, moved into the lead in the second period, and increased their margin to a 4 to 1 score in the third period when McKinnon, on a nifty solo, and Sam Marhula racked up goals.

Prowlers Break Even in Last Scheduled Games

The Prowlers, in their week-end basketball doubleheader, scored one win and absorbed one loss. Playing at Crookston on Friday night the locals dropped a 36 to 30 decision to the district's class A leaders, the Pirates; while on Saturday night, playing at Bagley, Coach Hanna's team rolled up a 39 to 27 win over the Flyers. On Friday night the 32nd district's class A entrant in the regional tournament, Roseau, will meet the Prowlers on the local floor.

The loss at Crookston on Friday definitely placed the Prowlers in fourth place in the district standings, and as a result the locals are forced into a playoff game with Red Lake Falls to determine which team is to win a berth in the district tournament. Present plans call for the playoff game to be played on the neutral Crookston floor on Tuesday night.

The Crookston Pirates, employing a fast break, and with Howie Casmey, Bill Reynolds, and Don Youngquist doing the scoring, spurted into an early lead in Friday's rough game at Crookston. Coach Lysaker's team held a 16 to 8 first period advantage. Field goals by Bill McKechnie, Virg Evenstad, and Ninsk Carlson (Ninsk's goal being a long hoist from well out on the floor), and Carlson's two free throws, accounted for the Prowler points. The Prowlers, outscoring the Pirates, 10 to 8, in the second period, trailed by a 24 to 18 count at the intermission.

Turning in their strongest period of the game, Coach Hanna's team nearly caught the Pirates in the third period. Evenstad drove in for three goals, Allan Thompson popped in a basket, and Herb Claffy added a free throw, and the locals were within two points, 29 to 27, of the Pirates. Evenstad opened the final period's scoring with a gift toss, and the Prowlers trailed by one point; but field goals by Toddie Johnson and Reynolds pushed the Pirates beyond the reach of the Prowlers.

Virg Evenstad, with 14 points, racked up 6 field goals and 2 free throws to win the game's high point honors.

Playing at Bagley on Saturday night the Prowlers scored an easy 39 to 27 win over the Flyers in an erratic contest. Coach Hanna's team was handicapped by the absence of Ninsk Carlson, who had turned an ankle in the Crookston game the preceding night, and Roger Tunberg, who was unable to play in either the Crookston or Bagley games because of a back injury.

Virg Evenstad sliced through the Bagley defense for 22 points, scoring 5 points in each of the first three periods and marking up 7 points in the fourth period. Virg totaled 9 field goals and had a record of "four for four" from the free throw line.

Twenty five fouls were called on the Prowlers during the game, with Thompson, Richards, and Claffy being forced out of the contest via the five-foul route.

No Fluke

Judged on their play in the finals Saturday night, it's pretty well agreed that there wasn't any tinge of a fluke connected with Crookston Cathedral's winning of the junior hockey championship. They skated strongly, checked well, and racked up a 3 to 1 win. The Hornets apparently played their "all out" game in the semi-finals contest against Hallock on Saturday afternoon, and it's problematical if Cathedral could have "taken" the locals then.

The Blue Wave appeared to be an ideal tournament team, for they could put on pressure when it was needed. They had to go into overtime to defeat Fargo; and they had to come from behind to edge out the Roseau Cloverleafs. The Hornets, on the other hand, flashed through Crookston Central, 14 to 0; then skated Hallock into the ice for a 5 to 0 win, but that win was costly for it left the locals pretty tired. An indication of the pace of the Hornets vs. Hallock game can be realized when Hallock was forced to default their game with Roseau, scheduled to have been played Saturday night to determine the third place winner, with the statement that the Hornets tussle had left them too game-weary to play.

Congratulations to Don Norman and his Cathedral Blue Wave. And congratulations, too, to Alex Campbell, Gil Reiersgaard, Rudy Levorson, Alex Cloutier, Joe LaBo, Carl Gulrud, and others on the 40 & 8's hockey committee, for the dispatch with which the tournament was conducted. P. W. Mickelson, of Fargo, expressed the sentiments of all when he said that "it was fun to bring a team up to Thief River Falls."

A Climax

The hockey season will be given a fitting night-cap on Saturday and Sunday when the Winnipeg Monarchs, one of Canada's premier junior hockey teams, comes here for a pair of games against an all-star team chosen from the high school teams that participated in the tournament here last week.

Don Norman, as coach of the winning Cathedral team, has been named coach of the all-stars, with Hornets' Pagliarini, coach of the runners-up, as his assistant. Coaches Norman and Pagliarini, together with the tournament committee, will select the all-star aggregation. While the roster hasn't been named, it is expected that Jimmy Medved, Bill Sullivan, Johnny Noah, and Bud Schroeder, from Cathedral; Tony Dorn and Bob Baker of the Hornets; Cal Engelstad and Jerry Lindegaard of Hallock; Mike Delmore and Carl Oveson of Roseau; and Dan McKinnon of Williams, will be asked to play. It's possible that another line will be chosen, so that the all-stars will be able to shoot three full lines at the Monarchs.

A News Item

A news item from Carlisle, Pa. reveals that Lt. Walt Ekeren, Carlisle Barracks, came within one stubborn pin of rolling a perfect game on the Maple Lane bowling alleys in that city.

Walt, doing some "open" bowling on Feb. 23rd, had 11 consecutive strikes and then on the twelfth ball the No. 10 pin, after swaying for a moment, refused to fall, and he was denied a perfect 300. That 299, though, established a record for the alleys. Walt, by the way, is secretary of the Officer's League, Carlisle Barracks, which rolls its league games over the Maple Lane alleys.

They'll Need a Rule

Comes another bowling tournament, and again the winner is Wally DuChamp. But this time Wally had to have help. Bowling in the mixed doubles Saturday night, Wally opened with a 182, then had a measly 136 (and in that game his partner, Margaret Stadum, outscored him, having a 146), but then realizing that they had a chance to win, he came through with a 191 and 226. There's a Red Cross handicap singles bowling tournament slated for March 11th and 12th, and if Wally should win that one, well, the association should bring in a rule that would "include him out".

Plain Arithmetic

The Prowlers have passed the mathematical chance of getting into the district tournament without a playoff game; they're now down to plain arithmetic. All they have to do is to add up more points than Red Lake Falls in the playoff game that is scheduled for the Crookston floor next Tuesday night.

Handicap Singles Event Planned for Red Cross Benefit March 11 and 12

A Red Cross handicap singles tournament is scheduled to be rolled over the Mint alleys on Saturday and Sunday, March 11th and 12th. The tournament committee announced that a percentage of the entry fee will be donated to the Red Cross, with the balance being reserved for tournament prizes. The bowlers will be given a handicap of two-thirds of the total pins between their league averages and the tournament "scratch" of 190. Four games will be bowled across four alleys; and all entries should be submitted before March 9th.

MUST FILE INCOME TAX RETURNS NOW, SAYS COLLECTOR

Law Requires Returns to be Made Not Later than March 15th

Arthur D. Reynolds, collector of internal revenue in St. Paul reminded taxpayers of the Minnesota district today that 1943 income tax returns must be filed not later than March 15. With March 15 so close at hand, Collector Reynolds said it was important that every taxpayer understand his legal obligation to complete his return on time.

"This is a time for frankness," Collector Reynolds added. "Much has been said about the difficulty of tax forms, about the complexity of tax laws, and so forth. As I understand it, every branch of the government is committed to future simplification of taxes.

"But, no taxpayer can afford to misunderstand this. Whatever changes are eventually enacted into law, they will not and cannot alter the 1943 forms which 50,000,000 of us taxpayers must file by March 15.

"The intelligent thing for all of us to do is to make out and file 1943 returns to the best of our ability, as soon as possible, and in as good humor as circumstances permit. The law requires these returns to be filed on time, and that penalties be added to the tax of those who fail to do so."

Collector Reynolds added that his office is providing as much assistance to taxpayers as it can, but it is physically impossible for his office to make out the return of every taxpayer, and, therefore, citizens should collect their figures and tackle the blanks line by line.

"Farmers have somehow come to believe that they need not file their returns now, and I want to correct that impression. Farmers must also file their 1943 income tax returns on or before March 15."

Forms on Which to File Statement of Estimated '44 Income Not Yet Ready

Arthur D. Reynolds, collector of internal revenue, announces that the forms to be used for filing declarations of estimated income and victory tax for the year 1944 probably will not be distributed until late in March.

Accordingly, the bureau of internal revenue has extended the time for filing the declarations of estimated income and victory tax for the year 1944 until April 15, at which time the first installment of the estimated tax will also be due.

Collector Reynolds stresses the fact that this extension of time does not apply to the regular income tax return for the year 1943. The regular 1943 income tax return is due on or before March 15.

CONGRESS PASSES NEW TAX BILL OVER PRESIDENT'S VETO

Measure Prescribes Higher Postal Rates as Well as Excise Taxes

The nation's tax bill was increased by $2,300,000,000 to a new record total of over $42,000,000,000 annually Friday as the senate followed the house in overriding President Roosevelt's veto of the second wartime revenue act.

Then, on April 1, an increased schedule of excise taxes became effective, jumping the levy on liquor from $6 to $9 a gallon, or about 11 cents a drink on 100-proof spirits, and extending thru a list of other commodities and services.

The legislation has no effect whatever on the individual income tax returns due by March 15 on 1943 income.

Salient provisions of the new law include:

1. Increases in individual income taxes for 1944—to yield an additional $664,900,000. There is no general rate increase, the new revenue being derived through elimination of the earned income credit and removal of deductions for excise taxes paid out.

2. A boost in the corporation excess profits tax, from 90 per cent to 95—to yield $502,100,000 more.

3. Higher excises on items classified as luxuries—another $1,051,300,000.

Playboy and householder, socialite and factory hand are affected by the new excise load. The tax on cabaret charges jumps from 5 to 30 per cent. Cosmetics, furs, luggage and most jewelry will bear a 20 per cent sales tax. The rate on railroad tickets and local telephone service goes from 10 to 15 per cent. Beer and wine taxes go up along with liquor.

4. Increased postal rates in several categories of mail—$96,000,000 more. The out-of-town letter rate remains at 3 cents. The in-town letters, beginning 30 days hence, must carry 3-cents rather than 2-cent stamps, air mail charges rise from 6 to 8 cents per ounce. Other increases affect C. O. D., registered and insured mail, and money order fees.

5. The social security payroll tax rate is frozen at 1 per cent for the rest of 1944, instead of rising automatically to 2 per cent each against employer and employe.

Ask That Collapsible Tubes be Turned in to Dealers without Delay

Mrs. Leonard Hanson of the Pennington county women's salvage committee, today urged that everyone possessing collapsible tubes which formerly contained tooth paste, shaving cream and other products, turn them in to their local dealers at once. Mrs. Hanson pointed out that after March 1st, it will no longer be necessary for purchasers to exchange tubes. However, there is still a sizeable quantity of used tubes in the public's hands which should be turned in to the dealer.

Dealers are instructed to ship all tubes on hand to the Tin Salvage Institute, 411 Wilson Ave., Newark, New Jersey. These tubes if weighing less than 50 lbs. may be sent Express Collect. If over 50 lbs. they should be shipped freight collect. All shipments should be labeled scrap metal—second class.

FATHER, SON SHARE PLEASURE IN HOBBY

Montevideo. — "Beauty from cigar boxes" might describe the fascinating hobby enjoyed by a father and son, C. F. Miller and Fred. Their inlaid woodwork achievements are pieces of real art. Most unusual piece of the many which they have turned out is a card table. The table top is inlaid with some 975 pieces of wood to fashion a symmetrical magic block effect of the Lone Star quilt pattern. Great precision was necessary in hand cutting each of the almost 1,000 pieces of wood inlaid in the table top, and in fitting and gluing them together. A total of 790 spare hours was put into this table by father and son to complete the work.

COW HAS TRIPLETS

Sauk Rapids. — Julius Mendel would have been delighted had he found one calf from a highly valued Holstein cow on his farm but to find one bull calf and two heifer calves was beyond his wildest anticipation. All three were well formed weighing 38, 39, and 40 pounds each.

HORNED RABBIT

RED CROSS NEWS NOTES

By Mrs. Millard Peterson
Publicity Chairman

The Pennington county 1944 War Fund drive got under way yesterday with a goal of $10,500 to reach.

More than 322 servicemen and their families benefited by the home service work of the Pennington County Red Cross chapter in 1943, according to Robert J. Lund, chairman of the home service committee.

"These services ranged from investigating illness in the family at the request of a serviceman to giving financial assistance to servicemen's dependents, Mr. Lund said. "When a man is away at camp or overseas, the Red Cross home service is his direct link with home in time of emergency", the local Red Cross home service chairman stated. "Through the local home service committee, a serviceman can quickly get information regarding family health, welfare and living conditions. In time of emergency he may apply for a loan or a grant to meet pressing family needs. Red Cross home service also supplies information requested by the military for use of commanding officers in decisions regarding furloughs. Regardless of what the request, like all Red Cross services, home service is absolutely free. In time of illness or emergency concerning a serviceman or his family, the local Red Cross chapter should be your first call for information and aid."

Early in 1941 the National Needlecraft Bureau offered its cooperation in an effort to stimulate the production of garments for war refugees. In 1942-43 the project was repeated and again they are promoting a Sew and Save Week campaign and urge women throughout the country to make garments for foreign war relief, disaster relief or other local needs and give the garments to the local Red Cross chapters. These garments may be turned over to any Red Cross worker or taken to the sewing room on Friday afternoons. This room is up over the Northern State bank.

The material for these garments is to be furnished by the individuals making them. If there is any question as to patterns, information may be received from Mrs. Lars Hylden, chairman.

Have you noticed the very fine Red Cross display in the windows of Oen's, Penney's and Montgomery Ward's? We are very greatful for this cooperation and hope these displays will add interest to our work and help to prove that "The Red Cross Is at His Side".

To the Red Cross in memory of Marine Lieut. Don I. Lorentson, a gift of money was presented by the following: Court House employes, $14.50; Sgt. Mark Levorson, $2.00; Sgt. and Mrs. Loren Stadum, $5.00; and the W. C. T. U., $13.25. These gifts are greatly acknowledged.

Here is a statement by General H. H. Arnold, commanding general, army air forces: "I wish to commend the American Red Cross and to congratulate its zealous personnel for the admirable welfare and recreational service being performed by the Red Cross for army air forces and enlisted men in our overseas units."

Aid From the Skies

Aid from the skies will literally come to torpedoed seamen when the new Red Cross-navy department project gets under way. Under the new system, buoyant, waterproof bags, containing emergency food and water rations and medical supplies will be dropped by patrol blimps to seamen drifting in lifeboats and rafts before they are actually picked up by rescue vessels. A can opener, flashlight, and cigarettes will also be included in the kit.

Sharks Aid War

Australia's most unpopular fish—the shark — has been literally pressed into service of the war effort. Shark oil is being used to replace the 80,000 gallons of cod liver oil which was annually imported before the war. The Council of Scientific and Industrial Research has proved that Mako shark is 50 times richer in vitamin A than standard codliver oil.

Electric Toaster

It is really very simple to adjust the regulator in any electrical toaster to best or optimum time. In experiments to determine the best slice of toast this "optimum toasting time" was set at 1 minute 12 seconds. And in all tests, too the toaster was allowed to heat up 1½ minutes before toasting, which made the toasting start uniformly the moment the slice of bread was inserted.

Strawberries Are Tops

HANDMADE KNIFE TO SAILOR BOY

Detroit Lakes. — When Robert Teague goes down to the South Pacific area with him will go probably the most unique knife any sailor boy will have. An old friend of his father's hammered the steel blade from an ice-plow blade which was once used on Detroit Lake. It took 12 hours to hammer it out. The handle of the knife was made of walnut from the old courthouse, and the brass trim from an old engine of a passenger train wrecked here some years back.

LITTLE HEN WITH A WEDDING RING

Roseau.—She was only a barnyard hen but for ten months she has been wearing a gold wedding ring. Last spring Mrs. John Elto lost her wedding ring and as the months passed concluded it was gone for good. For quite sometime her husband had noticed one of their hens picking the claws on one foot and recently he became curious enough to pick the young lady up and examine her foot. There was his wife's missing wedding ring looped over two claws in such a way it wouldn't come off.

GROW BETTER OATS IN 1944

Raise These New Disease Resistant, High Yielding Varieties—
VICLAND and TAMA

WHAT GREAT NEWS it is to Minnesota oats growers that you can now raise more oats on the same acreage by planting the new disease resistant varieties—Vicland and Tama. Yes, by ridding your farm of the old varieties and planting only these new high-yielding varieties in 1944 you may get—
1. More bushels per acre.
2. Higher quality oats.
3. More feed for livestock and poultry.
4. Extra dollars from your oat crop.

IN NORMAL YEARS these new varieties will yield 10 to 15% more than the old varieties. If 1944 is a bad rust year, as it was in 1938 and 1941, the new varieties will yield at least 50% to 100% more oats.

PLAN NOW to grow only these new improved varieties, then make sure your seed oats are free of weed-seed and other grains. Cleaning and treating seed oats will help increase your yield from 5 to 10 bushels to the acre. Seed can be cleaned and treated at central cleaning and treating plants throughout the state or at home by means of a small fanning mill and home-made grain treater. Ask your county agent for details.

REMEMBER, PLANT ONLY THESE NEW VARIETIES—Vicland and Tama. Both are heavy yielding, disease resistant and approved by the Minnesota Experiment Station. Enough of these varieties is available to plant the entire oat acreage in Minnesota in 1944. Buy them from your neighbor, country elevator or seed dealer.

Make Minnesota's Oat Crop More Certain in 1944!

You Can Help Speed Service by Always Making Telephone Calls by Number

There's extra need to speed telephone service these war days. More calls are being made than ever before—many of them highly important to the war. Calls save time, trips, tires and gasoline.

You can help speed service by always calling by number. Whenever operators must stop to look up numbers, calls are delayed.

Other ways you can help service are by—

Not tying up farm or party lines with long conversations.

Answering your ring promptly but not during a ring. On a farm line, removing the receiver during a ring stops the ring and may signal persons not wanted.

Keeping the receiver on the hook when not telephoning so the current is not weakened and those talking can hear well.

Your cooperation in these ways will help telephone users in this community to obtain better service than otherwise would be possible.

Plastic Won't Break

Curved rear windows on many 1942 motorcars are made of a glass-like plastic which will bend but won't break. So engineers say. But they add a qualifying "if." If such a window should be shattered by a terrific blow, as from a sledge hammer, it still wouldn't break in the ordinary sense, they explain. The substance would simply atomize into a cloud of pieces as small as grains of sand.

What Did YOU Do to Help Save This Boy's Life?

He stopped an enemy bullet . . bled white before he was found. But now he is found . . and is having a life-saving transfusion of Red Cross blood plasma.

The Army and Navy have requested the Red Cross to collect approximately 11,000,000 pints of blood from donors in key cities throughout the country. Add this vital work to all the other Red Cross activities . . increasing on a global scale . . and you will see why Red Cross must raise over $2,000,000 for its March 1944, War Fund.

Your local Red Cross Chapter is raising this fund from March 1st to March 31st. For the sake of all our boys, on all our far-flung battle lines, give every dollar you possibly can. You may be saving your own boy's life!

THE RED CROSS IS AT HIS SIDE AND THE RED CROSS IS YOU

THE THIEF RIVER FALLS TIMES

Signs of Spring

THE days are still short; half the nation shivers under a blanket of snow—but there are signs of spring everywhere if you know where to look for them.

They are little things—such as new seed catalogs, ads clipped from magazines, reminders, scribbled on backs of envelopes, of things to be done.

Thousands of men, all over the country, are making such notes, looking ahead—farmers, manufacturers, storekeepers, bankers. They represent what is called "management," and they know that to make the most of any season requires pretty careful figuring.

There's a skill in this management. It's a skill that men who run things have in common—that men who run things successfully have got to have. Management's problems are a good deal alike, no matter what the business—getting help, meeting payrolls and tax payments, making ends meet and having a little left over for new projects, planning for the future without letting the planning interfere with the job in hand.

And when you talk with these men, you find they have the same objectives, too. Right now they want to get the war won at the lowest possible cost in lives and suffering. After that's done, they'll be back on their never-ending job of turning out the material things needed to make a better peacetime world. General Electric Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Reducing Thick Ankles

Among new methods for care of the feet is a method for reducing the thick ankles which some women have to live with, and suffer from, all their lives. There are several reasons for thick ankles and one kind is caused by lymph fluid in the tissues of the ankle. Frequently this edema (as it is called) comes after a hard day of shopping on hard pavements. The basic cause of this variety of thick ankles is a chronic, untreated ankle sprain.

SAFETY COUNCIL CONFERS AWARDS AT DINNER MAR. 28

Annual Presentation Dinner in the Nicollet Hotel, Minneapolis

Widespread interest in accident prevention was indicated by the participation in the contests sponsored by the Minnesota Safety Council for outstanding accomplishments in safety promotion in 1943. Cities, counties, Boy Scout groups, 4-H clubs, labor organizations, state departments and individuals will share in the distribution of plaques, certificates, and honorable mentions to be awarded at the Governor's award presentation dinner to be sponsored by the safety council at the Nicollet Hotel in Minneapolis March 28.

Because of the widespread nature of the safety activities, and the predominant part of traffic safety in coordinated movement, the safety council's announcement of awards was released through the state highway department. Winners of the award plaques and honorable mention certificates to be presented by Governor Edward J. Thye in the 1943 traffic safety contest, are as follows:

Cities over 100,000, St. Paul; cities of 10,000 to 100,000, Rochester; cities of 5,000 to 10,000, New Ulm, Cloquet; cities of 3,000 to 5,000, Two Harbors.

Vessels in Convoys

Although there are fewer than 40 vessels in most convoys, some such groups, when carrying important people and valuable cargoes through dangerous zones, have been known to comprise as many as 80 naval ships and armed merchantmen. These giant convoys require an area of about 35 square miles, usually travel at only 10 knots and may be discovered by their smoke at a distance of 50 miles.

Auxiliary Notes

(By Mrs. John W. Stewart, Publicity Chairman)

"The number 1 interest of the American people today is the welfare of the men and women in the armed services", according to Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Racine, Wisconsin, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, who was in Indianapolis, Indiana recently to confer with leaders of the organization.

"I have traveled 10,000 miles since I was elected President in Omaha, Nebraska late in September, and have visited six states, including Arkansas and a number of states in the Middle West. I have talked with men and women in all walks of life and with widely varying interests and I can say, as a result of this personal survey, that their minds and hearts are on the men in service. They know that everything is being done to feed and equip our men, to give them speedy and good hospitalization when they need it. They want to feel certain that when they come home, educational and employment opportunities will be given to these young people, and they will be given every help to make a new start in civilian life.

"Before this war ends 50% of all American families will have someone serving in the armed forces, those who have not still feel a deep personal interest in the welfare of the returning soldier. They are being discharged at the rate of about seven to eight thousand a week now, for one cause or another. Today is the day of home coming for many of them. That is why the Legion and the Auxiliary have their plans developed and in operation now. Commander Atherton announced in Washington last week the program of the Legion and the Auxiliary for the returning soldier. The nearly 600,000 members of the American Legion Auxiliary will support this program 100%.

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Lem Martin's dog went on a rampage last week...killed four of Ed Carey's best hens.

Naturally, Ed was pretty mad. Went around vowing he was going to get his shotgun and blow the blazes out of Lem's dog when he saw him. And Lem says, "Let him try it and I'll blow the blazes out of him. Ought to keep his chickens locked up, anyhow."

But Ed and Lem are really mighty sensible fellows. And the whole thing was settled when Lem invited Ed over for a glass of beer, and they sat around chatting over the quarrel as if it were a kind of joke.

"Shucks," says Ed, "them hens didn't amount to much nohow." And Lem says: "Just the same I'm bringin' you a barrel o' apples to pay for 'em."

From where I sit, it would be a lot better for the world if folks would settle their arguments peaceful-like—sitting around over a friendly glass of beer—instead of going off half-cocked, and making mountains out of molehills.

LATE BLIZZARD HITS N. W. AREA EARLY IN W[illegible]K

Twelve Inches of Snow [illegible] Sunday and Monday; [illegible] Piles It Up

T. R. FALLS SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED TUESD[illegible]

Snowplows Swing Into Acti[illegible] Late Tuesday to Open Highways

Following a belated March blizzard early this week that piled in huge drifts a twelve-inch snowfall in the Thief River Falls area and thruout the northwest, snowplows swung into action late Tuesday to open blocked highways that demoralized traffic in the northern part of the state and North Dakota.

Local school buses were able to cover only a small part of their routes Monday, and did not attempt to go out Tuesday or Wednesday, the public schools being closed Tuesday while the storm was at its height.

Mail service on the rural routes out of Thief River Falls was suspended Monday and Tuesday, but with the snowplows in action, the carriers attempted to make the rounds Wednesday. The Triangle Transportation company buses also were tied up here Tuesday.

Most of the heavy snowfall fell Sunday and Monday, and Monday afternoon a stiff north wind developed that piled the loose snow into drifts, the gale continuing until late Tuesday, when the state plows started the work of opening trunk highways.

Scheduled Soo Line runs out of this city all were made during the storm, but the Great Northern train did not make its run Tuesday.

The blizzard arrived a week earlier than the one in March 1943, that brought a total of eleven inches of snow and tied up traffic. Last year's storm was on the anniversary of the disastrous blizzard of March 15, 1941, that struck suddenly, taking 28 lives in Northwest Minnesota and 38 in North Dakota.

Temperatures hovering around the zero mark prevailed during the storm, followed by a reading of 9 below zero Wednesday and 21 below this morning, according to the fire hall weather gauge. Altho the mercury early today was near the low point for the entire winter, the cold was less intense than would have been the case had there been a strong wind.

BOY SCOUT PAPER DRIVE SATURDAY WAS BIG SUCCESS

Sponsors Thank Public and Truck Drivers for Their Cooperation

The city wide paper collection of Saturday, March 4th was one of the most successful which the Boy Scouts have so far made. Through the courtesy of the Eagles lodge seven trucks were provided to pick up the paper and bring it to the base. There it was loaded on one of Hartz vans for immediate shipment. Since much more paper was collected than was expected another shipment had to be made on Wednesday.

Morris Owen, district scout commissioner, expressed his thanks to the Eagles, the truck drivers and the people who cooperated to make the drive a success.

Further drives will be conducted on a monthly basis. Those who have waste paper to dispose of should either put the paper in cardboard boxes or tie it up neatly in small compact bundles, using twine or heavy cord. Ordinary store cord is not sufficient. A few minutes extra spent in tying bundles will save a lot of time for those who handle the paper, it was announced.

Head of Alaska Mission School Visitor in City

Rev. Frederick C. Schmidt, in charge of the Metlakahtla Christian mission school off the southeast coast of Alaska for the past six years, arrived in this city Tuesday for a short visit with Dr. E. S. Amesbury en route to Warroad, where he is visiting relatives. He plans to return to Alaska next week.

Special Session of Legislature Opens

Township Elections Set for Next Tuesday, Mar. 14

Annual township meetings will be conducted in Pennington county and thruout Minnesota next Tuesday, March 14. Voters will elect supervisors and other town officers, and will act on the annual town levy for the ensuing year.

The state legislature, which convened in special session Wednesday on call of Gov. Edward J. Thye, laid the ground work for enactment of legislation which will enable Minnesota men and women in the armed services to vote both in the primary and general elections.

A few hours after convening, the senate elections committee recommended a bill for passage, while the house group discussed provisions of a similar measure for almost three hours but put off action until today.

Adjournment sine die is anticipated by Friday night or Saturday noon.

Principal differences are in the dates set for the primary, which must be changed from September 20 to allow time for delivery and return of the ballots, and in the dates for filings by candidates. A comparison follows:

	Senate Bill	House Bill
Primary	June 6	July 10
Filings open	Mar. 10	Mar. 15
Filings Close	April 10	April 6

The house proposal also sets up a detailed schedule for printing ballots and when they must be in the hands of county auditors for mailing.

Under the house measure the voter himself would be required to apply for a ballot, his affidavit that he is a qualified voter being sworn to by any sergeant or commissioned officer, or man of equivalent rank in the navy. The senate bill makes it possible for any relative of a service man or woman to apply for a ballot.

The senate measure would require that the ballot itself be accompanied by an affidavit witnessed by a corporal or other noncommissioned or commissioned officer, whereas the house bill requires that the vote must be sworn by an officer of no lower rank than a sergeant.

Both measures make it the duty of county auditors to mail and receive the ballots and distribute them to election judges in the proper precincts.

Higher Federal Taxes Take Effect April 1st

Increases in the rates of a number of retailers', manufacturers', and miscellaneous federal excise taxes, which have been made by the new revenue act recently, are being called to attention of the public by acting commissioner of internal revenue, Harold N. Graves, this week.

Rates, old and new, are shown below, and the date on which the new rate of the tax becomes effective is April 1, unless otherwise stated.

After April first instead of taking one cent for each ten cents or fraction thereof for admissions, the federal government will take one cent for each five cents or major fraction thereof.

Use or lease of boxes or seats will be taxed 20 per cent of the charge instead of 11 per cent now effective. Sales of tickets outside box office will be the same.

Cabaret charges will be taxed 30 per cent of the charge instead of the five per cent now charged.

Club dues and initiation fees will be 20 per cent of the charge instead of the 11 per cent charge now prevalent.

Jewelry (except watches retailing for not more than $65, the rate on which articles remains at 10 per cent) will be taxed 20 per cent of the retail price instead of the old rate of 10 per cent.

Furs and toilet preparations will be 20 per cent of the retail price instead of the 10 per cent tax now.

Passenger transportation and seats and berths will be 15 per cent of charge instead of 10 per cent.

Electric light bulbs and tubes will be 20 per cent of the manufacturers' price instead of five per cent.

Following applies to amounts paid for services furnished on or after April 1, 1944: Long distance telephone calls for which the charge is more than 24 cents, will be taxed 25 per cent of the charge instead of 20 per cent; domestic telegraph, cable or radio dispatches or messages will be 25 per cent of charge instead of 15 per cent.

The following list applies to amounts paid pursuant to bills rendered on or after May 1, 1944, for services furnished on or after March 1, 1944, for which no previous bill was rendered July 1, 1944; Leased wires, etc., 25 per cent instead of 15 per cent of charge; wire and equipment service, 8 per cent of charge instead of five per cent; and local telephone service, 15 per cent of charge instead of 10 per cent.

Billiard and pool tables and bowling alleys will be taxed $20 per year per table and per alley, respectively, instead of the former $10 per year.

The increases in the rates of these taxes are special wartime increases which will terminate approximately six months after the end of the war, at which time the taxes will revert to the old rates.

The new retailers' tax on luggage, etc., becomes effective April 1, 1944. The tax is at the rate of 20 per cent of the retail price and applies not only to traveling bags, suitcases, trunks, etc., but to toilet cases, purses, handbags, pocketbooks, wallets, and other related articles. The new tax supplants the present 10 per cent manufacturers' excise tax on luggage and like the rate increases in the other excises, will continue in effect until approximately six months after the end of the war, at which time the manufacturers' excise tax on luggage will be revived.

All the changes made in the various taxes, Mr. Graves stated, will be made the subject of regulations soon to be issued.

COUNTY RED CROSS DRIVE NOW HALF-WAY TO QUOTA

Despite the fact that the Pennington county campaign to raise $10,500 as its share of the Red Cross War Fund was interrupted early this week by a blizzard that brought the drive to a temporary halt, George L. Biddick, chairman, announced Wednesday that collections since the solicitation started on March 1 were already near the half-way mark to the goal, with contributions aggregating $5,175.66.

Of the funds received to date, a total of $4,270.96 has been contributed by citizens of Thief River Falls, or approximately 60 per cent of the city's 7,500 quota. While the solicitation in the business district is now nearly completed, Chairman Biddick stated that only scattered reports have come in from women handling the drive in the residence areas, progress there having been delayed by the storm.

As has been the case in several war bond campaigns, the village of Goodridge was the first municipality in the county to go over the top, raising $130 as against a quota of $105. Next in line is St. Hilaire, which also has attained its quota of $230.

While the blizzard has prevented early completion of the canvass in the rural areas, a number of townships have already made a good start on their solicitations. Remittances have been made as follows: Bray, $50.25, quota $125; Rocksbury, $208.50, quota, $400; Oakland Park sanatorium, $64.45; River Falls and Hazel, $52.50, quota $290; Silverton, $80, quota $215; and Smiley, $120, quota $285.

What Did YOU Do to Help Save This Boy's Life?

He stopped an enemy bullet . . bled white before he was found. But now he is found . . and is having a life-saving transfusion of Red Cross blood plasma.

The Army and Navy have requested the Red Cross to collect approximately 11,000,000 pints of blood from donors in key cities throughout the country. Add this vital work to all the other Red Cross activities . . increasing on a global scale . . and you will see why Red Cross must raise over $200,000,000 for its March 1944 War Fund.

Your local Red Cross Chapter is raising this fund from March 1st to March 31st. For the sake of all our boys on all our far-flung battle lines, give every dollar you possibly can. You may be saving your own boy's life!

GAS COUPON BOOKS WILL BE PICKED UP UNLESS ENDORSED

OPA Making Concerted Effort to Halt Black Market Operations

The daily loss of two and a half million gallons of gasoline through the Black Market has made it necessary for the OPA to clamp down on this practice by insisting that all motorists endorse their gasoline coupons with the license number and state of their license on the face of all coupons in their possession, said Rae E. Walters, regional OPA administrator, as part of the drive to stamp out black market operations in the Middle West.

Motorists who fail to do this will lose their ration books. Gas station operators must accept only properly endorsed coupons or face losses in their inventories. Truck, cab and transportation company operators must endorse each T coupon with the city and state of the company's main office, and the official fleet number or certificate of war necessity number.

Company officials can help by endorsing all coupons before turning them over to their drivers.

WAR ON ALL FRONTS

A SERIES OF SPECIAL ARTICLES BY THE LEADING WAR CORRESPONDENTS

Jealousy Within Axis

By Ramon Lavalle

(WNU Feature—Through special arrangement with The American Magazine.)

I have just arrived in America from Tokyo. As a neutral diplomat I have seen, beyond the curtain of censorship and terror, Japan at war. I was the Argentine consul in Hong Kong when the Japs conquered and looted that city. Later I was second in charge of the Argentine Embassy in Tokyo, where I remained until recently, when I was able to leave Japanese territory via Siberia.

As soon as I arrived in Tokyo I began to notice an atmosphere of fear and dread in the foreign embassies and legations such as I had never seen in diplomatic circles before, even under wartime conditions. Strangely enough, this existed among the Germans and Italians as well as among the representatives of neutral nations.

It was caused partly by the constant spying and surveillance of the Japanese police, partly by the annoyances and insults to which all Europeans were subjected when they went into the streets (quite unlike the Japanese politeness of former times), and partly by the offensive arrogance of Japanese officialdom, fed fat with the great early victories.

I saw an official of the Italian Embassy get into a taxicab at the railway station. Three Japanese came along and wanted the cab. They reached in, yanked the Italian diplomat out, punched him and got into the cab.

Polite to Russians.

The Russians, who had a large diplomatic staff, kept very close to themselves within the spacious quarters of their embassy. Whenever they ventured out, they were closely followed by numbers of Japanese police. But the Japs, mindful of Russian air bases within range of Tokyo, were careful to preserve a correct attitude toward their powerful neighbors.

The Japs held the Italians in contempt because of the failures of the Italian troops in Europe. The Italians feared the Japs, and several of them told me that if they lose in Europe and thus become useless to the Japanese as military allies, they believe the Japanese will massacre them.

The attitude of the Germans in Tokyo toward their Japanese allies, the "honorary Aryans," is one of mingled suspicion and dislike, which verged toward uneasiness and fear as Germany began to suffer military reverses in Russia and Africa.

Last fall there were three German raiders moored at the main pier in Yokohama harbor, near Tokyo—one a cruiser and two converted merchant ships. There was also, nearby, a prize ship, captured from the British. I saw many of the German crew members from these ships shortly before they were preparing to sail.

Then one morning we heard a series of explosions, heavy enough to shake out windows. We got into the embassy car and drove across to Yokohama. The town was in confusion, with much shattered window glass in the streets, fire sirens screaming and ambulances racing toward the docks. We learned that all three of the German ships, and a tanker fueling them with oil, had blown up. The prize ship and another ship were on fire.

There was intense anger that evening among the German colony in Tokyo. It was freely charged at the German Club, that "this is the jealous rivalry of the Japanese, who are envious of the Reich, and have sabotaged our ships and killed our sailors."

About 50 German sailors were killed, 100 injured and many more missing. No word of this disaster was allowed to get into the Japanese press. What the true origin of the explosions was I was never able to find out. Some Japanese officials told me that two American submarines had crept into the harbor and torpedoed the ships. But the next day they realized that this cast doubt on the invincible Jap navy, so they changed their story to Chinese communist spies and saboteurs.

The Germans had other grievances against their Jap allies. There were many German families from Java who had taken refuge in Tokyo while the Japs were conquering the Dutch East Indies. These families owned valuable lands and properties in Java. After the Japs had completed their conquest, these Germans wanted to go back and resume possession and management of their estates.

The Japs bluntly told them this was impossible. Java was a "military zone" and would remain so indefinitely.

Rev. Gustaf F. Johnson Concludes Prophetic Bible Conference Here

Rev. Gustaf F. Johnson, well known Minneapolis preacher, closed the prophetic Bible conference here last week with a large meeting in the municipal Auditorium. The conference, which began February 29, had been held in the Mission Covenant church which had arranged for this rally on the closing night. Many out of town people attended and several ministers were present throughout the conference.

Mr. Johnson's, topic in the Auditorium was "Contours of the Post-War World." The speaker could paint no rosy picture of world conditions following this war. He believes another war, eventually, will follow, which will end in the prophesied battle at Armageddon.

Mr. Johnson requested that his appreciation be extended those who made possible the use of the splendid facilities of the Auditorium.

A shortage of Indian monkeys, due to the war, is threatening to hamper medical research, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, publication of the American Chemical society, reports. The Indian monkey is the most satisfactory "guinea pig" among the simians for the study of infantile paralysis and many other human diseases. Large numbers are being used in research in sulfanilamide derivates and substitutes for quinine. Normally, 15,000 monkeys a year are brought to the United States from British India.

FEW SCHOOL-AGE PEDESTRIANS HIT IN STATE IN 1943

More than Half of Victims Were Past 50, Report Reveals

That safety education pays is indicated by the fact that of the 104 pedestrians killed in motor vehicle traffic accidents in Minnesota in 1943, only one was between the ages of 11 and 20. Class room instruction, school safety patrols, and various youth organizations share in the credit.

More than half of the pedestrian victims were past 50, persons who finished school long before safety education was started, according to an analysis by the traffic division of the Minnesota highway department. Another large group of victims was in the ages of ten or under, most of them too young to have the benefit of school safety training.

Although the number of pedestrians deaths decreased in 1943, the proportion increased. In 1943, there were 104 pedestrians among the 271 fatalities. In 1942 there were 145 pedestrians in the 439 total. In 1941, pedestrians accounted for 172 of the 626 fatalities.

New Studies in Infantile Paralysis Are Revealed

Suggesting that the condition of the person exposed to poliomyelitis, commonly known as infantile paralysis, rather than the manner of exposure is a major factor in whether or not a person becomes infected, Dr. William Lloyd Aycock of the Harvard Medical school, Boston, says that pregnancy might render a person more susceptible to the disease.

In testing monkeys to determine their susceptibility to the virus of poliomyelitis, Dr. Aycock found that when substances containing female sex hormone, normally excreted during periods of pregnancy, were injected into the monkeys, their ability to resist the infantile virus was increased. He concluded that susceptibility might lie in some discrepancy of such substances.

He also pointed to an analysis made on the 1939 outbreak of infantile in Detroit as corroborative of his supposition. Out of 528 cases studied, there were four in which the patients were pregnant. This was four times the number that might have been expected from chance coincidence figured on a mathematical basis.

A few years ago the theory was held almost universally that the virus of poliomyelitis entered a person's system only through the nose. Gradually information has been brought to light that makes this questionable, according to Drs. Howard A. Howe and David Bodian of Baltimore.

Dr. Howe told of administration of the virus to monkeys both by mouth and by a special tube that fed into the stomach. In each case the monkeys developed the disease with paralysis. Dr. Howe also called attention to a human case in which there was no evidence of damage to olfactory bulbs in the nose through which the disease was formerly thought always to pass, leaving destruction in its wake.

Down, But Not Out

Sharecroppers, Okies and the like, are usually looked upon as down-and-outers, but statistics recently released show that they may be down, but they don't stay "down and out."

One hundred families of sharecroppers who composed part of the army of the evicted who camped in mud and rain on the highway near New Madrid, Mo., in 1938, settled on 100-acre tracts, bought with proceeds of a federal loan under the procedure of the Farm Security administration.

This group has repaid $93,000 in loans and rent in two years and has an average of $377 in cash to finance this year's crop operations. Only 5 per cent are behind in their payments.

HOW BIG THE BONUS?

To a government that tosses billions of dollars around as recklessly as ours there should be no argument about promises of a fat bonus to each veteran when the little detail of winning the war has been attended to. Talk now is of $4,500 as a maximum for those who have overseas duty to their credit and $3,500 as tops for those whose service has been in this country. This would cost merely another forty billion dollars, so it is scarcely worth arguing about.

All of which sounds silly to those who still retain some sense of balance, but as a matter of fact we are approaching a condition in which it doesn't matter a great deal how much farther into debt we go. When you are busted you are busted, and when you are broke it makes little difference whether you owe a million, a billion or a trillion. If we don't apply the brakes on deficit spending at once we might just as well step on the gas and shoot the works. Instead of giving the boys $5,000, make it $10,000 or $100,000 or a cool million. One of Uncle Sam's million dollar certificates would be a fine testimonial of our appreciation. It would serve well as a souvenir for the boys to carry with them. Some of the fellows who are handy with the galloping dominoes might assemble enough of them to paper the walls of their garage.

But if we were seriously intent on giving something of value to the men who have served in the armed forces, we would make an effort to greet them with a solvent America when they return.

Now that we have had a touch of weather we are more appreciative of the mildness of January and February, and spring, when it does come, will provide a variety that otherwise would have been lacking. Almost any day now, we can expect reports on the arrival of the first robin.

By Wednesday of next week you should have your income tax report in the mail, which means that if you haven't started the pleasant job yet it is high time you start giving some thought to it. If the results distress you be comforted by the thought that at the rate our government is spending, your contribution should be at least twice as large as it is.

We know little about such things but we are informed that now is the time to start planning that vegetable garden. Come to think of it, this is one program that deserves a lot of encouragement. People who have a couple of basement walls lined up with canned goods of their own production and manufacture have quite an advantage at meal time.

Bulls Not Night Fighters

If bull fighting is popularized in the United States, a new breed of fighting bulls may have to be originated. Some Mexican matadors who put on a show in Denver decided to try night fighting under lights. It drew a large crowd, but the bulls wouldn't give battle.

'Shall Not Pass'

Although the Suez canal's average width is about 350 feet, ships going through it are not allowed to pass each other in motion between the Mediterranean and the Bitter Lakes, or over about three-quarters of the 100-mile course. The ship facing the tide, which flows for seven hours and ebbs for five, is obliged to tie up while the other passes, for fear too much backwater will loosen the sandy banks.

AGAIN fashion's spotlight is turned full force on cotton fabrics. No wonder that cottons are so vastly important, for the present wartime way of living calls for sturdy serviceable duration fabrics, and cottons are just that. When it comes to economy, practicality, versatility and attractiveness, made more so by the intriguing styling designers are giving them, cotton fashions offer the best clothes investment one can make in these days of high patriotism and earnest endeavor.

Not only are cottons economical in purchase price, but they don't have to be pampered, as most of them can be tossed into the family washing machine with minimum time and effort, and many of them require little or no pressing. It is just such practical qualities as this which make cottons absolutely essential to our wartime way of living. The American public itself confirms this by having used during the past year 12 billion yards of cottons, which is 50 per cent more than in normal times.

Let's take a look at this season's cottons, which make practical wearability, serviceability and simplicity of line their plea. It's the unusualness of the cotton fabrics themselves that's making big news. There's denim, for example, ordinary kitchen-drudgery, farm-labor denim, suddenly becoming the toast of the elite as smartest-ever fabric for city sophisticates to wear. Made up in town suits, in skirts to team with dainty blouses, and in Victory garden work clothes, denim has certainly gone on parade. Then there's news in striped ticking, looking as clean and fresh and eye-appealing in tailored modes as you please. Cotton tweeds, too, in stunning large pastel plaids as well as conservative glen plaids look new and exciting. Other popular cottons include gabardine, Bedford cord, seersucker, gingham, chambray (especially in gray), and a giant waffle pique known as "Quiltweve," many of them as beautifully tailored as the best of woolens.

For softer afternoon types there are crinkled organdies, voile, eyelet batiste, dotted swiss and pique, and a new cotton mesh which is cool and good looking. Dinner types prevail among evening gowns, which tend toward the sweet young styles in glazed chintz, flowered sateen, organdie, as well as pique.

The theme of these few paragraphs, however, have to do with practical workaday fashions, such as the white-collar gingham frock centered in the group. It's a type tuned to marketing and kitchen duty and even town wear, if your stork is on summer schedule. The dress is easy to adjust because it's full from the yoke and ties to fit with the sash. You can get it in red, green or brown woven cotton checks.

Victory garden workers have discovered that cotton play suits are just about the most practical thing they can wear while digging and hoeing and weeding. Shown to the right is a three-piece consisting of clam-digger shorts, and a button-on skirt of blue-and-white striped Bedford cord, the blouse being made of white poplin trimmed with blue rickrack.

The golf enthusiast in the inset wears a striped chambray shirt. There are matching shorts with this (not shown) and the gloves are of crochet cotton string.

American women are wise also to the fact that the two-piece swim suit that has a matching beachcoat is a sensible buy, in that the coat can alternate as a housecoat. You can get these suits made of glazed chintz, percale, poplin or gingham. Women who work also want slack suits of denim, gabardine, covert, corduroy and seersucker.

1924—TWENTY YEARS AGO

The M. A. Because when fired tobacco went up in smoke a Seventeenth century Polish "scientist" thought he had solved the problem of air-navigation. Stanbridge which had previously been referred to the License Committee of the Council was again brought up for consideration, with recommendation of such License Committee that such transfer be approved and granted. Mayor Douville was present and entered objection to approval of such transfer by stating that there were too many places selling beer in the city and that such places should be reduced wherever possible in order to reduce juvenile delinquency in the city and for those reasons he would not consent to a transfer. Alderman Petersen moved that the recommendation of the License Committee be accepted and that such application for transfer be approved and granted. Alderman Hunt seconded the motion and the roll being called on adoption of the motion and all members voting in favor thereof, the motion was declared carried.

Sleeping on Top Blanket

Mattresses are cold. An expensive hair mattress is coldest of all, an innerspring mattress is slightly less frigid. In winter-time, consequently, the part of the body that is next to the mattress is chilled, and much turning over is caused by unconscious efforts to get the cooler part of the body up under the warm blankets. A wool blanket should be put under the bottom sheet shortly after Labor day to keep the downside of the body comfortable.

ROSEAU DEFEATS PROWLERS IN LAST SCHEDULED GAME

Locals Can't Find Basket and Lose Poorly Played Tilt 26-20

The Prowlers, plagued by the "coldest" basket shooting of the year, dropped the final game on their schedule Friday night, losing to Roseau, the 32nd district's class A champions, 26 to 20, in a loosely played game.

Burdell Merritt and Bill McKechnie tallied free throws to give the locals an early lead, but Roseau, on field goals by Len Nyland, Luther Hegland, and Harvey Johnson, held a 6 to 2 advantage at the end of the first period. The Prowlers were driving in for a number of set-up shots, but the ball refused to go into the hoop.

McKechnie tipped in a rebound, and Virg Evenstad added a free throw, and the locals trailed by a point; but two rapid-fire Roseau goals pushed the northerners into a 5-point lead, and which they held at the half-time intermission, leading by a 13 to 8 score.

After Hegland had recovered his own rebound and popped in a one-handed shot, the Prowlers, on goals by Evenstad, a long shot, and Merritt's shot from close in, appeared to be on the move. Johnson looped in a goal from the side-line, and Nylund drove in to the lane for a close-in shot. McKechnie, taking a mid-court pass from Merritt, dribbled in for lay-shot, and Furuseth marked up a free throw. Nylund's one-handed shot gave Roseau a 21 to 16 lead as the period ended.

Each team scored a pair of field goals and a free throw in the final stanza, McKechnie and Merritt getting the two-pointers for the locals, while Herb Claffy tallied the free throw.

Billy McKechnie, with 3 field goals and 2 free throws, won the game's high point honors; while Luther Hegland, with 7 points, and Harvey Johnson and Len Nylund, with 6 points, each, were coach Ambrose Kramer's leading scorers.

Third Man Implicated in Burglary of Economy Gas Station Pleads Guilty

The case of the third man implicated in the burglarising of the Economy gas station in this city December 23 was disposed of before Judge O. R. Knutson in district court Monday, when James Anderson of Sanders township pleaded guilty to a charge of third degree burglary. He was sentenced to an indeterminate term at the St. Cloud reformatory, but the sentence was suspended contingent on good behavior, and he was placed in custody of the state parole agent. The two other men involved in the burglary had been sentenced in court previously.

Why Wall Street?

When Peter Stuyvesant was governor of New York in 1653 he built a wall or palisade to protect the Dutch settlers from both the British and the Indians—Hence the name Wall Street—although the wall was removed in 1699.

Over Fifty Sportsmen Attend March Meeting

Despite stormy weather, fifty members of the Pennington County Sportsmens club, together with a group of boys, turned out for the March meeting Tuesday evening in the Civic and Commerce rooms, and witnessed the showing of a motion picture, "The Making of a Shooter". Carl B. Vogen, superintendent of the Mud lake game refuge, scheduled to give a talk at the session, was unable to be present. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Government Now Depends On Income, Sales Taxes

A sharp shift from dependence on customs duties and liquor taxes to reliance on income and sales levies characterizes the last 30 years of federal tax history, an analysis by the Federation of Tax Administrators points out.

In 1910 the income tax then levied only on corporations produced only 2 per cent of all federal revenues. Ten years later the tax on corporate and personal incomes yielded 69 per cent of all federal tax receipts and last year it produced 40 per cent—more than any other tax.

Customs revenue, on the other hand, dropped from first to third place among the sources of income between 1910, when it produced 54 per cent of the total revenue, and 1930, when it yielded 6 per cent. In 1930 it was in second place, and last year it stood seventh among the various tax categories, making up 6 per cent of federal collections.

The liquor tax plus the tobacco tax constituted 42 per cent of all federal revenue in 1910, but only 21 per cent in 1939. The government now relies more on other sales taxes, especially those coming from the automobile user through the federal gasoline, motor vehicle and tire manufacturers' levies.

Payroll, gasoline and liquor taxes, none of which were in effect in 1930, accounted for 28 per cent of federal revenue in 1939. Among other taxes, the most productive were those on electrical energy, telecommunications, sugar, processed oils, and the corporate capital stock tax.

More Synthetic Rubber

Since the recent announcement by a large rubber company of the perfection of synthetic rubber, other companies have come to the front with similar announcements. Research on several other rubber substitutes has reached the stage where they can be put into production in this country.

One company claims it has been producing for several years a synthetic material more satisfactory than rubber for many uses, but somewhat more expensive. A subsidiary of a large oil company is working on the buna process originated in Germany, and its chemists claim they have improved and cheapened the German product. This company is building a plant in Louisiana.

Cost is an important factor in the production of rubber. The country's annual bill for natural rubber, of which we use nearly 600,000 tons a year, is about $250,000,000. Estimates as to the cost of the synthetic product run as low as 20 cents a pound for the cheaper varieties.

Hurdles to Health

Wounded American soldiers now take special exercises in hospital gymnasiums to rehabilitate their injured limbs and muscles. Private Ralph Johnson is assisted over these foot-high hurdles by Sergt. D. D. Gilbert. They are hospitalized overseas.

1,000 See Winnipeg Six Win Pair From All-Stars

More than one thousand fans were in the Arena Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and witnessed two fast and well-played hockey games. Coach Pat Lyon's smooth-skating Winnipeg Monarchs scored two wins over a northwest junior All-Star aggregation, defeating the All-Stars, 10 to 3, on Saturday night and recording a 7 to 4 triumph Sunday afternoon.

A slender left-wing, Art Hunt, paced the Monarchs to their Saturday night win, scoring four goals. Goals by Hunt, Don Stay, John Farker, and Larry Conway, gave the Canadians a 4 to 1 first period lead, the All-stars goal being credited to Jimmy Medved, with Cal Engelstad and Jerry Lindegard assisting on the play.

The Monarchs added another four-goal cluster in the second period, with Hunt scoring twice and Chick Zanick and Stay scoring the other goals. Bill Sullivan racked up the All-Stars' goal when he received a pass from Tony Dorn and flipped a shot past goalie Louis Miklan.

The two teams played on near-even terms in the third period. Cal Engelstad flicked in a neat shot after getting a pass from Medved. Zanick and Hunt, for the Monarchs, closed out the game's scoring.

Sunday afternoon's contest found the All-Stars turning in a much stronger game. Art Hunt with Malcolm Davidson assisting, opened the scoring, getting a Monarch goal in the first period. Bob Baker knotted the count at 1-all in the second period, Don Brossoit and Bill Sullivan assisted on the goal. Chick Zanick showed in a marker seconds later, and goals by Davidson and Larry Conway gave the Monarchs a 4 to 1 lead as the two teams left the ice at the end of the second period.

Hunt and Stay set up a neat play to open the final stanza, with Hunt scoring the goal. Cal Engelstad, All-Star's center-ice player, recovered a pass and backhanded a shot past Miklan. After Conway had scored a Monarch goal, Bill Sullivan, picking up the puck behind the Canadians' goal, slipped in a tally. With Don Stay in the penalty box, the All-Stars chalked up the game's final score, Jimmy Medved and Cal Engelstad slicing through the Monarch defense, with Medved scoring the goal.

Trailer Homes

The trailer business, in a slump for several years after a promising beginning, is booming again. Trailer camps have sprung up in every defense boom town as emergency housing. After two years of investigation, Prof. Donald Cowgill, of Drury college, has reported to the American Council of Public Affairs his judgment that 20,000,000 Americans eventually will be living on wheels, and predicted that, contrary to popular opinion, motorized living will have beneficial effects on family stability, health and morals. Most of the construction workers now living in trailers will not return to stationary homes after the emergency, in his opinion.

There are two sides to every question and the astute politician can be found on both of them.

Will Be Watched

The progress of the eighth region's basketball tournament, which gets under way here next Wednesday afternoon, will be watched closely by the other seven regions in the state, for this year the eighth is inaugurating a new system in selecting its entrant in the state tourney. Each district in the region—the 29th, 30th, 31st, and 32nd—will name a class B champion (from schools having an enrollment of less than 175 pupils in the upper three grades) and a class A champion from schools whose enrollment is more than 175 pupils), and these district champions will participate in next week's regional meet.

The class B teams will begin play on Wednesday afternoon, with the class A teams slated to play Wednesday evening. On Thursday night the winners of Wednesday afternoon's game will meet for the regional's class B championship; and likewise, the winners of Wednesday evening's games will meet for the regional class A title. On Friday night, the regional's class B champion will play the regional's class A champion for the region's championship and the right to represent the eighth in the state meet.

Others May Follow

If this procedure proves to be a success, and there's no reason to believe that it won't be, it is expected that other regions in the state will adopt the system. It will solve the bug-a-boo of what to do with the smaller schools, for it gives them equal representation in the regional tournaments.

According to all calculations, the regional championship should be decided on Thursday night. That night the Bemidji Lumberjacks should be playing the Crookston Pirates, and the edge should go to the Lumberjacks, but not by much. Of course it could happen, like it did with Climax, that Crookston and Bemidji do not reach the regional, or that, in the regional, they are eliminated in the first round, but it doesn't seem likely. By the way, that Climax upset can be partially explained by the fact that captain Delmar Glasrud and forward Hilding Hagen weren't in the Vikings' lineup.

A Fine Performance

Hockey fans witnessed two nifty exhibitions Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon when the Winnipeg Monarchs, by scores of 10 to 3 and 7 to 4, defeated a team of northwest junior hockey all-stars. There's no doubt but that the better team won, but local fans are agreed that the northwest juniors turned in a pair of fine performances. When it is realized that the majority of the Monarchs were boys 19 years old, and that they had had the benefit of playing together for a considerable time; while the northwest juniors consisted of boys at least a couple of years younger, and with much less experience, the all-stars did well. Only one of the all-stars was 18 years old, and that was Bill Sullivan, with the others ranging from 15 to 17 years of age.

Between the Saturday evening game and the Sunday afternoon game, there was such a noticeable improvement in the play of the all-stars that it's reasonable to suppose that had coaches Norman and Pagliarini been able to work with the boys for a couple of weeks, the all-stars would have been within a goal or two of the Monarchs.

Bowling Notes

The Eagles Bombers, in sweeping their three-game series with the Harts Office last Friday night, must have established a new four-man record. In the third game of the match, Harold Olson chalked up a 190, Hank Storhaug hooked his curve-ball into the pocket for a 230, Harry Hendrickson pounded out a 181, and Bush Hallstrom put the bead on the pins for a 231, and an 832 total. If their fifth man, Andy Nesland, had been bowling, it's probable that the Bombers would have hit a 1000.

Incidentally, the "big four" teams in the City league—Oen's, Poppler's Furniture, Eagles Bombers, and the Pharmacy—swept their games last week, so the race is as close as ever. The odds, though, slightly favor the Oen's.

Don't forget that there is a Red Cross handicap singles bowling tournament slated for Mint alleys Saturday and Sunday.

Yes, it is being cured through a new discovery, the use of Novoxil Liquid—produced by the laboratories of E. R. Squibb & Sons. The treatment consists of injecting the Novoxil Liquid into the infected quarter through the teat canal. Dairymen, through the use of this treatment and by practicing an adequate sanitation program, report cures in a high percentage of infected cows. STATE CHAIRMAN 4TH LOAN DRIVE IN FINAL REPORT

Arnold Credits Pennington Co. with Purchases of $643,250

Final figures for the Fourth War Loan show Minnesota established new high records, when with a quota of $200,000,000, people of the state invested $288,519,876 in bonds. Previous high was $278,640,100, set in the Third War Loan.

A new high was reached in E bond sales, with purchases of $72,306,000 against a quota of $64,000,000. During the Third War Loan sales were $64,600,000, the highest prior to this drive.

Total purchases by individuals, most of which were E bonds, was $102,240,000 compared with $102,200,000 for the Third War Loan. Corporation investments accounted for $186,279,876, almost double the corporation quota of $96,000,000.

Minnesota was the first state in the nation to go over the top. It was one of few states to have every county exceed its quota. It finished in fourth place among the 48 states in percentage of over-all quota and 17th in percentage of the E bond quota. It ranked 13th in total dollar volume of bonds sold.

Number one spot in the state for performance during the Fourth War Loan goes to Olmsted county which achieved the remarkable record of 211% of its $2,100,000 quota.

Final figures announced this week by O. J. Arnold of Minneapolis, war finance chairman for Minnesota, reveal that Pennington county wound up in a tie with Carlton county for fifth place among all counties of the state. This county is credited with purchases of $643,250 in bonds against a quota of $386,000, or a percentage of 166.6 of quota.

Red Lake county ranked 46th with 135 per cent of quota, Marshall 70th with 122.7 per cent, and Roseau 75th with 122.2 per cent.

4-YEAR-OLD CHILD SAVES BABY'S LIFE IN FIRE

Roseau.—While his mother, Mrs. William Osse, was outside doing chores, a little four-year-old boy saved the life of his baby sister. The baby was fast asleep when fire broke out and spread quickly through the home. Quick thinking and action on the part of the little fellow who pulled and dragged her into the yard saved the life, as the fire spread so rapidly the dwellings and all belongings were destroyed in a very short time.

AVIATION SHOW TO OPEN MARCH 25TH IN MINNEAPOLIS

Sunday, March 26, to be Noted as T. R. Falls Day at Exposition

The Thief River Falls chapter of the National Aeronautic association will have a special honor paid it at the Northwest Aviation Exposition in the Minneapolis Auditorium March 25th through April 1st, Harry Kinghorn, president of the local organization, has been informed.

The show, under the sponsorship of the Greater Twin Cities Chapter of the national organization, has set aside days throughout its run dedicated to the other chapters throughout Minnesota. Sunday, March 26th, is "Thief River Falls Day" and arrangements are under way to send a delegation from here to help in the celebration of the event.

The first of its kind in this section of the country and the only air show in the country this year, the exposition is commanding national attention, Tom Moore, president of the Minneapolis Civic and Commerce Association and general chairman of the event, informed local chapter officials today.

More than 100 nationally known manufacturers of airplanes and plane parts and accessories already have contracted for space in which to display their wares. The armed services also have agreed to cooperate so that people of the northwest can see the plants and the machinery that are making the Allied attack in the air click.

OPA Community Service Bulletin

By Mrs. Paul A. Lundgren
Chairman

In order to check the black market use of counterfeit or stolen coupons, OPA is requiring all gasoline ration book holders to endorse their coupons, as soon as they receive them. This should be done in ink or with an indelible pencil.

Beginning March 6th, OPA investigators began a spot check of service stations in the mid-west. From now on service stations must accept only properly endorsed coupons or they will lose part of their gasoline allotment as distributors will not accept unendorsed coupons.

It is to the interest of the honest consumer to cooperate with OPA in stamping out the black market. Two and one half million gallons daily have been lost to the black market. Gasoline will definitely not be withdrawn from military supplies at a time when preparations are being made for invasion in Europe and when invasion is, in operation in the Pacific.

That means that the civilian consumer will bear the brunt of the gasoline shortage and the honest consumer will suffer with the dishonest one. So let's cooperate.

Did you know that there are price ceilings on farm equipment both new and old? These ceilings cover the following sales:

1. Dealer's sales of new equipment."

2. Dealer's sales of used equipment.

3. Auction sales and private sales of nine principal used implements as follows: combines, corn binders, corn pickers, farm tractors (except crawler types) motor or tractor operated hay balers, hay loaders, manure spreaders, side delivery rakes and combinations of these listed items with other items of farm equipment designed for mounting on them when the combination is sold as a unit.

Ceiling prices for the items when sold at auction must not exceed 85% of the manufacturers last published list f. o. b. factory, if less than a year old, and not exceed 70% if more than a year old.

Regulation 6-2 which fixes ceiling prices for eating and drinking places, went into effect March 6th, 1944. Ceilings are based on prices charged April 4th to 10th, 1943, and the quantity and quality of foods should be the same.

SUIT PURCHASED IN 1905 IN WEARABLE CONDITION

Tower. — If Carl Howe hadn't had a yen for throwing one leg over the other when he sits down to read and smoke a pipe full of tobacco, doubtless the suit of clothes he purchased from his favorite clothier 39 years ago would have still been his "Sunday best." Coat and vest are in excellent condition but both knees of the trousers are in shreds from 39 years of knee crossing. While Carl doesn't feel like a best dressed man when he wears this suit he does feel he has one for Ripley—39 years of continuous wear in one suit of clothes!

RED CROSS NEWS NOTES

By Mrs. Millard Peterson
Publicity Chairman

Sgt. David H. Morgan in a hospital in Italy writes to Henry Buen the following: "The hospitals here are full as we are right up near the front. Everyone sure treats you fine here; they do everything they can for you. The Red Cross is the same way. They feed you good so I guess a fellow has no kick coming."

In a letter given to Dr. Borreson by a relative of a boy in service, he states: "I don't know what we would do outside of the field if it wasn't for the Red Cross, so don't let anyone tell you the Red Cross is not on the job. I used to have the idea myself; guess I got it from the veterans of the last war, they didn't seem to get much out of them. Those memberships you buy are a good investment as far as I'm concerned."—Vernon.

Here is a statement from the American Legion:

"We fully appreciate the unique and indispensable service of the American Red Cross. Many of our members had the opportunity of seeing this great organization at work on the battle fields in the last war. Most of us have sons on the fighting fronts in this war. We know the American Red Cross is with them in sickness or in health, on the field, in the hospital, and leave centers. It feeds, comforts, houses and entertains them when a furlough must be spent in a strange city. Gives them comfort articles when they return from battle and performs untold services to American troops. The American Red Cross is our helping hand reaching out to them, because it is supported by our contribution. "The American Legion wholeheartedly endorses the American Red Cross and urges every member to support the War Fund drive during the month of March."

Ladies, Don't forget that while you are waiting for the gauze to be sent to us for the making of dressings that your time may well be spent in furnishing and making war refugee garments. Information may be had from chairman Mrs. Lars Hylden in charge of the sewing room.

BLOOD PLASMA BOTTLE SHOT FROM MEDIC'S HAND

Somewhere in Italy—"He carried his musette bag, crammed full of blood plasma bottles, right out on the hill, and he gave the stuff to the wounded while the shells were landing all around him. I saw him holding up a bottle of plasma until it was shot out of his hand and then he switched it for another one."

This is a paragraph from a story written by Sgt. Milton Lehman, of the army newspaper, Stars and Stripes, the "taking of a hill" by the 34th Infantry division in the Italian campaign. It concerned Cap. Emil Schuster, Oakland, California, a "short, baldish medical officer who is 37 years old." "He had a way of talking", said Lt. Robert M. Watkins, Pittsburg, Commander of Co. "W". "What he said was something like: "Take it easy, you'll be all right; I'm getting blankets for you; this may hurt, but I'm doing the best I can for you'. But that wasn't it altogether, it was the way he said it. He never got excited. He kept smiling, and when he held the plasma up, his hand never shook."

The blood plasma came from home, gift of Americans who visited Red Cross blood banks in 31 cities. When you are in the cities, make a date to give your blood at Red Cross blood donor center, GE. 5361.

Statement of Quentin Reynolds, the noted war correspondent: Three great discoveries of this war are the jeep, the Red Cross and Ernie Pyle.

RESTRICTIONS ON HIGHWAYS GO INTO EFFECT SHORTLY

Truckers are Urged to Haul Heavy Loads Before Breakup

Truck and bus owners should begin to plan now for the annual spring load restrictions, a Minnesota highway bulletin suggests. Highway officials make no weather predictions but point out that for the past ten years or more, the time for the first spring load restrictions has been close to March 10 in southern Minnesota, somewhat later in the northern part of the state.

Ordinarily less than five per cent of the vehicles using the highways are affected by the spring load restrictions. Purpose of the restrictions is to protect the highway surfaces from damage and to keep them open to light and in most cases medium weight vehicles, by keeping heavy vehicles from using certain roads during the spring breakup. In order to minimize inconvenience from load restrictions, truck owners and operators are urged to:

Do as much of the essential hauling of heavy loads as possible before the necessity for load restrictions occurs.

Keep posted on highway conditions and load restrictions so that it will not be necessary to turn back or unload after starting a trip.

Plan their loading and routing so as to comply with load restrictions with the least inconvenience.

Gross axle loads instead of gross loads will be used in determining load restrictions. Axle load is considered the best index of potential highway damage, and it permits greater flexibility in the use of trailers. In many cases a redistribution of the load on the truck and trailer will bring it within the axle load limits.

Police Discover Lost Chord

The disappearance of a complete pipe organ from a neighborhood theater in Philadelphia baffled the manager but not police. The manager, Oscar Forman, reported the organ, unused since the advent of sound movies, had been in the loft of the Byrd theater when he last looked five months ago. After sleuthing for a few days, Detectives Edward Casey and Albert Jones announced the arrest of a 17-year-old usher who they said had admitted hauling the 626-pound organ away—piece by piece—since last December with the help of two friends.

Growing With Your Child

Mother, Are You An Isolationist?

Not so many years ago a woman's sphere was considered to be limited to the four walls of her home. Within them she was expected to remain in order to raise her children in the way that they should go. When she was tempted or prevailed upon to take part in a community enterprise her neighbors and friends looked upon her with lifted eyebrows and said that she was neglecting her children.

In those early days it was possible to anticipate fairly well the kind of life the child would meet when he stepped over the threshold of his own home into the great wide world. But today our improved transportation and means of communication have made is possible for children as well as the adults to reach further and further out into the great unknown in a day's time. The use of the automobile by young people has pushed out the four walls of the home, which formerly limited the mother's domain. To be able to guide her children the mother must know what her children are seeing, hearing, and experiencing. Mothers should know much about all conditions found within the radius of at least a day's travel by car, and something about the world that is more than a day away.

As the uses of airplanes increase, her interests in a wider territory will automatically widen if she is to meet the needs of her family. No home can keep itself apart from the world problems of today for the world enters every home by way of radio and the printing press. Literature of all kinds has increased and the children read at an early age about world problems. In order to guide children in their thinking, a mother must keep abreast of the times.

Because the world is changing rapidly, the set forms of conduct of an earlier generation cannot be taught the children with any guarantee that they will help the child to meet his problems when he takes his place in the world's affairs of tomorrow. Instead, it is important that each child be taught how to think for himself, how to solve problems, and how to be self-reliant. It is education in the principles of underlying good conduct rather than set forms of an older generation that prepares the child for the work of today.

No longer can the mother shut out the world by closing the doors of her home; isolation, whether she likes it or not, vanished a generation ago. To meet present-day needs the mother must be interested in her times and able to go with her children in spirit and thought to the uttermost parts of the world.

NO POINT

Johnson, a large man with big broad feet, entered the shoe store and after failing to find what he wanted in the selection brought by the clerk, complained, "Your shoes are all too pointed. I want square toes." The young clerk sighed wearily and answered, "I am sorry sir, but we do not stock square toes now, there is no call for them. Pointed toes are the fashion this season." The customer gave the young man an angry stare and replied with heat, "That may be so, but my feet don't know anything about fashions and besides they are last season's feet."

"But, doctor, I want just plain sewing; no hemstitching."

"He Knows It's Good"

After many years in show business, Charles Frohman was thoroughly familiar with the idiosyncrasies of authors, and knew that everywhere a writer went his ego went along. Once during a lawsuit, he was called as a witness, and was questioned by one of the attorneys.

"Mr. Frohman," said the lawyer, "when an author comes to you with a play, he thinks it's good, doesn't he?"

"Oh, no," was the reply.

"What, he doesn't think it's good?"

"He knows it's good," corrected the manager.

CREAMERY NEED FOR WORKERS IS INCREASING FAST

Special Training Classes to Open at "U" Farm Late in March

With the announcement that the War Manpower Commission is fostering a special training and recruitment program to man the state's already understaffed creamery and dairy products plants, USES offices this week began to feel the full weight of this manpower shortage, according to reports reaching Dreng Bjornaras, state WMC director.

Some 50 establishments in two days reported a need for 72 workers. One organization estimated a need of 200 by the end of the month. A 5-man creamery wants three workers at once.

As the demand mounted, steps were taken to organize a special training course at University Farm to start late in March, as soon as enrollment warrants. This course, which will cover cream testing, grading, and other semi-skilled creamery operations, can accommodate 20 persons. They will be selected for future employment by creamery organizations. The plan calls for the creameries to pay trainees while they are attending the course.

Information as to these training courses and employment in dairy processing plants can be obtained from any U. S. Employment office, county agents, Dr. J. O. Christianson, director of Agricultural Short Courses at University Farm, St. Paul, or the Creamery Manager's association, New York Bldg., St. Paul.

NEW OFFICE MACHINES NOW IN PRODUCTION

Permission to produce check-handling, coin handling and envelope-handling machines, currency counting machines, postal permit mailing machines and stamp cancelling machines on WPB approved orders for army, navy, maritime commission and for essential industries, has been granted by the war production board, according to an announcement made by W. A. McMillan, district manager WPB today.

Enjoying your work is the way to get fun out of it. Loafers can't see the joke.

Milestones on Road to Eternal City

Their helmets and rifles mark the graves of three British Tommies, killed in the bitter fighting near the town of Castelforte on the Carigliano front in Italy. The road to Rome is well marked with such tragic milestones, some German, some British, some French, and some American.

New Flatirons Will be on Market This Summer

Production of domestic electric flat irons for civilian use, prohibited since May 31, 1942, is permitted to be resumed on a limited basis in plants where labor is available and where there will be no interference with existing or potential war contracts, W. A. McMillan, WPB district manager announced today. Both automatic (temperature controlled) and non-automatic electric irons will be made, Mr. McMillan said, and the irons will not be rationed. However, he cautioned that it will be the middle of the year before the irons will appear in retail stores.

SHEEP HAS FOUR LAMBS

Argyle.—In a sincere effort to heed the government's plea for increased farm production an ewe at the Edgar Labine farm gave birth to four little lambs. Despite careful attention to the babies only two survived, however.

Included in the cast is Ione Peterson, Gatzke.

Snail in Boy's Arm

Remember the nursery rhyme about little boys being made of "snakes and snails and puppy dog tails?" A physician lanced a lump on a boy's arm in Coats, N. C., and found therein a live snail—shell and all. He said the snail apparently had been there for years but wouldn't hazard a guess on how it got there.

What Did YOU Do to Help Save This Boy's Life?

He stopped an enemy bullet . . bled white before he was found. But now he is found . . and is having a life-saving transfusion of Red Cross blood plasma.

The Army and Navy have requested the Red Cross to collect approximately 11,000,000 pints of blood from donors in key cities throughout the country. Add this vital work to all the other Red Cross activities . . increasing on a global scale . . and you will see why Red Cross must raise over $200,000,000 for its March 1944, War Fund.

Your Federal Income Tax

Prepared by the Bureau of Internal Revenue

When and Where to File Returns

Income tax returns of citizens and residents of the United States are required by law to be made on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the taxable year, which for most individuals is the calendar year. Accordingly, returns for the calendar year 1943 must in general be filed not later than midnight of Wednesday, March 15, 1944.

Nonresident aliens who are residents of Canada or Mexico, and whose wages are subject to collection of United States income taxes at the source by withholding under the pay-as-you-go system, are also required to file their returns at the same time as United States citizens and residents generally—that is, by March 15, 1944.

Returns by nonresident aliens who are not on the current tax payment system must be made on or before the 15th day of the sixth month after the close of the taxable year, or June 15, 1944, for the calendar year 1943.

If a taxpayer died in 1943, his final return should be filed by his executor or administrator not later than (a) the 15th day of the sixth full calendar month following the date of his death, if his last taxable year began in 1942, or (b) March 15, 1944, if his last taxable year began in 1943.

Members of the military or naval forces who, when the return is due, are on active duty outside the Americas or the continental United States (the States and the District of Columbia), or are on sea duty, may postpone filing returns and making payments of tax, until the 15th day of the fourth month following the month in which they cease to serve on sea duty or outside the continental United States, but not beyond the 15th day of the third month following the month in which the war ends.

This postponement applies also to civilian employees of the United States Government, or of Federal agencies, who are detained by an enemy government, or are beleaguered or besieged by enemy forces.

Other individuals who have been continuously outside the Americas for more than 90 days are allowed a postponement for filing a return or paying a tax, amounting to such period plus 90 days, but not beyond the 15th day of the third month following the month in which the present war ends.

Civilian citizens of the United States who, on March 15, 1944, are residing or traveling outside of the States, the District of Columbia, and Hawaii, but within the Americas, are allowed an extension of time until June 15, 1944, for filing the 1943 return. Those who take advantage of this extension must pay interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum on the unpaid tax, if any, from the original due date, usually March 15, until paid.

If an individual dies after returning to the United States from beyond the Americas, the postponement to which he was entitled cannot extend beyond the 15th day of the third month following the month in which an executor, administrator, or conservator of his estate qualifies.

In unusual circumstances a resident individual may be granted an extension within which to file a return, upon application to the collector of internal revenue for his district, if appropriate reasons are shown. If the extension is granted, the taxpayer is subject to an interest charge of 6 per cent per annum on the amount of tax payable, from the original due date until paid.

Returns must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer has his legal residence or principal place of business. Taxpayers with no legal residence or place of business within the United States should mail their returns to the collector of internal revenue, Baltimore, Md. If returns are filed by mail, they should be mailed in ample time to reach the collector's office under ordinary handling of the mails on or before the due date.

Winter Is Here

At last winter is here, the lion must have had to detour some place as he was five days over due. Spring is only two weeks away, so we hope our winter won't be with us too long. No mail was delivered on Route 3 on Monday. School buses took the youngsters home early. Instead of bare fields and roads now there are huge snow drifts. Snow plows and snow shovels were put to work for the first time on snow this winter.

From where I sit . . .

by Joe Marsh

We had a real old-time church supper the other night. Bert Childers played the fiddle, and the ladies brought refreshments. Of course, we missed the boys who were away—but all in all it was mighty pleasant.

Only sour note was Doc McGinnis. "Shucks," says Doc, "we oughtn't to be enjoyin' ourselves when American soldiers are over there fightin' a war."

Now from where I sit, Doc's absolutely wrong. All of us are working overtime to help the war. We've got our worries and troubles. It's a mighty good thing we can relax with a little wholesome enjoyment.

And I believe it's what the men over there would have us do . . . keep up the little friendly customs they remember—like the evening get-togethers, having a glass of beer with friends, and all the little pleasures they look forward to enjoying.

A Few Advantages of the Hawkinson Recap

● GREATER MILEAGE
Hawkinson Treads are scientifically applied—better because they are different — run cooler — better traction — more mileage — with any quality of rubber reported by users.

● BETTER TRACTION
Hawkinson "Rolling Radius" treads give superior traction because they engage the road with neutral rubber that is free to conform to the roughness of the road.

● GREATER CARCASS LIFE
The Hawkinson method permits you to attain the maximum possible mileage from your good tire carcasses, because:
No part of the tire casing is subjected to buckling or crunching action during the treading operation.
No heat is applied to the side walls or shoulders of the tire during the treading operation.
Hawkinson "Rolling Radius" treads generate less heat.
The Wearing out of the original and two or more long life Hawkinson treads on one carcass is commonly reported by Hawkinson operators and users.

● EASIER STEERING
Hawkinson treaded tires steer much easier than ordinary tires.

Approximately two thousand retail food stores in the Fargo-Moorhead OPA district will be visited by OPA personnel, including volunteer workers, during the week of March 13, William J. Hunter district OPA price executive, announced Saturday.

Prices will be checked throughout the nation on several food items including meat in an effort to obtain 100% price compliance on major cost-of-living commodities.

"Through the combined efforts of retailers and OPA representatives, we expect that when this job is fully completed, we will have firm control of prices and living costs in this territory," Hunter said.

A second check will be made following the first week's survey at stores where price and posting violations were discovered. Mr. Hunter stated that deliberate and flagrant violators would be brought to the attention of OPA district enforcement measures taken to protect the great majority of retailers who are abiding by price regulations.

DOG RESCUES PAL CAUGHT IN TRAP

Elk River.—Barking and wagging his tail, Brownie, hunting dog belonging to Harold Smith, tore into the yard of a farm some distance from the Smith's a few days ago. At first he was scarcely noticed by the farmer who was pumping water but Brownie wasn't to be discouraged, he was in trouble and needed help. He kept barking and following the man about until he finally persuaded him to go into the woods with him. There they found Mickey, Brownies pal, caught fast in a trap. While the man stooped to pet the prisoner, Brownie stood on his hind legs with his front paws extended in supplication as he does when begging for food. There he stood until Mickey was released and then the two dogs went merrily on their way.

No A.F.L. Strikes in Minnesota Since Pearl Harbor, Chief Asserts

American Federation of Labor union men in Minnesota have kept their no strike pledge to the letter ever since Pearl Harbor, according to Robert A. Olson of Duluth, president of the Minnesota Federation of Labor.

"Not a single hour of productive time in Minnesota war industries has been lost through strikes," Olson reported to the executive council of the federation. "From the time right after Pearl Harbor when we made the pledge there would be no strikes in war industries, we have stayed right on the beam, tending to business and doing our level best to back our boys on the fighting fronts.

"This is a record to be proud of, especially when it is recognized that Minnesota war contracts total nearly 1½ billion, which means a lot of work is being done in this state, with many opportunities for labor difficulties. When the score on this war is added up, labor in Minnesota will stand pretty good, no matter what our opponents try to say about us."

Red Cross Field Men Tackle Yanks' Problems Overseas

One of the very important functions of the American Red Cross is the direct communication it affords between the fighting man and his people back home. Here Red Cross Field Director John L. Barnes (left), of White Plains, N. Y., gives a message to Sgt. William J. McDonald, Jr., of Mamaroneck, N. Y. Picture was made in Sicily outside a straw Italian hutch with the rear headquarters of the 1st Division near Mt. Etna.

On Masera Island, up in the Persian Gulf, where there is not a single tree standing and the wind blows across the island ceaselessly, Red Cross field men brought fishing tackle, books and writing paper to service men. Most welcome gift from the Red Cross was clippers for hair cutting—the boys had been without a barber for months.

In Persia, a Red Cross Field Director was able to locate a soldier's mother whom he hadn't seen for 20 years.

In Africa, Red Cross field men flew in Army planes, hitch-hiked in supply trucks, bumped in jeeps over bombed convoy routes, through blinding sand storms and glaring sun to help men with personal problems and emergency communications, and to deliver magazines and books, cigarettes and chocolate to isolated posts and bases.

In Italy, Red Cross field men accompanied the troops in on the invasion barges.

In India, a sergeant was sentenced to the guard house for disorderly conduct. His officer couldn't understand the boy's behaviour. He was a nice kid—he'd never gone to pieces before.

The officer asked the Red Cross Field Director to see him. The Red Cross man discovered a very worried boy. His wife had not been receiving his allotments, she wasn't well and needed an operation. She thought the soldier must have cancelled his allotments and a misunderstanding had arisen between them so that she was no longer writing him.

The field man got in touch with the Red Cross chapter in the boy's home town immediately. It took care of her, financed her operation and saw that she had adequate funds to provide for herself until the allotment again came through.

When the Red Cross man explained what had happened to the soldier's Commanding Officer, the latter promptly released the boy from the guard house. From then on the boy was all right. His worries were over, and the Army had gained a good fighting man.

All over the world, in every theatre of war and active battle front go the American Red Cross field men—helping soldiers with major and minor personal problems, bringing them recreational items such as magazines, books, comfort articles, athletic equipment and re-establishing their contact with home. These men share the conditions and hazards under which the soldiers fight. They also share their lives. They are on call day and night whenever they are needed.

G.I.'s overseas have many problems. Often home seems very, very far away. With the Red Cross there at hand wherever he may be, the soldier knows he can always get in touch with home—that he need never feel alone with problems he doesn't know how to solve himself. More than 3,000,000 service men passed through Red Cross field men's offices last year.

On the mud clogged roads of Italy, through the far jungles of New Guinea, on lonely desert posts, Red Cross field men take your place beside your boy. In order to continue this service, the Red Cross urgently needs contributions from the American people to its $200,000,000 War Fund drive this month.

Discover Scheelite

One of the most important of chance discoveries was made in the yellow pine district of central Idaho, where an extensive deposit of scheelite of high commercial value was found in the course of testing low-grade antimony. Scheelite is a source of tungsten, so important a metal in defense that it has been placed under full priority control by the Office of Production Management. Tungsten-content steel is used almost exclusively in construction of machine tools because it retains its cutting qualities under extreme temperatures.

All the wide world over...

Your Red Cross is at his side!

To the wounded marine in New Guinea, the Red Cross sends blood plasma—and life.

To the flyer in a German prison camp, it brings good, nourishing food from home—11 pounds a week.

To the sailor ashore in Glasgow or Sydney, the Red Cross provides entertainment, comfort and cheer.

Wherever your boy may go—whenever he need you most—the Red Cross is at his side.

And the Red Cross is YOU. It's YOUR blood and YOUR bandages and YOUR sweaters and YOUR gifts. And now it needs your money, urgently.

Give generously to the 1944 Red Cross War Fund. Give gladly—every penny you can spare. The Red Cross never has needed your help as much as it does today. It's never needed so much money. So please dig deeper than you have ever dug before. Our soldiers, sailors and marines will bless you.

Auxiliary Notes

By Mrs. J. W. Stewart
Publicity Chairman

The regular meeting of the Legion Auxiliary was held in the memorial rooms in the auditorium Thursday evening, Mar. 2, with a large crowd in attendance.

Mrs. M. R. Levorson gave a report on the card party held Feb. 17. A substantial sum of money was turned in to the Veterans hospital from this event. The March of Dimes was also brought to a close, this project being sponsored by the ninth district under the leadership of district president Mrs. G. L. Biddick, and all proceeds were for the benefit of the Veterans hospitals. The local unit collected the sum of $4.60.

Mrs. Biddick reported on the trip that she, in company with Mmes. Marshall Kays, M. R. Levorson, and Carl Hovie, made to the Veterans Hospital in Fargo, where they attended the annual valentine party. At this party a presentation of a "talking book record machine" was made by the veterans. This is for the benefit of those who are blind or have slight defects. Mrs. Biddick made the presentation, which was gratefully received by those in need of it.

A very fine program was presented by seven girls, who were invested as "senior service scouts" by Miss Barbro Teigen, leader, and Mrs. O. G. Lynde, assistant. At the close of their program the girls presented Mrs. Christenson, state president of the auxiliary, with a corsage. This was followed by a presentation of gifts by the mothers of the scouts to Mrs. Lynde and Miss Teigen in appreciation of their good work in connection with the scouts.

Mrs. J. M. Bishop then introduced the state president Mrs. Christenson, who gave a very fine and impressive talk. Mrs. Christenson stressed the united efforts of all civilians for the benefit of our boys in service, as well as veterans returning home physically disabled.

Two clubmobiles are being purchased by the auxiliary at this time, at cost of $21,000 each. One will be stationed in the Atlantic and one in the Pacific. They will be manned by American girls and will be stationed near the fighting area providing coffee and doughnuts for the soldiers at all times.

At the close of the meeting lunch was served by Mmes. Carl Melby, G. L. Biddick, Claude Evenson, and Carl Hovie.

Place-Cards Ancient

The Scots used place-cards as early as 1327. If the guest was of noble birth, a square of parchment bearing his crest indicated where he was to sit. If he was a commoner, a small slab of wood pictured some past deed.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

March 12 will mark the 32nd anniversary of the day on which Juliet Lowe organized the first girl scout troop and inaugurated the great nationwide movement in which we serve. It is an event to be celebrated and an occasion to retell to the public the story of how one woman, neither young, rich, nor well brought a gift to the girls of America.

Several million girls have enjoyed scouting since the first troop met in Savannah, Ga., in 1912. Many former scouts now serving in the women's branches of the armed forces have given dramatic testimony to the value of what they learned as children in their scout troops. The president of our country and others vitally concerned with the welfare of the nation have lauded girl scouting as forces for democracy. The important value of this vigorous democratic youth movement has been heightened by the war; but there are thousands and thousands of men and women who have been interested in it through the peace years, too, and have contributed steadily to the maintainence and and development of girl scouting. Many of them have served on councils, committees, and even our national board of directors since scouting began. When the war is over, girl scouting will go on growing steadily, reaching the lives of more millions of girls, enlisting the interested aid of thousands of adults.

The local scouts will celebrate the 32nd birthday of scouting with parties in our local troops. Mrs. Hilding Peterson's troop 9 will decorate the window of the Northern State Bank building and the display will be Saturday, March 11.

Mrs. Albin Christianson of Wadena, state president of the Legion Auxiliary, gave a very fine talk last Thursday at the regular meeting of the organization. This was especially enjoyed by the senior service scouts, who were visitors at this meeting. At the close of Mrs. Christianson's talk, the senior service scouts presented her with a corsage.

The following girls were invested, state president of the Legion meeting by Miss Barbro Teigen. Katharine Sagmoen, Marilyn Skarstad, Maxine Pederson, Dorothy Geving, Camille Narverud, Penny Nelson, and Joan Lynde. Esther Bradley and Betty Jacobson will be invested at the next troop meeting of the scouts as they were unable to be present. Each senior service scout gave a talk on the requirements for senior service scouts, and their services and work in the community. This was followed by two songs. Mrs. J. M. Bishop presented Mrs. Lynde and Miss Teigen with a gift from the senior service girls' mothers in appreciation for the fine work and the spirit of community service and the help they have given to the senior girls of this year.—Maxine Pederson, scribe.

This season troop 10 has been quite busy. Halloween was a time for fun and we held our party at Eloise Benson's home, all the members being dressed in costumes of all sorts. The lunch was furnished by the troop. When Christmas came we also had a party and exchanged gifts and played games. At the party given for the scouts of Thief River Falls we put on a play entitled "The Proud Princess," while the other troops also had something planned. Since then we have been working on badges and have completed "Public Safety." Troop 10 also has contributed their help at the theaters for the March of Dimes. When the Court of Awards rolls around, we expect to receive a few badges. We are now busy on our troop paper.—Eloise Benson and Darleen Solheim.

Coffee Doesn't Disturb All

The evidence on this is contradictory—probably because coffee does disturb the sleep of some people, but does not for those who have established tolerance for it by regular use. If coffee disturbs an individual's sleep, so will other beverages which contain ingredients that act much like the caffein in coffee.

It was no picnic

When we had to sit huddled in blankets in the living room before we installed Gamble's Homeguard Insulation. No matter how much fuel we burned, the rooms seemed always drafty and cold. Now, with Homeguard Insulation protecting side walls and ceiling, we can keep the whole house comfortably warm and save up to 33⅓% on fuel bills. Room temperatures vary but little from floor to ceiling. Ask for a free estimate. Homeguard is installed by factory trained experts with factory approved equipment.

Red Cross Meeting Held

A Red Cross meeting was held at the Zion Lutheran church Saturday evening. Talks were given by Rev. Heatlie, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, and Rev. Duerre, pastor of the Mission church.

Musical numbers were rendered by the mixed quartette of the Mission church consisting of Mrs. Duerre, Thelma Anderson, LeRoy and Orville Rustad accompanied by Marjorie. Hetten Olson of Warren gave a talk of the work of the Red Cross.

The meeting was sponsored by H. C. Hanson. Lunch was served by the ladies aid of the Lutheran and Mission churches. The money taken in was given to the Red Cross.

Several from here attended the special services at Thief River Falls Mission church, which was conducted by Rev. Gustaf Johnson of Minneapolis the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Peterson entertained a group of relatives and friends at supper Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Anderson and daughters, Thelma, Marian and Arlys were entertained at the Orville Peters home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Barr and son Phillip motored to Grand Forks on Saturday evening to meet S 2/c Charles Barr.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. G. Johnson at the Evangelical Free church at Thief River Falls Wednesday afternoon of last week.

S 2/C Charles Barr of Camp Waldron of Farragut, Idaho is spending a ten day furlough here with his folks W. W. Barrs.

SMILEY

Mother Nature bestowed her blessing on the farmer's soil. She sent snow—a lovely, heavy blanket of snow. Perhaps it is only a prelude to spring for it's not real spring without its messy, slushy meltingness. Do youngsters love snow? They didn't hesitate one bit to bring out those skis and sleds that have been idle all winter. There was much ado!

Military Rites

Amid a beautiful and picturesque military setting with the sounding of taps, Marvin Hammer was sent to his final resting place in "God's Other Room" Friday at the Bethany cemetery. The cortege was comprised of color bearers, soldiers of this war home on furlough, a West Pointer, a sailor, and several members of World War I. The Bethany church was filled to capacity. The burial rites were impressive. Two vocal solos sung by Miss Florence Bredeson, 1st Lt. Walter Ekeren of the Air Corps sang one number. Mrs. Frank Hardisty was the accompanist. A reassuring sermon was given by Rev. O. O. Bjorgan who also read the numerous messages of condolences as well as donations of money to be used in Marvin's memorials. Rev. Bjorgan wishes to make a sincere and heartfelt apology thru this column on the temporary loss of an envelope containing the most important memorial contribution of all—that of twenty-five dollars from the H. H. Hammers, Marvin's folks, to be given the church mission as a memorial to Marvin. Unknown to Rev. Bjorgan, the envelope slipped out accidentally from the group he had and was not noticed until the funeral was over when it was brought to his attention and a search began. Fortunately it was found. Rev. Bjorgan is very sorry.

Robert Peterson and J. W. Landuboja, Jr. accompanied Engvald Hanson of Kratka to Minneapolis and Duluth on a business trip.

Rev. Walter Pederson pastor in the Zion Lutheran church in Thief River Falls was out to the O. N. Olson home Tuesday to see Mrs. Olson. She is up and about again, happy to be at her knitting once more.

Acquaintance Party

A group of neighbors brought "eat stuffs" and gathered at the Ed. Johnson home Saturday evening. These Johnsons came from Blackduck last fall and live on the Ed. Grundhaus farm where the Ray Christers formerly lived. A nice social time was enjoyed by the following: Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family, [illegible] and Mrs. Gust Hallberg, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Olson, Mr. and Mrs. John Ranum, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Grundhaus, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lundeen, Mr. and Mrs. Lyzum Cota, Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Olson, Clara Olson and the Johnson, Mark Olson, Grundhaus, Ranum, Cota, and Lundeen children.

The Dave Christensens are nicely settled on the Banik farm, the former Johnnie Nelson place. They moved out a week ago and are very busy remodeling the chicken house to hold a portion of the 2,500 turkey poults expected within a month. They have seven other brooder houses also.

Friday callers at the Jim McCrum home were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hovie, Mrs. Millard Peterson all of Thief River Falls and Mrs. Peterson's mother, Mrs. Amanda Person of International Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Taxerass and daughter are living on the farm out here now. It is the farm Carl's father, O. Taxerass, purchased from Mrs. H. J. Bragg last fall and where the Jim McCrums formerly lived. On this farm the Taxerass have 800 sheep of which 350 are ewes that have started lambing this week. With this present heavy snowfall Mr. Taxerass and Carl have been very busy watching and helping the lambs get a good protective start.

HELPERETTES

The thriving, bustling group of jolly Helperette women tore strips of rags for rugs for Mrs. Lyzum Cota at whose home they met on Thursday for their regular meeting. They were busy all afternoon after which Mrs. Cota served lunch and gifts were presented Mrs. John Ranum and Mrs. O. N. Olson whose birthdays occur this month. Mrs. Olson's gifts were given by proxy as she wasn't there. The Helperettes, for the year, have made thirty-three hospital bathrobes and twenty-one bed pan covers for the Red Cross. The new panel of officers are Mrs. Mark Olson, president; Mrs. Oscar Gilbertson, vice president; Mrs. Lyzum Cota, secretary; Miss Clara Olson, treasurer. Mrs. John Ranum is in charge of securing and distributing the Red Cross work for the year.

Congratulations and best wishes from the Smiley gang to the happy newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson (Gladys Wigner) whose marriage was an event of Feb. 24. A gay charivari was staged for them Wednesday evening by a group of neighbors. The new "Mister and Missus" are now living on the former Sig Sigurdson or George Homme farm.

Mrs. O. N. Olson was seventy-four years old Wednesday, March 1. Those who helped her make the day well remembered with gifts and cakes were Mrs. John Ranum, Mrs. Jim McCrum, Mrs. Walter Lundeen, Mrs. Bill Grundhaus, Mrs. Mark Olson, Clara Olson and Arlene Ranum.

Bulletin Briefs

The Smiley 4-H club will meet this Friday evening, March 10th at the Rudolph Hanson home. The program committee is headed by Dolores Belswenger and the recreation committee is headed by Helen Hardisty.

The Fireside Hour in the Zion Lutheran church will be entertained by Mrs. John Ranum, Mrs. Gilfred Sannes, and Miss Clara Olson this Sunday, March 12 at 5 P. M.

The Bethany Ladies Aid will be entertained at the Frank Hardisty home Thursday, March 16 by the Mesdames Ole Pederson and Frank Hardisty.

Blow Soap Bubbles

Next time the children have a party let them blow soap bubbles, with a little glycerine added to the soapy water. The glycerine will make the bubbles look much prettier—all rainbow colors and iridescent—and they'll last longer, too.

TRAFFIC DEATHS CONTINUE CLIMB DURING FEBRUARY

28 Deaths Reported During Month; Only Twelve in February 1943

An upward trend in motor vehicle traffic accidents is causing alarm to traffic authorities in Minnesota. Twenty-eight deaths due to February accidents have so far been reported to the traffic division of the Minnesota highway department.

This record, in a month when roads with few exceptions were clear and dry, is in striking contrast to the low record of 12 fatalities in February, 1943, a month when icy roads were general throughout the state.

Fatalities in the first two months were 55 in 1944 and 28 in 1943. Slight consolation is found in the fact that fatalities in 1944 have been fewer than in 1942, when 73 were killed in the first two months.

In some of the fatal accidents there were indications of speed not only exceeding the 35-mile-an-hour wartime maximum but in some cases exceeding the higher peace-time limits. Driving at high speed is extremely hazardous if vehicles are mechanically defective, or if tires are old or badly worn.

Thirteen of the February victims were pedestrians. Ten of them met death on city streets and three on rural highways. Of the latter, one was run over while lying in the road and two were killed after stopping their cars on the highway and getting out to make repairs or adjustments. Six of the pedestrian victims were from 21 to 50 years of age, five were from 58 to 82, and two were boys under ten.

Eight fatalities resulted from cars going into ditches, in some cases due to tire failures, in other cases due to losing control on icy stretches.

Retail Trade in January Slumps Below December

Retail trade in the Red River Valley, Minn. area as evidenced by January department store sales was 47 per cent below the high point established in December 1943, but registered a 18 per cent increase when January of this year is compared to the first month of 1943. These figures which have just been released by the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis show that for the state of Minnesota, January sales were 46 per cent below those of December. A comparison of January 1944 sales with those of January 1943 indicate a 15 per cent increase.

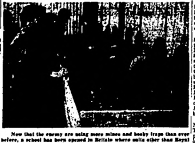
Learning ABCs of Mines and Booby Traps



Now that the enemy are using more mines and booby traps than ever before, a school has been opened in Britain where units other than Royal Engineers can take a four-day course on our own and enemy mines and booby traps. Picture shows instructors watching students at work behind the Mousear Stocks, a device constructed so they can handle various types of mines and booby traps in the dark.

MUSKRAT DRINKS WITH THE CATS

Fergus Falls. — Squeezing in among the barn cats on the Oscar Lein farm every day at meal time is one muskrat to get its share of milk. Since early last fall the little animal has been in the barn and has burrowed under a sill. It seems to have an uncanny intuition about milking time, never failing to join the cats as soon as the milk has been separated. It has no fear of cats, nor people. You've probably guessed by now its somewhat of a pet; otherwise its hide would have gone into the drying board during open season when a good rat hide brought up to $2.

FOUR QUINTETS SURVIVE REGION 8 FIRST ROUND

Bemidji, Roseau, Stephen and Hendrum in Semi-finals This Evening

CROOKSTON PIRATES LOSE TO ROSEAU 28-27

Bemidji Hard Pressed to Defeat Fosston Quint 26 to 22

Stephen, Hendrum, Roseau, and Bemidji won their way into the semi-finals of the eighth regional basketball tournament, which is being played on the local floor. In the class B games, played yesterday afternoon, Stephen, with left-handed Vernon Hendrickson and bespectacled Wayne Brown leading the attack, defeated Nevis, 33 to 16; while a powerful Hendrum team, with forward Tommy Anderson connecting for 25 points, swamped Fisher, 53 to 24. Last night's games saw the region's class A teams swing into action, and in the first game, Roseau scored an upset by edging out a favored Pirate team, 28 to 27; while the defending regional champion Lumberjacks were hard-pressed to defeat a scrappy Fosston team, 26 to 22.

Stephen led throughout in its game with Nevis, holding an 8 to 5 lead at the end of the first period, and increased their margin to 16 to 9 at the half.

Tom Anderson, notching 3 field goals and 2 free throws, and black haired Wayne Thorson, with 2 field goals and 2 free throws, paced Hendrum to a 30 to 5 lead over Fisher in second tussel yesterday afternoon. Anderson after adding four points to his total in the second period, broke loose for 4 field goals and 3 free throws in the third period, boosting the Hendrum lead from 29 to 10 at the half to 47 to 16 at the end of the third period. Mervin Wagner, center, with 4 field goals, was Fisher's most effective player.

A third period rally, after trailing by a 12 to 10 score at the intermission, gave Roseau a lead which it was able to hold throughout the final period. Crookston, with Sellberg connecting for 2 field goals, led by a 9 to 4 score at the end of the first period. Luther Heglund's 2 field goals and a field goal by Lennan Nyland brought Roseau's total to 10 at the half; while Crookston's four points were scored on free throws.

PENNINGTON WEED CONFERENCE HELD THURSDAY, MAR. 23

Annual Session Will Open in Civic & Commerce Room at 10:30 A. M.

The annual weed conference for Pennington county will be held in the Civic and Commerce room in the Auditorium in Thief River Falls next Thursday, March 23, starting at 10:30 in the morning, under the sponsorship of the Minnesota department of agriculture dairy and food.

In announcing the meeting, C. H. Schrader, director of the division of weed and seed control, stated:

"Township chairmen, or their appointed weed inspectors, and weed inspectors appointed by the municipal mayors or council chairmen are required by law to attend this conference. They are entitled to remuneration for their time and expenses for so attending. Other county and township board and municipal council members and other officials are especially requested to attend.

"All others interested are strongly urged to attend and participate in the conference. Nothing contributes more to the success of weed control more than the active interest and cooperation of leading, local public officials educators and private citizens.

"Farmers and seed dealers have a direct interest in weed problems and are also invited and urged to attend. Both weed and seed problems will be discussed."

Transient Is Arrested Here by Sheriff Rambeck for Issuing Bad Checks

Laurence G. Gadue, 42, giving his address at Tewksbury, Massachusetts, was arrested here Friday by Sheriff Arthur Rambeck, with the cooperation of Frank Steineke and Herbert Sellie of the border patrol, on a charge of grand larceny arising out of his alleged passing in this city of $140 in worthless checks drawn on a bank in Lowell, Massachusetts. Brought into municipal court Saturday, Gadue waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to district court. Sheriff Rambeck, who is investigating the man's record, stated that he is also wanted by Duluth authorities on a bad-check charge.

'A' Card Gas Ration Cut to Two Gallons a Week

The "A" card gasoline ration Tuesday was lowered to two gallons a week for the entire country, effective March 22, because of imminent "critical demands" and a gigantic black market which is draining 2,500,000 gallons daily from the restricted civilian supply. The action means a one-third cut in basic family car rations for all parts of the country except the Eastern seaboard, where the "A" ration already is two gallons weekly.

Petit Jury Will Convene in City Monday Morning

Knutson of Warren will preside over the term.

COUNCIL ASKED FOR PAY RISE IN MAYOR OFFICE

Turns Down Request of Douville for Increase to $75 a Month

ACTION DEFERRED ON POLICE PAY INCREASE

Aeronautics Chapter Seeking Engineering Survey of Local Airport

The regular March session of the city council Tuesday evening was enlivened by the receipt of several communications from Mayor Wm. J. Douville, none of his suggestions resulting in concrete action by the council.

Citing the arduous nature of his official duties and the many demands made upon his time, Mr. Douville asked the council to increase his salary from its present scale of $100 a year to $75 per month. Council members, while suggesting that they too could use a few more dollars, informed the mayor that it was beyond their powers to raise the salaries of elective city officials during their term of office.

In another communication Mr. Douville recommended that a ban be placed on midnight movie shows now being held Saturday night, as a move in the direction of controlling the activities of older children. A new ordinance would be required to place the ban in effect, and no action was taken at the meeting in that direction.

The mayor also asked that salaries of members of the police force be increased to $175 per month, pointing out difficulty he had experienced in getting competent men to serve at the present pay scale. Action on the proposal was deferred pending a comparison of present police salaries with those paid other city employes.

Mr. Douville reported that he had heard many complaints regarding Street Commissioner John Jaranson and asked that he be discharged. Frank A. Rinkel, chairman of the council street committee, stated that he had received only one complaint regarding Jaranson's work, and other councilmen told of many compliments that had been paid the street department for its efficient work in removing snow from streets and alleys after the recent blizzard. No action was taken.

A delegation from the local chapter of the National Aeronautics association, including E. O. Peterson, W. E. Dahlquist and Norman Peterson, was present to urge the council to enter into a contract with a competent engineer to make an engineering survey of the local airport site, a necessary preliminary to securing improvement of the project.

It was estimated that the survey would cost the city approximately $1,500. Action on the matter was deferred pending a conference with the Minnesota aeronautics commission in St. Paul.

Norman Peterson stated that three airplanes were scheduled to land here this morning, bringing an invitation to local citizens to attend the aeronautics show scheduled in Minneapolis late this month, and he asked that a delegation of city officials be on hand to welcome the visitors.

In response to a request presented by George L. Biddick, drive chairman, the council approved a contribution by the city of $100 to the Red Cross War Fund appeal now under way.

Also approved was the attendance at special short courses this month at the University of Minnesota of N. C. Lindberg, city assessor; Ole Ness, sewage plant operator; and Harold Anderson, operator of the filtration plant.

Fire Chief Leonard Hanson submitted a report and recommendations based on a recent fire risk inspection in the city.

TRF CREAMERY ALTERS STAND ON MILK PLANT

Shareholders Vote Yesterday in Favor of Handling Whole Milk

ACT AFTER REPORT BY SPECIAL COMMITTEE

Development of Plans Left in Hands of Board of Directors

Reversing the stand taken at their recent annual meeting, shareholders of the Thief River Falls cooperative creamery in special session in the Auditorium Wednesday afternoon voted 80 to 53 in favor of the local plant going into the business of handling whole milk.

The action followed favorable reports by a committee of shareholders and G. S. Bergland, manager, who recently returned after making a first-hand study of the operation of milk-drying plants at Milaca and Brainerd.

Included in the committee members who set forth their conclusions at yesterday's meeting were Carl Beiswenger, Christ Nelson, Albert Koop, John Hurtness and Mr. Bergland.

It was pointed out that, with neighboring creameries affiliating with milk-drying plants, the local institution will suffer if it does not follow suit. Mr. Bergland stated that 90 per cent of the farmers in the Milaca area are now delivering milk in preference to cream.

Stuart McLeod, manager of the local Land O'Lakes plant, who was called on for remarks, explained that if they prefer to do so patrons can continue to deliver cream without sharing in the cost of installing milk-handling equipment.

Development of plans for the new undertaking was left in the hands of the board of directors. More than 200 shareholders and patrons attended the meeting, which was presided over by John [illegible], president of the creamery board.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

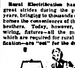
Rural Electrification has made great strides during the past ten years, bringing to thousands of farm homes the conveniences of their city brothers. Today, however, copper wiring, fixtures—all the materials which are required for rural electrification—are "out" for the duration.



The farmers of the nation, however, can start now buying rural electrification and all the equipment which goes with it through purchase of War Bonds. Your War Bonds today will buy rural electrification tomorrow and give you back $4 for every $3 you invest. U. S. Treasury Department

TREATING OF SEED RECOMMENDED BY UNIVERSITY FARM

Higher Yields Will Result, Tests at Experiment Station Show

Substantial increases in small grain yields can be expected when seed is treated before planting, according to results of experiments by M. B. Moore and other members of the division of plant pathology at University Farm. Pennington county farmers who had disappointing yields last year will be interested in results of seed treatment on this crop. Even though there may not be much smut in grain, treatment reduces the amount of seedling blight which affects grain during germination.

Treated seed often came up faster and made a heavier stand, but results in final yields were most startling. In the barley tests last year the treated plots averaged four bushels per acre more than the untreated plots. In tests running over a period of years, increases in flax amounted to about ⅓ bushel, 1½ bushels in wheat and barley, and the increase in oats averaged about four bushels per acre.

Approximately the same benefits resulted from treating corn, average increases amounting to around 8 per cent. Last summer one experimental seed lot produced 41 per cent more corn on the treated plots than on the untreated plots. Average yield from untreated plots was 61 bushels to the acre, while treated plots yielded 85 bushels to the acre. In 12 different seed lots of corn, treatment increased yields all the way from 0 to 41 per cent, the average being 14 per cent.

Seed lots vary in their response to treatment. Poorly matured seed or seed that is cracked, chipped, peeled or frosted is particularly in need of a disinfectant for protection. However, there is usually not enough visible difference between good and poor seed lots to be able to tell which needs treating and which does not. Since the cost is small, the best practice is to treat all seed each year.

Cost of treatment varies with the crop. For corn it would be about ¾ of a cent an acre for materials, and on oats and barley 3 or 4 cents an acre. Labor costs would amount to an additional 3 or 4 cents an acre.

Recommended materials for seed treatment are ½ oz. of New Improved Ceresan per bushel of wheat, oats, barley and flax, and 1½ oz. of either Semesan Jr. or Barbak per bushel of corn.

Directions for making a seed grain treater as well as for treating seed are given in Extension Folder 118, "The Minnesota Seed Grain Treater". Copies of the folder may be obtained at the county extension offices or by writing Bulletin Room, University Farm, St. Paul.

He later moved to the township of Sanders where he grew to manhood. In 1907 he was married to Marion Miller of Fergus Falls and for two years resided at St. Hilaire, later moving to this city where he was in business for several years. After moving to Erskine in the fall of 1915, his wife passed away, and several years later Mr. Rolland bought a farm near Park Rapids, where he has made his home for the past 20 years.

OPA Community Service Bulletin

Chairman

During the week of March 13-18, a food store price survey will be conducted in the Fargo-Moorhead district. Stores will be visited by the price panel assistants, who will check prices on several food items. A second check will be made later, where violations were discovered.

The purpose of this check is to help retailers as well as consumers to understand price regulations and to show that 100% compliance with these regulations will bring about a firm control of prices and living costs in this district.

This month we expect to receive a supply of community price lists effective in this area. When a sufficient supply is available for the public they will be distributed through various clubs.

An OPA spot survey among dealers in the 33-state rationed area, showed that in the mid-west, one out of two families, who heat with oil have been using more of their oil allotment than they should have by this time in the winter. In this area, no one should have used more than 80% of their fuel oil by this time.

Although fuel oil stocks have been ample, rising military needs and curtailment in tanker and transportation facilities, may cause a shortage at any time. Fuel oil and gasolene for airplanes, for jeeps, trucks, battleships, destroyers, come from the same source namely crude oil. Our crude oil supply is only 5% greater than before the war. But the things we do with our crude oil has increased astronomically.

Ration Calendar Information:

1. Brown Stamps from Book III will expire on March 20th.

2. Red and Blue Stamps will be valid for approximately 12 weeks. This longer period is to prevent last minute rushes to use up ration points.

3. Each Red and Blue Stamp is worth 10 points, regardless of number printed on them.

4. Stamps will be used across the book, for example: A8, B8, C8, D8, E8, etc.

5. Stamps cannot be exchanged for tokens. Tokens will be given as change when making a purchase.

MISSING BOY AND GIRL TAKEN INTO CUSTODY IN CITY

Pair Had Disappeared from Homes in Minneapolis March 2

A 15 year old girl and a 17 year old boy, missing from their homes in Minneapolis since March 2 were apprehended in Warren and Thief River Falls Saturday nigth and were returned to Minneapolis Sunday.

The boy had stolen a car in Minneapolis and had taken the girl with him, apparently by force, as when they arrived in Warren the girl's hands were tied together. The car was stalled in a snow-drift near the One-O-One station in Warren and when the boy sought the use of a shovel, the girl ran to Quistgard's Drug Store and sought help.

Ted Heyen, Warren chief of police was summoned and took the girl into custody to the county jail and then called several neighboring towns to be on the lookout for the car with the boy, both being found at Thief River Falls. They were brought to Warren on Sunday afternoon by Sheriff Toftner and Chief Heyen. The youths parents arrived late Sunday to take them to Minneapolis.

The Minneapolis Star-Journal reported yesterday that the girl was released to her parents there while the boy was held for further questioning by juvenile court authorities.

Higher Postal Fees to Take Effect March 26

Effective March 26 letters which have been mailed for rural route delivery and for delivery in cities having carrier service will be 3 cents in place of the 2 cents as formerly. This is one of the changes provided in the new revenue act passed by Congress on February 25th.

Postmaster Andrew Anderson calls the attention of patrons to this and to other changes in postal rates.

The law states that "first class mail for local delivery, except that on which the rate under existing law is one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof and except on postal cards, the rate is three cents for each ounce or fraction thereof."

An increase in airmail rate is to be eight cents where it previously has been six cents. This is for continental United States, including Alaska. That rate is also in effect between points on islands of the United States. The raise does not affect airmail letters sent by members of the U. S. military forces, which will continue to be 6 cents.

Postage on all mail matters of fourth class is increased 3 per cent. Fractions of half cent or more being computed as 1 cent, but in no case shall increase per parcel be less than 1 cent.

Money order fees are increased to a minimum of ten cents, ranging up to a fee of 37 cents for orders from $80.01 to $100. New minimum fees include registry, 20 cents; insurance, 10 cents; and COD parcels 24 cents.

War Production Board Says Wartime Paints Are Adequate for Job

Northwest householders and farmers who have a desire to refurnish their homes and farm buildings with an extra coat of paint this spring need have no fears as to the quality of the paints on the market, according to W. A. McMillan, district manager of WPB.

Evidence based on laboratory and field tests indicates that paints made now are equal to paints made under formulating methods prior to the war, Mr. McMillan said. This is true despite the fact that the changing raw materials situation has forced the paint manufacturer to constantly alter the formulation of his various lines, and lack of certain resins and oils has constantly changed the characteristics of paints.

"The gloss and drying qualities may not be up to pre-war standards," said Mr. McMillan, "but paints supplied today will be perfectly adequate for the job at hand, which is the protection of property. There will be, of course, a limited range of colors available."

MILK PLANT SITE AT FOSSTON GETS GOVERNMENT O. K.

New Plant Will Serve Area from Crookston to Blackduck

The letter stated that government officials had given official OK to the site proposed by the village.

The size of the plant and its related work may be estimated by the fact that the plant and equipment will amount to $250,000 or more and the entire project will amount to something like $450,000. The plant will serve a territory extending from Crookston to Blackduck.

Milk will be hauled in by truck from creameries throughout the territory and, according to present indications both whole milk and skimmed or defatted milk will be dried.

The plant will employ about 40 people and will operate 24 hours per day.

by Joe Marsh

You hear a lot of talk about morale these days . . . but have you found many people who knew exactly what "morale" was?

Well, I was thumbing through my scrap book the other day, and I came on this verse I'd like to pass on to you . . .

A brand new hat in a jaunty style . . .
Morale is a lot of little things.

Isn't it so? Morale is just a lot of little things. A flower in your button hole, a word of greeting, an occasional refreshing glass of beer with friends.

From where I sit, if we take care to preserve these little friendly things that boost morale, we'll be doing a lot to help our country in its time of crisis.

And we'll boost morale among our soldiers at the front, too. Because it's these "important little things" that they look forward to returning to.

The people of Finland deserve our sympathy. We cannot forget that until Germany declared war on Russia the Finns were fighting on our side. Possibly Russia's claims on Finland may have been justified as necessary to her own defense in the greater struggle which was to come, but in resisting the Russians the Finns were merely defending their own country. They were the victims of circumstances, a pawn on the chess-board of power politics. Perhaps they have not all times acted wisely but they have fought bravely in a cause which to them was righteous. They deserve our sympathy. More than that, they deserve whatever assistance we can give them in helping them secure an honorable peace.

Minnesota has a 65 million dollar balance in its unemployment compensation fund, which would be encouraging indeed if the 65 million dollars were tucked away in a reserve from which they could be drawn when the need for them develops. This is just another credit on the books down in Washington however—a credit to the state and a liability to the federal government. Like practically all funds, public or private, the value of this one is dependent upon our future ability to pay taxes.

Congressman Harold Hagen has not announced the party of his choice in the coming election but it is considered likely that he will decide to drop the Farmer-Labor label and run as a Republican. There apparently is some difference of opinion among Republican leaders of the district as to whethr or not he should be welcomed into the party and such differences of opinion are understandable. Hagen's record, however, is in his favor. He has given the district excellent representation and, after all, that is the important thing. Whether he chooses to run as a Republican or as a Democrat he has a good chance of being reelected. The district being normally Republican, much of his strength naturally is already in this party, and regardless of what the leaders may think, there are many Republicans in the district who would welcome Hagen to their ranks. It would seem that the proper thing for the Republicans to do under the circumstances would be to invite him to enter their primary on equal terms with other candidates and then let the voters decide who shall be the party's candidate.

This evidently is not going to be one of those years when the planting will be started in March, not early in March at any rate, but who cares. Next week brings the first day of Spring officially and for a couple of weeks we can get a lot of comfort out of the calendar.

After going through the formality of giving the government its cut on our income we wondered if this Uncle who collects taxes from us is the same Uncle who is so concerned about our financial welfare that he insists on kicking in a dime every time we buy a pound of butter.

From the State Capitol
By W. E. Dahlquist

Minnesota can now be added to the list of states that have passed special election laws to make it possible for citizens serving in the armed forces to vote. Under the new law ballots will be mailed to our men in uniform without cost to them and in sufficient time to enable them to register their preferences in both the primary and general elections.

Passed by both houses of the special legislature Saturday afternoon and signed by Governor Thye on Monday, the new law moves the 1944 primary up to Monday, July 10. This date was adopted because it will make it possible to have the ballots ready for distribution at least 60 days before both election days. Uncle Sam has recommended 45 days as a necessary minimum to get the ballots out and back again so on this basis we have 15 days to spare.

The special privileges under this new law apply only to men and women in the armed forces or those engaged actively in the Red Cross, U.S.O., or similar organizations. All other citizens who expect to be absent on election day will have to proceed as in other years if they wish to vote by absent ballot. The special war ballot provided for the emergency will be mailed without cost to the individual upon his own application or upon the application of an immediate relative.

Those are the highlights of the bill passed to solve the problem for which the special session was called. It took four days to bring about agreement on the various provisions—four days of comparative idleness for most of us but four busy days for the members of the committees whose responsibility it was to iron out the details. Thanks to the fact that these committees had done considerable work before the session opened there was no time lost in getting to the business at hand.

Here is about how business proceeded in the Senate. Called to order at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, all preliminary organization work was disposed of by 11:30 o'clock and shortly before noon Senator Richardson, chairman of the elections committee, introduced the bill his committee had prepared. Without delay this bill was given its first reading and referred to the committee on rules for clearance, and then re-referred to the committee on elections for public hearings to be held Wednesday afternoon. The Senate then adjourned to Thursday morning.

On Thursday morning the bill was reported back with some changes and following discussion a few more minor amendments were adopted. It was then decided that soldier ballots should be provided for both the primary and general election and July 10 was agreed upon as the proper primary date. The closing hour for the polls was also moved back to 9:00 o'clock in the primary election in consideration of the labor problem of farmers and daylight saving time. By 4:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon this amended bill was passed by a unanimous vote and the Senate adjourned to 8:00 o'clock Thursday night for action on the different bill passed by the House.

Minor differences between Senate and House bills caused the difficulties and delays that followed. Conference committees representing both houses were appointed and from then on there was little for the rest of us to do but wait until these committees had agreed. This agreement was reached by drawing an entirely new bill which embodied parts of both the House and Senate versions.

This compromise measure was approved by the House Saturday morning and shortly before noon it received the unanimous blessing of the Senate. Then, when it appeared that we were ready to adjourn, came the discovery that the language in the bill was vague on one important point. As it was worded it might have been interpreted to mean that we should have two primaries, one for the soldiers and one for civilians, so the Senate voted to reconsider and the measure was referred back to committee for necessary repairs. Changes were made to the satisfaction of all concerned and by 4:15 Saturday afternoon the special session ended.

The only action taken by the session not in line with the purpose for which it was called was the authorization of $40,000 to meet a deficit faced by the Railroad and Warehouse Commission. This problem required emergency action as a result of a change in state laws requiring that all fees collected by the Railroad & Warehouse Commission be turned over to the general revenue fund of the state, from which money would be appropriated to meet necessary expenses. Because of the greatly increased volume of business in grain sampling and grading during the past year the amount appropriated at the regular session had proven to be inadequate. Both the receipts and costs had exceeded expectations, the state treasury being enriched considerably as a result.

This is an example of the difficulty in anticipating costs. Another example was cited to me by Chester Wilson over a cup of coffee. At the regular session we had authorized $28,000 to be paid in fox bounties. Mr. Wilson said that at the rate claims are coming in the State probably will be called on to pay in the neighborhood of $90,000 for fox bounties in the two year period. That $28,000 guess wasn't even close.

GIRL SCOUT NOTES

The postponed meeting of the girl scout council will be held on Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the library rooms.

Troop 10—The troop has started on a troop paper. Beverly Kjos, the editor, writes jokes, cartoons, and stories, and anything else the girls might request. Nothing is put in the troop paper that does not concern troop 10. Crossword puzzles are being collected and the troop is going to put them in a scrap book for patients at hospitals. Lydia Sator has joined troop 10 and is now working for her tenderfoot badge.—Delores Wynnemer, scribe.

On March 11 girl scouts of troop 9 gave a sleigh ride party around town for troop 7. This was followed by lunch in the Rex Cafe. The girl scouts of troop 7 want to thank Mrs. Hilding Peterson and the scouts of troop 9 for a very delightful evening.

The girls of troop 9 and their leader, Mrs. Hilding Peterson, have a very interesting window display in the Northern State Bank building for girl scout week starting March 12.

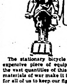
What You Buy With WAR BONDS
Prevents the "Bends"

Before our fighting pilots take to the air for stratosphere flying they must be "suped-up." To do this the pilot just before he takes off pedals a stationary motor driven bicycle to reduce the amount of nitrogen in his blood. Otherwise gas bubbles would collect in his blood stream.



The stationary bicycle is an inexpensive piece of equipment, but the vast quantities of this and other materials of war make it imperative for all of us to keep our fighting men well supplied by greater and greater purchases of War Bonds.

Looking Backward

1934—TEN YEARS AGO

M. A. Brattland, Ada attorney, was appointed district judge by Governor Floyd B. Olson, succeeding Julius J. Olson of Warren.—The contract price of the new bridge across the Red Lake river in this city was announced as $78,749.—Orville E. Olson of Minneapolis was appointed Pennington county relief worker.—C. G. Matson was elected head of the local U.C.T. lodge, with E. M. Bennes as secretary. — Frank Protz, resident here 28 years, died March 14.

1924—TWENTY YEARS AGO

Jorgen Eide was elected supervisor in the Town of North election, and M. H. Ballingrud was named clerk.—W. W. Prichard was named exalted ruler of the local Elks lodge.—At the Ninth district Republican convention, Mrs. J. M. Bishop was elected alternate delegate to the national convention in Cleveland, Ohio.—I. T. Simley, superintendent of the local schools, was reelected to serve a fourth year.—The creamery here shipped 45,000 pounds of butter in February. — Gilbert

'Shall Not Pass'

Although the Suez canal's average width is about 250 feet, ships going through it are not allowed to pass each other in motion between the Mediterranean and the Bitter Lakes, or over about three-quarters of the 100-mile course. The ship facing the tide, which flows for seven hours and ebbs for five, is obliged to tie up while the other passes, for fear too much backwater will loosen the sandy banks.

Convicts Make Goods for Battlefronts

While many of their friends and relatives are in the armed forces, inmates of San Quentin, Calif., prison have turned to war work within the grim gray walls of the very institution which keeps them from joining in the fighting. Much of the goods now produced in the shops and yards of the prison now go to use on the farflung battlefields of the world. These men are stripping insulation from old electric cables brought to the prison from civilian scrap piles and from the battlefields themselves.

RED CROSS NEWS NOTES
By Mrs. Millard Peterson
Publicity Chairman

Surgical dressing gauze has arrived last Saturday so work began Monday afternoon of this week. Twenty ladies turned out Monday afternoon, making 900 dressings and in the evening there were fifteen who made 800. That is a total of 1700 as compared to a maximum of 2500 that have been made on a Monday previous to the shipment. We know that many more ladies will turn out when plans are again worked out so that workers can arrange to spend at least one afternoon a week at the dressing room. A list of the women having put in the greatest number of hours since work began, will be published next week.

The B. B. Hammer family have presented fifty dollars to the local Red Cross as part of a memorial that was given by friends and relatives for the late T/Sgt. Marvin Hammer who died in the Fort Lewis Station hospital in Washington. The family stated they know of no better service for which this gift could be used as the Red Cross showed them every service and kindness while they were with their son in Washington. A Red Cross worker met them at the train, took them to the hospital, and provided quarters for them at a Red Cross station. Marvin was given every consideration, including transfusions of plasma, a gift of Red Cross donors. We thank Mr. and Mrs. Hammer and family for this money, knowing that friends and relatives alike are pleased that they chose this form as part of Marvin's memorial.

Smiley is the third township to reach its quota in the Red Cross War Fund drive. Figures to date show more returns from other townships. They are:

		Quota
Bray	$ 106.25	$ 125.00
River Falls	62.50	290.00
Rocksbury	277.95	400.00
Silverton	119.50	215.00
Smiley	339.00	285.00

Village of Goodridge was the first to go over the top, St. Hilaire second in reaching its quota and Smiley second in passing its quota.

Red Cross War Fund campaign headquarters in the Falls theatre building will be open only in the afternoon next week.

One should never stop drinking milk, say doctors. It is the most nearly perfect food, rich in proteins, mineral elements and vitamins. Every growing child should drink at least one quart a day and every adult at least one pint daily.

Famous Linguists

The most famous linguists of antiquity were Mithridates, king of Pontus, who is said to have been thoroughly conversant with the languages of the 25 nations over which his rule extended, and Cleopatra, queen of Egypt, of whom Plutarch says that "she spoke most languages," and that "there were but few of the foreign ambassadors to whom she gave audience through an interpreter."

Jug Stoppers

Many stoppers of Fifteenth century wine jugs were made in the shape of a man's head and the headgear denoted the quality of the wine. The best had a king's head and crown. The poorest had no hat at all.

Police Discover Lost Chord

The disappearance of a complete pipe organ from a neighborhood theater in Philadelphia baffled the manager but not police. The manager, Oscar Forman, reported the organ, unused since the advent of sound movies, had been in the loft of the Byrd theater when he last looked five months ago. After sleuthing for a few days, Detectives Edward Casey and Albert Jones announced the arrest of a 17-year-old usher who they said had admitted hauling the 824-pound organ away—piece by piece—since last November with the help of two friends.

Reducing Thick Ankles

Among new methods for care of the feet is a method for reducing the thick ankles which some women have to live with, and suffer from, all their lives. There are several reasons for thick ankles and one kind is caused by lymph fluid in the tissues of the ankle. Frequently this edema (as it is called) comes after a hard day of shopping on hard pavements. The basic cause of this variety of thick ankles is a chronic, untreated ankle sprain.

CROOKSTON QUINT WINS DISTRICT 31 CAGE TITLE FRIDAY

Wins from East Grand Forks 30-16 in Championship Finals

Coach Herschel Lysaker's all-veteran Crookston Pirates, with a second half scoring spurt, won the 31st district's class A basketball title Friday night by defeating East Grand Forks, 30 to 16, in the championship finals of the tournament held at Crookston on Thursday and Friday.

In the semi-finals, Crookston eliminated Thief River Falls, 31 to 23; while East Grand Forks defeated Warren, 31 to 26. The previous week, in a tourney held at East Grand Forks, Fisher won the district's class B championship upsetting a favored Climax team in the finals.

As expected, the defending regional champion Bemidji Lumberjacks, in the 29th district's class A and class B tournament held at Bemidji, won the class A title with a 45 to 26 win over Cass Lake. Nevis won the district's class B honor, marking up a 26 to 18 win over Kelliher.

The smooth-passing Fosston Greyhounds won the class A championship of district 30, scoring an easy 47 to 20 win over Waubun. Hendrum won the class B championship by defeating a fine Mentor team, 53 to 46.

Argyle won the 32nd district's class B championship by outscoring Hallock, 33 to 28, in the finals of the tournament played at Argyle. Roseau, the district's only class A school, was automatically certified as the district class A titleholder.

Prowlers Eliminated in District 1st Round

The Prowlers, after defeating Red Lake Falls 45 to 25 in a playoff game last Wednesday night, were eliminated in the first round of the district tournament at Crookston, losing to the Crookston Pirates, 31 to 23, on Thursday night. On Friday night, in a consolation game, the locals were trounced by the Warren Ponies, losing by an overwhelming 50 to 20 score.

Don Youngquist, the Pirates' stellar guard, punched in three field goals and a free throw, to place Crookston to a 13 to 2 first-period lead over the Prowlers on Thursday evening. Herb Claffy and Ninak Carlson accounted for the Prowler points on free throws. The Pirates increased their lead by a point in the second period's play, scoring 11 points while the Prowlers, on a pair of field goals by Bill McKechnie, a field goal and a free throw by Carlson, a field goal by Virg Evenstad, and a free throw by Claffy, tallied 10 points.

The Prowlers outscored the fast stepping Pirates in the third period. McKechnie scored a field goal and a pair of free throws, and Evenstad, Carlson, and Merritt each added a point on free throws. Left-handed Dick Sellberg connected for the lone Crookston field goal, with big Dick Sprague and Toddie Johnson looping in free throws.

The Pirates held a 28 to 19 lead as the final period began, and held that advantage thruout the period. The Prowlers' four points were credited to Herb Claffy, who dropped in a pair of free throws, and Allan Thompson and Evenstad, each with a gift toss. Howie Casmey tossed in a Crookston free throw, and Johnson's field goal closed out the Pirate scoring.

Don Youngquist, with 10 points, and Toddie Johnson, with 7 points were the high scorers for coach Hersch Lysaker's team; while Bill McKechnie, with 8 points, led the Prowler scorers.

The Warren Ponies, playing sharp and nifty basketball, and shooting expertly, held the Prowlers scoreless from the field thruout the first half of the consolation game Friday night, and then went on to swamp the locals, 50 to 20. The Prowlers first-half points, four of them, were scored on free throws by McKechnie, Claffy, Merritt, and Carlson; while the Ponies, with blond Maynard Randstrom directing the attack, were rolling up 20 points.

The Ponies added 14 points to their total in the third period, while the Prowlers, with "second-stringers" in the lineup, marked up four points.

Sophomore Cliff Aase tossed in three field goals in the final period, with John Powell adding a field goal and a free throw, and Chuck Richards notching a field goal, to bring the Prowler total to 20 points.

Randstrom, with 14 points, and Ed. Plencener, with 10 points, were the Pony high point men.

Prowlers Score Total of 603 Pts. in Season to 672 for Opponents

The Prowlers, in compiling a season's record 6 games won and 14 games lost, piled up a total of 603 points, while their opponents amassed a total of 672 points. Virg Evenstad, although slumping in his last three games, won the season's individual scoring honors, tossing in 70 field goals and 26 free throws, for a 166-point total. Captain Billy McKechnie, pressing Evenstad all year and the scoring leader in mid-season, earned runner-up honors with 60 field goals and 35 free throws, for a 155-point total. Evenstad and McKechnie were the only two Prowlers to pass the century mark in scoring.

REGION 8 TOURNEY IS NOW IN PROGRESS IN LINCOLN GYMNASIUM

Heglund popped in a pair of one-handed shots to open the second half, giving Roseau a one-point lead; but the Pirates, on Casmey's try, regained the advantage, only to have Nyland drive in for a close-in shot to place Roseau in front. Toddie Johnson's field goal shoved the Pirates back into the lead; but Harvey Johnson's one-handed try and Cal Rosenkrans' hoist from the floor gave coach Kramer's the margin they held until the final gun.

Crookston, with left-handed Bob Sellberg doing the bulk of the scoring, rallied in the fourth period to creep up within a point of Roseau. With the score 26 to 25 for Roseau, and with less than a minute to go, Gerhard Haukebo lofted a one-handed shot into the nets. With only 15 seconds of play remaining Sellberg counted on a shot from the lane, but Roseau controlled the ball the final seconds to mark up their surprise win. Roseau will meet Bemidji for the regional class A title this evening.

Bemidji, with big Phil Feir and Bob Brown controlling the ball off the backboards, subdued a fighting Fosston team, 26 to 22, in the final game last night. Bemidji led by a 9 to 4 score at the end of the first period, and 13 to 10 at the half. For a moment in the opening minutes of the third period, Fosston pulled into a 14 to 13 lead, but goals by Hoberg and Feir gave the Lumberjacks the lead.

Phil Feir, with 3 field goals and 2 free throws, for 8 points, and Keith Hoberg, with 3 field goals and 1 free throw, were coach Glenn Barnum's high scorers. Al Frethem, with 2 field goals and 3 free throws for 7 points, and Chuck Haugen, with 3 field goals, and Russ Hagen, with 1 field goal and 4 free throws, were high scorers for the Greyhounds.

Red Cross Tourney

Frank Kobliska, one of the city's picture bowlers, really was moving into the 1-3 pocket Saturday night in the Red Cross bowling tournament. Kob, with scores of 209-190-178-224, had an 801-four-game count, averaging better than 200 per game, and with his 64-pin handicap, totaled 865 to win first prize money. Karl Kollitz, the army man, gave Kob several anxious moments when he rolled an aggregate of 846 pins.

Kob, together with such bowlers as Clair Loretz, Wally DuChamp and Oscar Cerny, is a bowling stylist; and those fellows look good even when they "blow". Incidentally, Wally DuChamp, the city singles champion, just missed reaching the money class. Wally had games of 194-165-166-207 for a 734 actual pins total, and with but an 8-pin handicap, for an aggregate of 742.

By the way, the handicap singles tournament, together with the "two cent a blow" arrangement that has been in operation at the Mint, netted the Red Cross more than fifty dollars.

City's "Midget" Hockey Champs

Wes Hovie's team, called the Hurricanes for want of a better word, notched up the city midget hockey championship last Saturday by upsetting Les Vigness Bombers, 3 to 2, in a couple of overtime periods. With the score tied at 2-all, and in a "sudden death" overtime, the Bombers defenseman, Bobby Larson, in attempting to clear the puck from the Bombers goal, accidentally punched the disc into the net, giving Hovie's boys the win. Looking for more worlds to conquer, Wes took the team to Crookston on Tuesday, but there they received a 3 to 1 setback at the hands of the Crookston Cathedral midgets.

And on Tuesday afternoon, at the Arena, an all-star team from Knox, Washington, and Northrop defeated the St. Bernard's team, 2 to 0. Jerry Furuseth and Don Stadum, the all-stars' standouts, scored the goals, and they had to beat goalie Ralph Engelstad to do it. "Grandpa" was pretty owly after the game.

Bill and Steve

Well, at least a couple of former Prowlers are playing in this week's regional tournaments. Billy Bye, guard on last season's Prowler five, is a member of the 16th district's champions, Anoka, and they will be meeting St. Paul Humboldt in a first-round regional four game in the Hamline field house Friday night. And big Steve Alnes, end on the Prowler football team a couple of years ago, is playing at center for the Fergus Falls Otters, and Steve, scoring four baskets, played an important role in the Otters surprise win over Detroit Lakes in the 23rd district's championship finals. Fergus Falls meets Crosby-Ironton in a sixth regional first-round game at Moorhead Thursday night.

This year's Prowler squad could certainly have used Bill and Steve.

MORE CAR DRIVERS LOSE PERMITS IN 1ST TWO MONTHS

Revocations and Suspensions Total 855 in aJnuary and February

Perhaps it was the good weather and open roads that tempted Minnesota motorists to "step on it." Perhaps it was, as the National Safety Council puts it, "A tendency on the part of many drivers to disregard wartime traffic restrictions in the optimistic belief that victory is just around the corner."

At any rate, a considerably greater number of drivers appear to have committed traffic violations this winter than last winter. As a result, drivers' license revocations and suspensions in January and February totaled 855, compared to 630 in the same months in 1943, the Minnesota highway department reports.

Among the revocations were 223 for driving while under the influence of intoxicants, and 17 for repeated speeding offenses compared to 207 for intoxication and 12 for repeated speeding in the same months in 1943. Among the suspensions were 179 for speeding, and 65 for reckless driving, compared to 94 for speeding and 47 for reckless driving in the first two months of 1943.

All but 39 of the 269 revocations in January and February were for persons past 25 years of age, and all but 2 were males. However, of the 586 suspensions, 241 were for persons under 25. There were 572 males and 14 females whose licenses were suspended.

A TALE OF DOG, PIPE, AND BUNNY

Blue Earth.—The noise of scuffling dogs drew Mrs. Guy Simser to the window of her home recently. There she found a couple of dogs, one with its head caught in an abandoned piece of eaves piping lying in between her yard and her neighbor's. The other dog was frantically looking for help to free his pal. She summoned her husband who after lifting and pulling the pipe was unable to release the prisoner. Finally he took dog, pipe and all to a tin shop where the tin pipe was cut and the trapped dog released. The long piece of pipe was haphazardly tossed to one side. As it clattered to the floor out scampered a fully-grown rabbit to escape through a nearby doorway. No, the dog didn't pursue the bunny, he was just to happy to be free and poured out thanks to his rescuers.

SUPER-HIGHWAYS IN MINNESOTA TO BE FEW IN NUMBER

State to Share in Proposed System of Interregional Trunk Routes

Persons who vision so-called super highways the entire length and breadth of Minnesota in the proposed national system of interregional highways, may be doomed to disappointment, says a highway department bulletin. Roads with two 12-foot lanes of pavement each way are proposed only where year-round traffic averages more than 3,000 vehicles per day. Outside of metropolitan boundaries, only about 80 miles of the proposed system in Minnesota carried this volume of traffic in the last pre-war traffic survey.

Three of the proposed interregional routes hit Minnesota. One extends from the Iowa line near Albert Lea through the Twin Cities to Duluth. One runs from the Wisconsin line near Hudson through the Twin Cities, St. Cloud, Fergus Falls and Moorhead to the Dakota line. A third cuts through Rock county in the southwest corner of the state. These routes total 650 miles and pass through 21 of the state's 87 counties. These counties contain 55 per cent of the population.

About one-third of the proposed interregional highway mileage in Minnesota comes in the 2,000 to 3,000 vehicles per day range. For such sections, a two-lane 24-foot pavement is proposed, widened to four lines where adequate sight distance is unobtainable. Nearly half of the Minnesota mileage carries less than 2,000 vehicles daily. For such sections a 24-foot two-line roadway is proposed. All sections would have base and surface adequate to carry traffic without load restrictions in all seasons.

If the plan for an interregional highway system is adopted by Congress, the routes would follow the general location of existing highways, with relocation wherever necessary to get good alignment, or to better serve traffic. Nearly all of the proposed mileage in Minnesota is now paved, but very few sections come up to the proposed standards of width and alignment. Improvments would be made one section at a time, over a period of years.

Tobacco as Incense

In Holland, tobacco was burned as incense. Little bags of fine tobacco were worn about the neck to ward off infections and headaches were cured by placing a bit of tobacco in a napkin and tying it about the head.

SMILEY

Smiley 4-H

The Rudolph Hanson home was the meeting place for the Smiley 4-H'ers Friday evening. Such a dandy attendance too—there were eighteen young members there. An interesting program was comprised of the group singing the 4-H club song, led by Helen Hardisty. The 4-H pledge was made also by the members. The president, Hugh Cabot, presided over the business session. The kids decided to have their club enter the one-act play contest this spring. Doris Helgeland read a comic story, "J. Pervius Stoopdirp"; a song was sung by Marlys Hanson; the leader, Mrs. Adam Lendobeja led the round table discussion on gardening, the young folks gave some helpful hints and suggestions on making rows, varieties of seeds, etc. Dolores Heiswenger showed her excellent garden plan. After the program fun-provoking games were played. There was much mirth! Refreshments were served by Mrs. Rudolph Hanson. The next meeting will be at the Frank Hardisty home April 14. The program committee consists of Duane Hanson, Alan Cabot, and Helen Hardisty. The recreation committee is comprised of Donald Knutson, Dianne Lendobeja, and Clyde Christensen. There will be a special meeting this Sunday, March 19 at the Art Knutson home at 1 P. M. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing the rhythm band and starting the new one-act play. The members of the play will be selected that day so every effort should be made to be there.

Monday visitors at the Adam Lendobeja home were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johnson and son Gary of Kratka, Casper Wiener Jr., Florian Szymanski of Kratka, Mr. and Mrs. Art Knutson and family of Silverton.

A large gang of Smiley folks and a number of people from Thief River Falls surprised the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stene (Clara Thune) at their home Friday evening.

Farmer's Union

A week ago Friday evening the Kratka-Smiley unit of the Farmer's Union, Good Hope met at the hall for their regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Archie Wilson, president, presided over a short program which consisted of community singing led by Mrs. Rudolph Hanson. A brief report on the Farmer's Union banquet was given by Fred Luhe. Bert Johnson gave a report on legislative doings. Mrs. Rudolph Hanson, read an article, "What the Farmer's Union Expects in a Post-War World." The main speaker of the evening was Ed Norlstrom, who gave a detailed discussion on the various kinds of insurance handled by the Farmer's Union. Circumstances prevented the showing of the movies that were to have been on for the evening, but will be ready for the next meeting in April. Mrs. Fred Luhe was appointed chairman of the lunch committee.

Miss Olive Jorde of Steiner was a week-end house guest at the Adam Lendobeja home. She is employed at the sanatorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Liden (Gloria Gran) of Thief River Falls visited at the home of Liden's grandparents, the Nels Burtness' Sunday. In the afternoon the Lidens accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Burtness, Mrs. Gertrude Sundberg, and Olaf Larson went to the Harold Matske home for a coffee party.

Sunday supper guests at the Dave Christensen home were Mr. and Mrs. Jack McKechnie of Thief River Falls.

Mrs. Gertrude Sundberg had a letter from her son, Pvt. Ove Nordahl the other day. He is in the "thick" of it over in Italy. He stated he had recently received the Order of the Purple Heart for being wounded by shell fragmentation while on duty. Ove is in a medical corps.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wabbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). EARLY AMERICA SHOWED US HOW

HELP YOUR COMMUNITY DRIVES
..and You Help America

In Colonial days when a family faced misfortune, kindly neighbors set up a melting pot before the door. The community was quick to contribute, because lean and perilous years taught our forefathers that only by helping one another could all survive and earn security in a land of growing opportunities.

Today, when this hard-won security is in jeopardy, our country and many of its citizens need a helping hand. The Red Cross, the War Chest, the scrap and salvage drives and other calls on each community are realistic reminders of the pioneer spirit that bound our nation together . . . that gave us the highest standard of living the world has ever known. When we help our neighbors we help our country.

In every community, Budweiser is known as the Perfect Host to a host of friends. To serve your neighbors beer is simple hospitality, but to serve them Budweiser is a gracious compliment . . . and, it makes your simple wartime meals taste better.

In addition to supplying the armed forces with glider and bomber fuselage frames, wing parts, gun turret parts and foodstuffs, Anheuser-Busch produces materials which go into the manufacture of: Rubber • Aluminum • Munitions • Medicines • B Complex Vitamins • Hospital Diets • Baby Foods • Bread and other Bakery products • Vitamin-fortified cattle feeds • Batteries • Paper • Soap and textiles—to name a few.

Minneapolis Meeting Hears Report on $72,000,000 Business

Land O'Lakes Creameries, Inc. handled a record $72,244,544 business in 1943, compared with $65,571,446 in 1942, it was announced at the closing session of the organization's 23rd annual meeting at headquarters at Northwest Terminal in Minneapolis last week.

Biggest increase in units handled was in milk powder. Last year the co-op. handled 64,065,387 pounds, while in 1942 the figure was 43,587,028.

Less butter and cheese were handled, partially because of diversion of milk to powder. The co-op. handled 62,798,804 pounds of butter in 1943, against 75,259,394 in 1942, and 31,023,690 pounds of cheese against 34,012,243 the year before.

Turkey and poultry business showed a 10 per cent increase in unit volume, dried eggs were up 10 per cent and frozen eggs more than 400 per cent.

389,784 Drivers Permits Are Issued in 6 Months

A total of 389,784 drivers' licenses were issued by the Minnesota highway department in the first six months under the new law requiring periodic renewal of drivers' licenses. If this rate continues, there will be less than 800,000 licenses issued during the first year under the new law.

The new law took effect September 1, 1943. All licenses issued previous to that date expire on the licensee's birthday between September 1, 1943, and August 31, 1944. All licenses issued after September 1, 1943, must be renewed before the licensee's birthday in the fourth year after the license is issued.

Persons who have birthdays between now and September 1 are urged to apply for renewal before their birthday. Application may be made either to Henry Storhaug, clerk of district court in this city, or to the Minnesota highway department, drivers' license division, 1279 University Avenue, St. Paul.

HELLO MOTHER!

Wounded in action and brought back for treatment to a midwestern army hospital, this young soldier hadn't talked to his folks for many months.

Then one day a telephone man, working in the hospital, brought a portable telephone to his bed — and he lost no time calling his mother in Boston. It was a grand telephone reunion.

In military hospitals we are providing portable telephones for the men in bed, telephone centers for walking patients and drive-in telephone booths for the boys in wheelchairs.

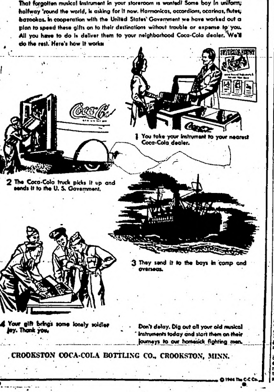
Our Boys Need Musical Instruments on the Battlefront and in Camp

You can help send them this easy way:

That forgotten musical instrument in your storeroom is wanted! Some boy in uniform, halfway 'round the world, is asking for it now. Harmonicas, accordions, ocarinas, flutes, bazookas. In cooperation with the United States' Government we have worked out a plan to speed these gifts on to their destinations without trouble or expense to you. All you have to do is deliver them to your neighborhood Coca-Cola dealer. We'll do the rest. Here's how it works:



1 You take your instrument to your nearest Coca-Cola dealer.

2 The Coca-Cola truck picks it up and sends it to the U. S. Government.

3 They send it to the boys in camp and overseas.

4 Your gift brings some lonely soldier joy. Thank you.

THE RED CROSS

When your boy and the kid next door march up the gangplank, going overseas on an important business trip, there's one part of home that goes with them . . . the American Red Cross.

You can't be there in person to encourage and comfort him. But you can be there by proxy. It'll be you, working through your Red Cross, who serve him coffee and doughnuts at the end of a mission—it'll be your lifeblood in the form of plasma that goes to the battlefield—it'll be your kindness that visits him in the hospital with words of cheer and gifts—it'll be your parcel of food that goes through barbed wire to him if he becomes a prisoner of war. All this—plus friendly interest, recreation, advice . . . little things which add up to something big—is your gift to our boys.

For you and the folks next door are the American Red Cross. Your spirit of good neighborliness founded it. Your volunteer services operate it. Your dollars keep it active wherever he may be.

So give today to the American Red Cross 1944 War Fund. Keep your Red Cross at his side.

Higher Yields Will Result, Tests at Experiment Station Show

Substantial increases in small grain yields can be expected when seed is treated before planting, according to results of experiments by M. B. Moore and other members of the division of plant pathology at University Farm. Pennington county farmers who had disappointing yields last year will be interested in results of seed treatment on this crop. Even though there may not be much smut in grain, treatment reduces the amount of seedling blight which affects grain during germination.

Treated seed often came up sooner and made a heavier stand, but results in final yields were most startling. In the barley tests last year the treated plots averaged four bushels per acre more than the untreated plots. In tests running over a period of years, increases in flax amounted to about ½ bushel, 1½ bushels in wheat and barley, and the increase in oats averaged about four bushels per acre.

Approximately the same benefits resulted from treating corn, average increases amounting to around 8 per cent. Last summer one experimental seed lot produced 41 per cent more corn on the treated plots than on the untreated plots. Average yield from untreated plots was 61 bushels to the acre, while treated plots yielded 85 bushels to the acre. In 12 different seed lots of corn, treatment increased yields all the way from 0 to 41 per cent, the average being 14 per cent.

Seed lots vary in their response to treatment. Poorly matured seed or seed that is cracked, chipped, peeled or frosted is particularly in need of a disinfectant for protection. However, there is usually not enough visible difference between good and poor seed lots to be able to tell which needs treating and which does not. Since the cost is small, the best practice is to treat all seed each year.

Cost of treatment varies with the crop. For corn it would be about ¾ of a cent an acre for materials, and on oats and barley 3 or 4 cents an acre. Labor costs would amount to an additional 3 or 4 cents an acre.

Recommended materials for seed treatment are ½ oz. of New Improved Ceresan per bushel of wheat, oats, barley and flax, and 1½ oz. of either Semesan Jr. or Barbak per bushel of corn.

Directions for making a seed grain treater as well as for treating seed are given in Extension Folder 118, "The Minnesota Seed Grain Treater". Copies of the folder may be obtained at the county extension offices or by writing Bulletin Room, University Farm, St. Paul.

War Production Board Says Wartime Paints Are Adequate for Job

Northwest householders and farmers who have a desire to refurnish their homes and farm buildings with an extra coat of paint this spring need have no fears as to the quality of the paints on the market, according to W. A. McMillan, district manager of WPB.

Evidence based on laboratory and field tests indicates that paints made now are equal to paints made under formulating methods prior to the war, Mr. McMillan said. This is true despite the fact that the changing raw materials situation has forced the paint manufacturer to constantly alter the formulation of his various lines, and lack of certain resins and oils has constantly changed the characteristics of paints.

"The gloss and drying qualities may not be up to pre-war standards," said Mr. McMillan, "but paints supplied today will be perfectly adequate for the job at hand, which is the protection of property. There will be, of course, a limited range of colors available."

84-YEAR-OLD WOMAN STILL IN BUSINESS

Mountain Lake.—With business too rushing on Thursday, the day of her 84th birthday, Mrs. J. J. Balzer, oldest proprietor of a business establishment in town, couldn't celebrate her birthday until the following Sunday. About 20 years ago Mrs. Balzer started a tailoring and cleaning business and today enjoys it too much to give it up. Every afternoon and evening she may be found at her shop. In addition to her regular business she finds time to do all the hospital mending.

Soldiers' Vote Law Is Enacted Last Saturday

The Minnesota legislature late Saturday finally approved, after a five-hour delay occasioned by discovery of defects in the measure which had once passed both houses, a soldier vote bill and adjourned four days after it had convened in special session.

Both houses approved a compromise measure drafted by a senate-house conference committee shortly before noon when it was discovered the measure apparently provided for two primaries—one on July 10 for the soldiers and one on Sept. 12, the regular primary date, for civilians.

On motion of Sen. Gerald Mullin, the senate immediately voted to reconsider its action in approving the compromise measure and returned it to the house.

The proposal then was sent to the conference committee which made the required corrections. The bill was redrafted, presented again in both houses without debate.

The house approved it 114 to 0 while the senate vote was 57 to 0.

The measure:

Sets up machinery for men and women in the armed and associate services, both in this country and abroad, to vote in the 1944 primary and general election.

Makes it possible for parents, husbands or wives or adult children of soldiers and others covered by the act as well as individuals themselves to apply for ballots.

Requires that applications contain assurances the soldier voter is qualified to vote; be witnessed and that ballots themselves be accompanied by sworn statements respecting the voters' qualifications.

Authorizes all commissioned and non-commissioned officers not below the rank of sergeant or its naval equivalent to witness the documents.

Requires county auditors to send ballots to soldiers upon receipt of a proper application and to distribute the ballots to the proper voting precincts when they are returned.

Sets March 15 as the opening date for filings and April 17 for the last filing date; April 20 as the last day to withdraw and July 10 for the primary election.

Under terms of the measure the polls will be open until 9 p. m. at the primary instead of 8 p. m. as under present law.

Appropriates $5,500 to the secretary of state for election expense, including printing and distribution of such information as the secretary deems advisable to publicize the change of primary and other dates.

WOMAN FELLS TREES AND SAWS 'EM UP'

Grand Marais.—A lady "lumberjack" who pulls one end of a two-man saw, while her husband pulls the other is Mrs. Frithjof Wannebo. Starting last October, the Wannebos and their son, Rodney, who does the "swamping" have taken to the woods every week-end. Fifty cords of eight-foot pulpwood have been the result of their week-ends. It has been sold to the Lone Wolfe Timber company but the remunerative value isn't nearly as important as the personal satisfaction the family derives from sharing a patriotic service with others who are doing all they can to get pulpwood.

Gambles

March is anniversary month of many historic events. Some of the most common things we use in every day life were first put in use in March. The postage stamp (1847) and the telephone (1876) are the most notable. It is so commonplace now we would be at a great loss trying to plan our daily living without the written and spoken message. To us at Gamble's it is also a most auspicious month because it is our birthday month. Through the nineteen years we have strived to make your Gamble Store as essential to the way of every day life as the letter and telephone. Now more than ever, with the new departments that have been added, we have made Gamble's the "one stop" for many needs of the family, home, farm and car with savings on every purchase.

MILK PLANT SITE AT FOSSTON GETS GOVERNMENT O. K.

New Plant Will Serve Area from Crookston to Blackduck

The letter stated that government officials had given official OK to the site proposed by the village.

The size of the plant and its related work may be estimated by the fact that the plant and equipment will amount to $250,000 or more and the entire project will amount to something like $450,000. The plant will serve a territory extending from Crookston to Blackduck.

Milk will be hauled in by truck from creameries throughout the territory and, according to present indications both whole milk and skimmed or defatted milk will be dried.

The plant will employ about 40 people and will operate 24 hours per day.

Senator Solstad Snowed in as Legislature Meets

"On account three-day blizzard, man who was to milk my cows unable get here," Alfred Solstad of Fisher, absent from the state senate, telegraphed last week to Lieutenant Governor Archie Miller in St. Paul.

"This explains why I am not there in my seat to help enact soldiers vote law. —Guess New Dealers are more interested in having us farmers milk cows than voting this 1944."

Senator Solstad also said he wondered whether the house interim committee on government affairs could do anything about regulating Red river valley blizzards.

MARCH ARRIVED NICE BUT A LITTLE SKUNKY

Ortonville.—March first rolled in, neither lamb-like nor lion-like, in these parts — but decidedly "skunky". While the weather was fair, natives could hardly call it "lamby." The air about main street was entirely dominated by the scent of one of those little black and white striped animals, who either in person paid the city a visit, or paid his last respect when hit by an automobile. If there's anything to the general saying, this March will likely go out freakishly, may we hope—odorless.

Remembrance of a Warning

Symbol of freedom everywhere is the historic Liberty Bell in Philadelphia which rang out the tidings of our independence in 1776. Significant today is this picture of the Liberty Bell and the famous man who stood beside it—Georges Clemenceau, premier of France in World War I. For France, which first helped America to peal out the song of liberty is now being helped by America to regain its lost freedom. This picture was taken back in 1922, when four years after the Armistice, Clemenceau at the age of 81 came to America as a private citizen and during his tour stopped to pay homage to the famous Liberty shrine. Prophetic were the words he uttered there that the prospect ahead would be "dark and dreary" unless the United States assumed her rightful place in international collaboration for the establishment of a lasting peace!" Prophetic, too, was his warning 21 years ago that "Germany is preparing war again."

Pioneer Farmer's Union Meets

Because of the snow the past week, the attendance at the meeting Friday evening at the Dimmen school was somewhat diminished.

Among the topics that were discussed were the subsidies, the Green Lucas Bill and inflation, with considerable emphasis. Mrs. Sadie Ayers, the Local's secretary-treasurer, read letters from Congressman, Mr. Hagen and Senator Ball. It was decided that the Juniors, who took part in the program should receive free lunch, as a reimbursement for their efforts.

The Juniors presented a program, which consisted of several readings, the play, "The Brave Professor"; two songs, "Down in the Little Green Valley" and "Der Fuehrer's Face" by the boys quartet; the Musical Story of the Local and Gordon Olson, president, played a few numbers on his violin, while Leon Wasley chorded on his guitar.

The serving of lunch and the playing of games by the Juniors, while a social hour was enjoyed by the elder members completed the evening.

The next monthly meeting will be held April 14, at the Dimmen school house.

Growing With Your Child

Institute of Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Parents as Friends

A characteristic of the adolescent which is responsible for much of the irritation felt toward him by his parents is his impertinence or impudence. His jaunty self-assurance irks and angers most adults. Yet teachers and other leaders of youth realize that often a feeling of uncertainty and bewilderment underlies his jaunty self-assurance. The cockiness so frequently displayed by the youngster in his teens is a protective covering developed to hide these feelings of insecurity.

Many of you will find it difficult to believe that self-assured, cocky, noisy and wise-cracking adolescent ever experiences a moment of doubt as to his own adequacy. But psychologists studying this age group assure us that in growing up there is vacillation between child and adult behavior, as well as among many varieties of moods, attitudes and actions. Out of this variety of pressures within and without him, the youngster is trying to crystallize his own individuality. At the same time that he is acutely aware of the attitudes of his own age group, he is also still sensitized to the values of his parents which he is beginning to question. These conflicts between the values of his own and those of the older generation produce unstable and unpredictable behavior. He acts like a child one minute and like an adult the next, but always wants to be treated as an adult. The youngster confuses and disturbs his parents, because he is himself confused and disturbed.

Still another characteristic of the adolescent is his tendency to think he has infinite knowledge. They seem to never be at loss for an answer. They criticize freely the work and ability of others, without understanding the difficulties of others. This, too, is an indication of inexperience and instability.

It is unfortunate that at the very time in the adolescent's life when he needs more understanding, sympathy and guidance, his own behavior builds up a wall of misunderstanding and exasperation between himself and his parents that is difficult to surmount. Even though parents are somewhat baffled they should strive to understand the youngster's struggles. Adults tend to be tense and irritable if they have one important decision to make. But the adolescent has not one important decision but many to make. When parents know the symptoms of growing up and treat them with sympathy and understanding, a strong and lasting parent-child friendship will be built up.

ASK USED MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS FOR SERVICE MEN'S USE

Coca Cola Bottling Company Serving as Collecting Agency Here

Wanted — musical instruments for our fighting men! In response to a request from the Army, a city-wide campaign to round up all those banjos, saxophones, and other musical instruments that are lying forgotten in closets and attics started here on March 13. It will run for two weeks.

The variety of instruments wanted is unlimited, except that pianos and bull fiddles are excluded because of their size, and phonographs because of lack of facilities for keeping them in repair at the front.

Instruments collected in this nation-wide drive will enable soldiers in all parts of the world to form orchestras to entertain themselves and their camp buddies. It will also enable them to engage in less formal musical recreation like gathering around in the evening and singing to the accompaniment of a banjo, harmonica, or other instrument.

Because of their distribution facilities, the Army has asked the Coca-Cola Bottlers all over the country to act as collecting agents for this drive. Any person who has any idle musical instruments is asked to take them to any grocery store, filling station, drug store, or other place that sells bottled Coca-Cola. The Bottling Company's trucks will pick them up there and ship them immediately to the Army for distribution at Army camps all over the world.

"There are hundreds, if not thousands, of these instruments hidden away and forgotten in the closets and attics of homes in this city", said Frank E. Clinton, manager of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

War Comes to Eniwetok Aborigines

A grateful mother and father carry two nude children into a coast-guard-manned landing boat which, only moments before, had landed assault forces on Eniwetok atoll in the Marshall islands. The frightened natives were carried away to safety from the ravaging battle which preceded fall of the atoll to hard-hitting American forces.

Effective March 26 letters which have been mailed for rural route delivery and for delivery in cities having carrier service will be 3 cents in place of the 2 cents as formerly. This is one of the changes provided in the new revenue act passed by Congress on February 25th.

Postmaster Andrew Anderson calls the attention of patrons to this and to other changes in postal rates.

The law states that "first class mail for local delivery, except that on which the rate under existing law is one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof and except on postal cards, the rate is three cents for each ounce or fraction thereof."

An increase in airmail rate is to be eight cents where it previously has been six cents. This is for continental United States, including Alaska. That rate is also in effect between points on islands of the United States. The raise does not affect airmail letters sent by members of the U. S. military forces, which will continue to be 6 cents.

Postage on all mail matters of fourth class is increased 3 per cent. Fractions of half cent or more being computed as 1 cent, but in no case shall increase per parcel be less than 1 cent.

Money order fees are increased to a minimum of ten cents, ranging up to a fee of 37 cents for orders from $80.01 to $100. New minimum fees include registry, 20 cents; insurance, 10 cents; and COD parcels 24 cents.

Auxiliary Notes

The members of the local auxiliary are sponsoring a bingo party to be held next Monday evening following the regular meeting of the local American Legion post. This is in commemoration of the 25th birthday anniversary of the post. All Legionnaires and their wives, as well as auxiliary members, are invited to participate. Lunch will be served.

Thru an error in last week's issue of the Times the sentence in regard to the presentation of the talking book record at the annual Valentine party at Fargo should have read that the book was presented to the veterans instead of by the veterans. The book was a gift of the auxiliaries in the ninth district and was for the benefit of blind and nearly blind veterans.

Wartime drivers find Studebaker the ideal economy car

DEPENDABLE transportation means more than ever these days to busy wartime drivers.

Here's what a big-city physician, name on request, recently said: "In my general practice, I can always count on my Studebaker these war days for reliable, low-cost performance."

That doctor is one of many hard-working civilians who are getting exceptional tire, gas and maintenance economy from their Studebaker Champions, Commanders and Presidents.

In fact, today, after well over two years of war, hundreds of thousands of essential motorists from coast to coast are still enjoying dependable transportation at low cost, thanks to the quality of Studebaker craftsmanship and the advanced principles of Studebaker engineering.

A REAL LIVE SNAKE IN THE SNOW

Granite Falls.—A couple of good citizens wandering down the path of a nearby creek one day near the end of February were attracted by a sight which caused them to blink and rub their eyes. Hanging from the branch of a tree which extended out over the running water was a large snake. With a stick they removed him from the branch to the snow-covered ground where he wiggled around in fine shape. To prove their story as they told it about town they brought the wiggler along with them.

EASTER CANTATA SLATED SUNDAY IN TRINITY CHURCH

Senior Choir Will Present "Seven Last Words of Christ"

"The Seven Last Words of Christ", an Easter cantata by Th. Dubois, will be presented by the senior choir of Trinity Lutheran church Sunday evening, March 26th, at 8:00 P. M., under the direction of Edward Anderson, choirmaster of the church. The singing of this cantata has become traditional each Lent, not only locally but thruout Christendom.

The Trinity choir of 35 voices has therefore become thoroughly familiar with the difficult choruses which characterize the fury of the mob milling about the foot of the Cross of Calvary. The narrative of the Gospel account of the Passion of Christ is told by the tenor solos, which will be sung by Orville Berg of Grand Forks, formerly choirmaster at Trinity church. Interpretative accounts of Old Testament prophecy are carried by the soprano solos, sung by Mrs. Arthur F. Berg. The seven words of Our Lord on the Cross are given to the baritone solos, which will be sung by Edward Anderson.

The accompaniment for chorus and solos carries a significant part of the burden of the composer's intentions in the cantata. The piano accompaniment will be played by Mrs. Alan C. Purdy and the organ accompaniment will be played by Mrs. Mildred Engen Hamilton.

FINAL APPEAL ISSUED IN WAR FUND CAMPAIGN

Red Cross Drive Ending Mar. 31 Is Still $2,500 Short of Goal

REPORTS LACKING FROM 11 TOWNSHIPS

Thief River Falls Turns in Total of $6,022.64 to Date

The Red Cross War Fund campaign in Pennington county is now entering its final stage, being scheduled to end Friday, Mar. 31. Up to Wednesday afternoon, contributions had reached a total of $7,972.34 toward the county quota of $10,500, or slightly less than 80 per cent of the goal.

George L. Biddick, campaign chairman, urged all solicitors who have not completed their canvasses to do so at once, expressing his conviction that if the field is covered thoroly there is no doubt about the county going over the top again this year.

Mr. Biddick pointed out that the solicitation in Thief River Falls is now virtually complete, but that returns from the rural areas are coming in more slowly, altho considerable work has already been done in virtually all sections of the county. Returns yesterday were still being awaited from eleven of the 21 townships.

The solicitation in Thief River Falls to date has netted $6,022.64, including $4,808.27 contributed in the business district and $1,214.37 collected by women solicitors in the residence areas of the city.

Townships reporting to date, together with their quotas, include Bray, 112.25, quota $125; Smiley $345, quota $235; North $127, quota $285; Polk Centre $112.50, quota $150; Silverton $119.50, quota $215; Rocksbury $277.50, quota $400; Goodridge $[illegible], quota $80; River Falls, $[illegible], quota $290; Sanders $110, quota $250; St. Hilaire $230, quota $[illegible]; Goodridge village $120, quota $105.

DRIVE FOR MUSIC INSTRUMENTS IS UNDER WAY HERE

Collection of Used Instruments Being Made for Men in Service

City-wide collection of musical instruments for the soldiers at the front is now under way here. A part of a nation-wide campaign to provide our fighting men with the means of making their own music, the drive is directed at rounding up the numerous saxophones, banjos, and other instruments that lie forgotten in closets and attics throughout the city.

Sponsored by the army as a means of building morale, collection of musical instruments will make it possible for soldiers all over the world to form orchestras in their camps or posts, or to gather around in the evening and "make music".

The army has requested Coca-Cola bottlers all over the country to act as agents for the campaign. Anybody having any unused musical instruments may take them to any grocery store, filling station, drug store or other place that sells bottled Coca-Cola. The trucks of the Coca-Cola Bottling company have agreed to pick the instruments up at these places and ship them off to the army which in turn will distribute them to the soldiers.

Any instruments except pianos, bull fiddles, or phonographs are urgently needed, according to Frank E. Clinton, manager of the local Coca-Cola Bottling company.

SMILEY

There was plenty of activity at the Art. Knutson home Sunday afternoon. The Smiley 4-H members met there to organize their rhythm band and the one-act play. Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, leader, assisted by Mrs. Rudolph Hanson and Mrs. Frank Hardisty, accompanist, got the rhythm band off to a good start. The Knutson home resounded in music that afternoon. The play "All American Boy," will have the following 4-H members in the cast: Alan Cabot, the bad boy; Helen Hardisty, Betty Lou Beaton, Doris Helgeland, Donald Knutson and Hugh Cabot. The director is Mrs. Jim McCrum. With the happy coming of Spring the Smiley 4-H club is in full bloom as the young folks are "rarin'" to go in activity. It is truly wonderful to see the young ones so happy to be together and learning to know the art of co-operation and leadership. It is a selfish parent who refuses to let a child attend a 4-H meeting.

Visitors at the Rudolph Hanson home Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Knutson and son Sheldon of Kratka.

Mrs. Adam Lendobeja, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Thomas Jacobson and son Bernhard of Steiner motored to Crookston on Wednesday where Mrs. Jacobson had a medical check-up at the clinic there. They returned the same evening.

Thursday visitors at the Jim McCrum home were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Culkins of Hazel. Mrs. Culkins spent the day at the McCrum home while Mr. Culkins attended to the AAA sign-up meeting at the Smiley hall. The other folks at the McCrums were Mrs. Dave Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Olson and children Wayne and Judy, and Clara Olson.

Miss Clara Swanson, teacher in Smiley school, is now staying at the Walter Lendobeja home. She moved Sunday from the Krist Larson home. The Larsons are expecting several carpenters this week from Thief River Falls to erect two more new brooder houses. They will be getting 3200 turkey poults some time in April.

Anniversary Party

The Helperettes and their families met at the Gust Hallberg home Saturday evening and helped the Hallbergs celebrate their wedding anniversary. Quite a gang attended and progressive whist was played followed by a sumptuous repast.

Word has been received by the Krist Larsons that their daughter, Mrs. Al. Copp (Elsie Larson) and daughter, Carol, have arrived in Seattle from Anchorage, Alaska. They will visit there indefinitely before going on to San Francisco, Calif. to see her husband who is hospitalized there. Another daughter, Mrs. Art. Herren (Lillian Larson) and her husband are living in Seattle too as also is Louie Larson who is employed in a filling station there.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Angell, former Smiley residents, have recently returned to their home in Thief River Falls from a lovely three weeks' visit with their three daughters in the cities, Mrs. Ed. DePuy and family, Ruth and Ruby. Miss Ruth is now employed by the Twin City Ordnance and Miss Ruby is employed at the Northern Pump Co.

The Adam Lendobejas visited at the Bert Johnson home in Kratka Friday and at the Lloyd Johnson home in Rocksbury Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCrum attended the 25th Legion Anniversary party in the club rooms in Thief River Falls Monday evening.

The Bethany Luther League will be at the Walter Lendobeja home this Sunday, March 26th in the afternoon. The hostesses will be Mrs. Krist Larson and Mrs. Walter Lendobeja.

MILD WEATHER PREVAILS LOCALLY DURING WEEK

Mild weather prevailed in this locality during the past week, with the mercury reaching a high mark for the week of 36 Tuesday afternoon, followed by 34 above Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Solheim and sons James and Rollin, Mrs. Mary Solheim, and Miss Isabelle Solheim spent Sunday at the John Sagmoen home in Rosewood.

This does not include the work hours of the instructors: Mrs. Walter Nelson, 212; Mrs. H. M. Hitterdahl, 203; Mrs. Harry W. Millar, 174½; Mrs. Pert W. Mabey, 154; Mrs. Millard J. The advisory board of the Red Cross meets Wednesday, March 29th at 8 o'clock in Herman A. Kjos' office in the Court house. Since we have received a sum of $7,564.84, which is 72% of the $10,500 goal and have seven days to complete the War Fund drive, we do not want to stop short of the goal set for Pennington county. Will you please read Mr. Biddick's appeal, published on the first page of this paper, and if you have already given, don't overlook the fact that you may be the one that is needed to encourage others to give? The Red Cross is you and it needs each one's support.

We have two more townships that have reached their quota. They are Goodridge, $80.50, quota $80.00; and River Falls, $220.00, quota $200.00. Other returns are: Bray, $112.00, quota $125.00; North, $121.00, quota $255.00; Polk Centre $118.50, quota $150. There are still 13 townships to be heard from, so we hope by next week we may report their donations.

The kit bag material that was ordered for the making of another 400 bags was received last week, so the cutting out of the bags will be done in the sewing room on Friday afternoon, stated Mrs. A. M. Anse, chairman of the committee. If you want material to take home, you may contact her or Mrs. Palmer Anderson. The number of hours that women have put in in the sewing room will be published next week.

The auction that was held at the Eagles Club Saturday evening was well attended and the many articles contributed by members were well sold. All the sales were turned over to the local Red Cross chapter which totaled $52.20.

The Mint bowling tournament gift to the Red Cross amounted to $48.00. The hockey game between Winnipeg and the locals netted $52.50 for the local Red Cross, and the same amount was turned over to the Winnipeg Red Cross. This was a gift of the Legionnaires and 40 & 8. We thank these organizations for these contributions.

We are not griping about the fact that snow has not been removed from the streets of the business section of the city because we know there is a manpower problem, but lest we backslide into slovenly habits, and for the sake of the record, let it be said that whatever money the city has spent in past years for snow removal has been money well spent.

From the Conservation Volunteer, official bulletin of the state department of conservation, comes a bang-up good idea, presented by Richard Dorer. "Living Memorials This Time" is the subject of the interesting article suggesting memorial forests to commemorate the sacrifices of our heroes in this war. The usual run-of-the-mill monuments are things of beauty for only a day—if at all—but a community forest would increase in both beauty and utility with the years. It is an idea local organizations might well give some thought to.

To the representatives of the National Aeronautics Association, who visited our community last Thursday in the interests of the Aviation Exposition to be held in Minneapolis later this month, goes the credit for being first to land on the Thief River Falls municipal airport. Good thing these visitors have had experience setting down in pastures and plowed fields. It was nice of them, however, to come this way and they should be invited back for the formal dedication of the field, when runways will have been constructed and a hangar built.

Nearly 6,000 customers laid their money on the line to see the regional basketball tournament played here last week and many kind words were spoken by those spectators on the adequacy of our gymnasium facilities. This is one public building of which the planners may well be proud.

Donations to the Red Cross by Pennington County citizens now total $8,000 and that is a goodly sum of money, but there will have to be a whirlwind finish to the drive if the county quota is to be reached by the first of the month. Now is the time for us to say it with dollars as a small token of our appreciation to those who are saying it with their lives.

ACQUIRING WORLDLY WISDOM

Joe Stalin has given our diplomats a bad case of jitters but as long as the Russian army keeps up its good work we are not going to get terribly mad at him. Maybe the headaches he is causing us now will make it easier for us to adjust ourselves to a realistic approach to the post-war problems.

Our state department has already indicated an encouraging modification of policy that leaves room for the rest of the world to assume a little responsibility. These recent official statements give some recognition to the possibility that we will have quite a large washing of our own to get out on the line when the war is over, and that other countries will have to make some effort to take care of the linen that is strictly theirs, to be worn dirty or clean as they themselves may choose.

It hurts our pride to be told that, as a nation, our ideas on world problems are not too hot and that even though we have given liberally of the earnings of the next generation we are not yet accepted as a messiah. Somewhere between our desire to be the enthusiastic leader of the parade and the tendency to sulk in provincial isolationism there is a vast expanse of beautiful moderation that we perhaps should explore. If we emerge from this struggle as the shorn lamb we can still grow another fleece, but will we acquire wisdom?

With Joe Stalin as our playmate we probably will.

BEMIDJI AGAIN TO REPRESENT REGION EIGHT

Wins Championship from the Hendrum Quintet Here Friday 44-34

MEETS BROWNTON IN STATE EVENT TODAY

Roseau Noses out Stephen to Capture Third Place in Regional

The Bemidji Lumberjacks made a successful defense of their regional basketball title in the tournament played here last week. Coach Glenn Barnum's rangy quint eliminated Fosston, 26 to 22, in a first round game; subdued Roseau, 46 to 28, on Thursday night for the regional class A title; and then, with some strong play in the third period, pulled away from Hendrum to win the regional championship Friday night, 44 to 34.

Hendrum, the region's class B champions, earned its place in the finals by defeating Stephen, 46 to 32, Thursday night. In an exciting contest played as a preliminary to Friday night's championship game, Roseau squeezed past Stephen, 39 to 38, to win third place. Capacity crowds witnessed the semi-finals and finals.

This afternoon Bemidji will meet Brownton, the third region's champions, in a first round game in the state high school basketball tourney being played in the St. Paul Auditorium, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

After being held to a 14 to 13 score at the end of the first half of play in their game with Roseau Thursday night, Bemidji, with captain Phil Feir tossing in 3 field goals and a free throw, and Tommy Quinn hoisting in 2 field goals and a free throw, broke loose with a 20-point scoring splurge in the third period. The Lumberjacks led by a 34 to 22 score as the final period began, and added to their lead in the final stanza. Harvey Johnson, Roseau's fine forward, won the game's high point honors, scoring 16 points on 6 field goals and 4 free throws; while Bemidji's Bob Brown and Phil Feir, controlling the backboards, each garnered 15 points for the winners. Brown and Feir marked up 13 of Bemidji's first half points.

Stephen sprinted into an early lead in its contest with Hendrum, holding an 8 to 6 advantage at the end of the first period; but blond Tommy Anderson, with Wayne Thorson setting up the plays, pumped in 4 second-period goals, and coach Bohnsack's team moved into the lead at the half, 22 to 15. Anderson, the tournament's high point man—he scored 65 points in three games—racked up 6 points in the third period and 8 points in the fourth period, for a 28-point total. Stephen's chunky Wayne Brown, with 9 field goals and 2 free throws, pushed Anderson for scoring honors, having 20 points.

The championship finals on Friday night found Hendrum building up an early lead, with Thorson pushing in a pair of field goals and Glen Bowhall connecting on a rebound shot, to give the Huskies a 6 to 1 margin and a 12 to 9 first period lead. Burly Bob Brown, doing some nifty work around the basket, led the Lumberjacks second period rally, netting coach Barnum's team 10 points and giving the defending champions a 19 to 18 lead at the intermission.

Keith Hoberg's one-handed shots from the side of the court, Brown's left-handed push shots from close in, and Phil Feir's pivot shots from the lane, boosted the Lumberjacks margin to 35 to 26 in the third period. Bemidji added 9 points in the final period; while Hendrum scored 8 points, giving the Lumberjacks their 44 to 34 triumph. Bob Brown, with 9 field goals and 2 free throws, for 20 points, was easily the game's standout star, with Phil Feir collecting 4 field goals and 4 free throws for 12 points. Hendrum's Tom Anderson added 12 points to his tournament total, scoring 4 field goals and 4 free throws.

The nip-and-tuck contest for third place, with both teams being from the 32nd district, witnessed a second half rally by Roseau, after trailing 26 to 22 at the half, that gave them a 39 to 38 win over Stephen. Luther Heglund, with 13 points, and Harvey Johnson, with 12 points, were Roseau's high point men. Wayne Brown, as usual, led the Stephen aggregation with 14 points.

PLAN ORGANIZING OF CUB PACK HERE FOR YOUNGER BOYS

Second Session of Sponsors Set for March 28 in Trinity Church

At Trinity church Tuesday evening, in the first of a series of three meetings of parents interested in initiating the program of "Cubbing" for boys between the ages of 9 and 12, 37 parents heard P. L. Fjelsted and Milton Zimmerman discuss the principles of the program. The meeting was held in the parlors of the church, which will serve as the sponsoring group for the Cub Pack upon its organization.

Cubbing is a project for younger boys and has been devised by the Boy Scout organization to meet the specific psychology of boys in the age-period of three years before they become eligible for scouting. The program depends entirely upon the active supervision and leadership of the fathers and mothers, who divide the pack into neighborhood "dens" meeting in the homes once each week. The entire pack meets once each month to conduct that part of its program which requires the whole group.

Picked Boy Scouts serve as chiefs for each of the dens and assist the boys to pass their tests. In the local organization, the training of the parents is conducted by the organization and extension committee of the Boy Scouts, headed by Arthur Johnson. While Trinity church is the sponsor for the new program, the pastor, Rev. G. S. Thompson, expressed a welcome to all parents of the city to avail themselves of the facilities of his church until other Cub Packs may be formed. The second meeting for parents will be held next Tuesday evening, March 28th, at 7:30 in the Trinity church parlors.

In response to a question concerning the responsibility of the parents, Rev. Thompson said, "Parental responsibility for growing children cannot be delegated or paid for. Personal interest means personal involvement. No substitute can be found for active participation in these plans for parents. If you want your boy to have a part in Cubbing, come to these meetings for parents and learn your important part in its program."

Walter Gibson won the Thief River Rifle club's Cup match over twelve contestants with a score of 359x400 outranking Leonard Hanson who shot the same score. This makes the fifth time that Gibson has won this match in as many years.

The following officers were elected for 1944: Carl Hovie, president; Leonard Hanson, vice president; Orlando Bishop, treasurer; John Jacobson, secretary; and Walter Gibson, executive officer.

.... With BUCK OLSON

The Region's Best

Judged by the crowd noise, Bemidji's winning of the regional championship wasn't very popular (most of the fans were cheering for the small-town Hendrum team); but judged on their play throughout the tournament, the Lumberjacks were deserving of their victory, for they were unquestionably the most formidable outfit in the tourney. And they will give the eighth region a strong contender in this week's state meet.

The Lumberjacks turned in three fine all-round games, and they proved that they could apply the pressure when it was needed. They were held on even terms in the first half of every game, but they had the stuff to come up with a strong second half. Against the nifty Fosston team, Bemidji played a smooth passing game, and Bob Brown, in particular, came up with a fine performance, holding Blackie Hagen to one field goal; against the fast-breaking Roseau quint, the Lumberjacks were able to call on speed; and against the rangy Hendrum five, coach Barnum's team out-reached the Huskies. They beat all three teams at their own game.

Play Brownton Today

This afternoon at four o'clock, Bemidji will play Brownton in a first-round state tournament game and the Lumberjacks should have too much height and weight for the third region's champions. According to reports, Brownton is a small team, and if they do not possess rugged team speed they won't be able to check Bemidji.

Virginia, the team that defeated Bemidji last year by playing fire-wagon basketball, is back in the tournament, playing Crosby-Ironton this afternoon at three o'clock, and if Virginia gets by C-I they'll perhaps meet the Lumberjacks in the semi-finals. Stillwater, the team that defeated Anoka for the fourth region title, is picked to turn back Rochester; and Minneapolis Henry is billed to edge out Mankato. Virginia and Henry will probably be the championship finalists.

All-Regional

With eight teams participating in the regional last week, it was deemed proper to select a ten-man all-regional squad, and the fans seemed to agree that the ten boys chosen were the tournaments best. It's too bad that Fosston and Crookston were eliminated in the first round, for that shoved such boys as Chuck Haugen of Fosston, Toddie Johnson and Bill Reynolds of Crookston, off the floor. Chuck was capable of better basketball than he showed against Bemidji, and Toddie and Bill are stronger players than they revealed in the Pirates' nervous game against Roseau.

But to pare the all-regional squad down to a starting five is something of a job. Bemidji's Phil Feir and Bob Brown, at center and forward respectively, and Hendrum's Tommy Anderson and Wayne Thorson, at forward and guard, are sure first string men for they were outstanding; but to name the fifth player you'll have to toss a coin. Perhaps Blackie Hagen would fit in smoothly with that quartet; or Roseau's Harvey Johnson; or Stephen's hard-driving Wayne Brown. In any case, you'd have a powerhouse.

Bowling Notes

After Friday night's crucial games, the city bowling league race should be all over but for the shouting. Oen's, with a three-game lead over the runner-up Poppler's, rolls against the third place Pharmacy; and the second place Poppler's bowls the Eagles Bombers, who are tied for third place. The results of those matches should decide the league championship, and if Oen's can take one game from the Pharmacy they're "in", for they conclude the season's schedule by meeting the Eagles Aces, the league's tail-enders.

And in the women's city league they are shouting for the Jung's Bakery team, in an exciting playoff game that was not decided until the final ball was rolled, edged out the Log Cabin Cafe team for the city championship. The total pins score of the match reveals how closely matched the two teams were, with the Jung's having a 2039 and the Log Cabin a 2036.

Prowlers Elect a Captain

Prowler basketball lettermen, at a meeting this week, elected Virg Evenstad, high-scoring forward, captain of the 1944-45 team. Losing only three players by graduation—captain Billy McKechnie, Burdell Merritt, and Norm Furuseth—next season's Prowler prospects can be rated as fair.

Jungs Bakery Bowlers Take Women's Title by Defeating Log Cabins

Jung's Bakery, first half winners, won the women's city bowling championship Monday night by defeating the Log Cabin Cafe team, the season's second half winners, two games to one in a playoff match. Jung's Bakery rolled a 683 total to win the first game of the series, but the Log Cabin evened the match with 707 total in the second game. In the third and final game, Jung's Bakery marked up a 691 total, while the Log Cabin scored a 687. Other members of the Jung's Bakery team, who were not present for the playoff match, are Irene Hanson, team captain, and Helen Larson.

POSTWAR OUTLOOK TOPIC OF SURVEYS IN TWENTY CITIES

International Falls, Crookston and Bemidji Are Included

Twenty Minnesota towns and cities will provide facts, figures and estimates from which economists of the University of Minnesota will prepare a report of the post-war outlook for Minnesota employment, agriculture and industry. The report will be published jointly by the Committee for Economic Development and the United States Chamber of Commerce.

That Minnesota will be first or among the first states to provide the country at large as well as its own people with such a scientific forecast of what lies ahead was announced to C. E. D. chairmen from many Minnesota towns at a meeting in Minneapolis.

The following have either completed their surveys or are making or will make them for use of the university men: Albert Lea, Bemidji, Brainerd, Crookston, Fairmont, Faribault, Grand Rapids, Hibbing, International Falls, LeSueur, Mankato, Montevideo, Owatonna, Red Wing, St. Cloud, Winona, Worthington, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth.

Jay Hormel of Austin, trustee of national C.E.D., pointed out to the meeting that through the C.E.D. movement businessmen are, for the first time as a group, accepting a second objective for business, adding to the profit motive the desire to provide the greatest possible number of jobs and a vastly heightened productivity.

The meeting was presided over by Harry Zinsmaster, C.E.D. chairman for the northwest and reviewed organization progress in Minnesota towns and the growth in understanding and activity in C.E.D.'s campaign for immediate planning to provide jobs for returning servicemen and war workers.

PHEASANT CRASHES THRU DOUBLE GLASS

Belgrade.—It's hardly possible that the pheasant found in the second story bedroom of the L. B. Mikkelson farm home had in mind "breaking his neck" to get to a desired spot. But that's just what he did when he crashed through two panes of glass, cutting off his head. Doubtless the bird was blinded by the reflection of afternoon sun on the glass and failed to see either the house or the window.

FEDERAL TAXES ON ROAD USERS MORE THAN HIGHWAY AID

U. S. Levies Five Billion Dollars, Returns Less than 4 Billion

Road users in the United States have paid a total of $5,216,283,165 in federal taxes since the motor vehicle came into use, according to figures compiled by the Public Roads Administration. Nearly four-fifths of this amount has been paid in the last 12 years.

The first federal motor vehicle excise taxes and motor vehicle use taxes were enacted during World War I. From 1917 until the end of 1928, these taxes totaled $1,138,551,878. No federal motor vehicle taxes were levied from 1929 to 1931.

Beginning in 1932, federal taxes were levied on gasoline, lubricating oils, motor vehicles, tires, parts and accessories. The federal motor vehicle use tax or stamp tax was enacted in 1942. The total of these taxes from 1932 to the end of 1943 was $4,077,733,289, not including taxes on gasoline and lubricating oils used for non-highway purposes.

The total of federal road user taxes from 1917 to 1943, inclusive, is one-third greater than the total amount of federal highway aid authorized since the first general aid highway law was enacted in 1916. Total federal aid authorizations to date have been $3,873,000,000. This includes regular federal aid, federal aid secondary, emergency work programs and all other allotments to be expended under supervision of the Public Roads Administration but does not include value of W. P. A. labor used on roads and street projects during the depression.

Insurance Co. Survey Shows Pay Increases Being Spent on Women

How are war wage increases being spent? Largely on women, according to a study by Northwestern National Life Insurance company.

Sales in women's and misses' sections of department stores are 60 per cent greater than a year ago, and now actually account for almost half of the total sales of department stores in many cities. At the same time, better quality and higher priced goods are being bought—sales increases in main floor and upper floor sections of department stores are running considerably greater than in basement departments.

Sales of jewelry are up 35 per cent over last year, with diamond sales breaking all previous records. Fur sales are up 66 per cent for the country as a whole; individual stores in war-industry centers report fur sales up 100 to 300 per cent from a year ago. So far in 1943, 16 per cent more admission tickets to places of amusement have been sold than in the corresponding period of 1942. Women use most of the amusement tickets.

Goblins in our house
That's what momma says. I can crawl around on the floor and be as warm and cozy as I would be snuggled in my crib because the Goblins keep the temperatures even from ceiling to floor. Daddy says, though, that it really isn't the Goblins but the Gamble's Homeguard Insulation he had installed in our walls and ceilings saving up to one-third of the heat. Daddy says I won't be so hot and sticky next summer either because the house will be up to 18° cooler with Homeguard Insulation. Ask for a free estimate. Installed by factory trained experts with factory approved equipment.

MORE MOTORISTS NEGLECT SAFETY DURING FEBRUARY

56 Traffic Deaths in First Two Months, Compared to 28 in 1943

A growing tendency to disregard safety regulations and wartime traffic restrictions is indicated in the February report of activities of the patrol division of the Minnesota highway department, submitted to M. J. Hoffmann, commissioner of highways, by Eldon Rowe, chief patrol officer. The same tendency was noted in recent reports of the drivers license division, showing an increase in violations which led to revocations and suspensions, and in accident reports, which show 56 traffic deaths in Minnesota in January and February, compared to 28 in the same months in 1943.

Arrests for nearly all types of violations that may lead to accidents were more numerous this winter than in 1943, but a decrease in arrests for improper registration held the total below the 1943 figure.

Fines imposed totaled $10,513 in January and February and $13,462 in the same months in 1943. Illegal equipment tags were issued to 2,674, compared to 2,342 in the same months in 1943. Written warning tickets were issued to 1,353 motorists in the last two months and 1,176 in the same months in 1943. Oral warnings were given to 6,379 for less serious errors in the last two months and 6,764 in the same months in 1943.

The contrast in road conditions in 1944 and 1943 is emphasized by the decrease in aid to motorists. In January and February, 1944, the patrol was called to assist only 42 motorists with cars in ditches. In the same months in 1943, when icy conditions prevailed generally, the patrol came to the aid of 970 cars in ditches. All types of aid to motorists totaled 3,213 in two months in 1944, and 6,091 in the same months in 1943.

Research Bureau Completes Appraisal of State's Finances

CUT OF 9 MILLION IN HIGHWAY PROJECTS

Says State Can Give Little Postwar Assistance to Communities

Presenting a new survey of state finances as a background for planning the role the state is to take in the postwar work period, the Minnesota Institute of Governmental Research disclosed this week that expenditures of the state for all purposes for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, decreased $16,405,886 from the amount spent in the previous year.

Impressive balances have been built up in a number of major funds, the report brought out, some $14,000,000 in the trunk highway fund and $11,500,000 in the income tax school fund, but these funds are dedicated to special purposes and cannot be used under present laws to help local governmental units in their postwar building programs.

The state will have difficulty balancing its budget for the current biennium, with the reduction in taxes that has been made, and in all probability will have similar trouble in the coming biennium, the report says, leading to the conclusion: "It will be in no position to accept any major responsibility for assisting local units of government in financing their postwar public works."

Expenditures of the state for all purposes, including payment on debt of prior years, were $98,185,828 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1943, the report showed, compared to $114,591,714 for the previous year.

One item contributing to the decrease was reduction of $9,273,706 in highway construction, due mainly to the war-time restrictions on materials. Another factor was a reduction of $7,602,876 in money required for debt service. State debt has decreased $35,305,608 in the past 10 years, the report said, and another $10,000,000 cut can be expected in this biennium.

The report threw new light on the state's contribution to local governmental units. Payments to local units have increased $26,874,564, or 155%, in the past 10 years to fully $44,381,896 in the 1943 fiscal year, or approximately 45% of the state's expenditures. The total for all aids in 1943 was about the same as in Padden of Crookston as the party's candidate for representative in congress from this district, the action later being made unaminous. Pennington and Marshall county delegates had voted in favor of no endorsement.

Named delegates to the Republican national convention in Chicago were Sam Hunt of Red Lake Falls and Mrs. George Frankberg of Fergus Falls. They were instructed to support the presidential candidary of former Governor Harold E. Stassen.

Officers of the district organization, elected by the county chairmen following the convention, include State Senator Henry C. Stiening of Moorhead, chairman; Ted Rowell, Baudette, vice chairman; Mrs. E. H. Harding, Crookston, chairwoman; Mrs. Anna Lane, Red Lake Falls, secretary; and Mrs. J. H. Herbranson, Warren, treasurer.

John Padden, who was a candidate for congress two years ago, will be opposed by Rep. Harold Hagen, who Saturday announced his filing for re-election on the Republican ticket. He was elected in 1942 as a member of the Farmer-Labor party.

Pennington county delegates to the Detroit Lakes meeting included F. A. Rinkel, Dr. Edward Bratrud, Mrs. E. C. Karwand, A. F. Berge, Otto Parnow and Mrs. Florence Anderson. Others present were Theodore Quale, Paul Lundgren and W. E. Dahlquist.

The state convention, final step in the selection of Minnesota's delegates, will be called to order at 10 A. M. Saturday, in the St. Paul auditorium, with Senator Joseph H. Ball on hand to deliver the keynote address; and full delegate lists from the 87 counties.

That the delegates would be for Stassen as long as there is a chance for his nomination was accepted in the seven district conventions held Saturday, as it was in the two district conventions held a week before.

Red Cross Fund Lacking $1,200 of Reaching Goal

With the Pennington county campaign to raise a quota of $10,500 for the Red Cross War Fund scheduled to end Friday, March 31, the county yesterday was still lacking approximately $1,200 of reaching its goal, George L. Biddick, drive chairman, stated today.

Reported by solicitors were contributions totaling $9,300, Mr. Biddick said, adding that while all but two townships have turned in reports, the canvass in most cases is still incomplete, and there is a strong likelihood that with a concerted last-minute effort the objective will be reached.

"If you are one that has not yet made your contribution", Mr. Biddick urged, "will you please do it now? Our boys over there need the services, food and help that only the Red Cross can give, and the Red Cross is you.

"A letter from one of our soldiers who is a prisoner of war in Germany, appearing elsewhere in this issue, tells how important the Red Cross is to these men. Help the Red Cross to keep on doing its fine job by giving your dollars now".

APRIL COLLECTION OF SCRAP PAPER IS SET FOR APRIL 8TH

Boy Scout Troops Announce Details of Monthly Pickup

In cooperation with the intensified efforts of the government to relieve the acute paper shortage, the local Boy Scout troops will put on their second monthly paper drive Saturday, April 8th, beginning at 1:00 P. M. and lasting until 5:00 P. M. Citizens are urged to prepare bundles now so that everything will be in readiness when the truck comes to pick up the paper.

Scout Commissioner Morris Owen asks that all bundles of paper be securely tied. If possible put the paper in cardboard boxes and then tie them securely with heavy cord. On the last paper drive many of the bundles were not tied with heavy cord, and as a result many of the bundles came apart. The cooperation of the public will be much appreciated in this regard.

In the last drive over five tons of paper were collected. Half of the proceeds was divided among the three local Scout Troops and the other half of the proceeds was deposited in a general fund to be used for the improvement of general scout facilities in Thief River Falls. Thus each troop received checks for twenty-five dollars and the general fund received seventy-five dollars.

The case went to the jury at 2 o'clock, and the verdict was returned less than three hours later.

REP. HAGEN FILES FOR REELECTION AS A REPUBLICAN

Congressman First Elected in 1942 on Farmer-Labor Ticket

Representative Harold C. Hagen, Crookston, only Farmer-Laborite in congress, filed Saturday as a Republican, seeking reelection from the Ninth Minnesota district.

Simultaneously he made a statement declaring "it appears the proposed fusion of the Farmer-Labor party with the Democrats will lead to extermination of the Farmer-Labor party and its sound liberal principles as well."

Declaring the lines were sharply drawn for the coming campaign between those favoring constitutional government" and those who would embrace "bureaucracy and oppressive rule by arbitrary directives and orders," Hagen added:

"In my opinion, the time has come for those who believe in America and its ideals and traditions to join forces, regardless of party affiliation."

Hagen said he felt he could serve his district and the nation more effectively as a member of a major party than as "a lone independent in congress."

POWER PLANT SHOWS PROFIT OF $77 865 IN '43

Rise in Earnings Is Result of Increased Use of Waterpower

PEDERSON REPORTS ON CITY FINANCES

Reveals Outstanding Bonds of $237,000 at End of Past Year

The Thief River Falls municipal power plant in 1943 recorded net earnings of $77,865.42, compared to $73,762 in 1942, it is revealed in the recently completed report of P. G. Pederson, city clerk.

The kilowatt output of the plant increased only from 4,636,000 in 1942 to 4,744,000 last year. Production of current by the water turbines, however, rose from 1,890,500 kilowatts in 1942 to 2,701,200 in 1943, and the resulting saving in fuel oil accounts in large measure for the substantial increase in net earnings.

Mr. Pederson's report shows that at the end of the year the city had total assets totaling $1,330,111.46, and total liabilities of $250,564.79, including outstanding bonds in the amount of $237,000. Included in the city's holdings are electric light plant assets of $511,381.77; waterworks, $123,895.44; and general assets, including municipal buildings of $695,834.23.

Net earnings of the waterworks department transferred to surplus in 1943 were $4,327.81. The filtration plant last year handled a total of 140,755,000 gallons of water, the report reveals.

Disbursements by the city for general purposes in 1943 aggregated $59,317.14, including the following major items: Official salaries, $8,030; police department, $11,200.80; fire department, $9,036.10; street department, $14,689.19; recreation, $2,831.45; and sewage treatment plant, $5,664.[illegible]

Auditorium fund: Receipts, including taxes, $3,230.43; disbursements, $6,081.84. Library fund: Receipts, $4,857.01; disbursements, $7,682.44. Park fund: Receipts, $5,214.11; disbursements, $5,6[illegible].96.

RESEARCH BUREAU REPORTS ON STATE FINANCES IN 1943

the previous year but aid for local schools was $1,077,592 higher. The state now pays out more than $20,000,000 annually in aid for local schools.

Federal grants to the state have increased, it was brought out, until the state now gets approximately 15% of its total revenue from the federal government. Federal aids amounted to $18,172,345 in the 1943 fiscal year, compared to $7,917,716 in 1942.

Costs of the state government increased $39,862,989, or approximately 66%, in the 10 years between 1934 and 1943, the report showed, most of it for educational and welfare purposes. Welfare costs rose from $6,613,566 to $29,558,417 in 1943, due largely to social security payments and payment of debt charges on relief funds. Grants to the counties for old age assistance, aid to dependent children and the blind reached $17,262,427 in 1943. Of this, the state furnished close to $6,500,000, and the rest came from the federal government.

Large Audience Enjoys Easter Cantata Sunday at Trinity Luth. Church

A large and appreciative audience in Trinity Lutheran church Sunday evening heard an impressive rendition by the senior choir of the church of the Easter cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ". Purdy, while Mrs. Mildred Engen Hanson presided at the organ. Mr. Anderson, choirmaster, directed the rendition.

Mrs. Erling Olson returned last Thursday after accompanying her husband, Pvt. Erling Olson, to Minneapolis from where he left for his new station at Fort Meade, Maryland.

"A" Gasoline Coupons Still Acceptable for 3 Gallons of Gas Each

No. 11 "A" gasoline coupons are good for three gallons of gas each, OPA announced this week.

The recent cut did not change the value of the coupon, but the validity period was extended from two to three months. The three-month period covers March 21 through June 21. If a driver wishes to estimate his average ration for this period, he will have but two gallons per week to consume.

This may be the fact which has led some motorists to believe—erroneously—that the value of the "A" coupon had been cut. It is still good, however, for three gallons of gas.

Music Instrument Drive Now in Final Week Here

G. I. Joe is not only going to continue blasting Japs and Nazis at an ever increasing rate, but he is going to do it with music thanks to a nation-wide campaign to collect musical instruments for the boys across the seas. This campaign, now going into its final week, is being sponsored in Thief River Falls by the Coca-Cola Bottling company, at the request of the war department. Small instruments—such as harmonicas, ocarinas, accordians, guitars, banjos, etc., are particularly needed. Those wishing to donate are asked to take them to any Coca-Cola dealer. Trucks will pick them up and forward them to the army, which will send them overseas at once.

Letter from a Prisoner of War in Germany

This is a letter from Theodore Guss of Middle River who is a prisoner of war in Germany. Dated Dec. 13, 1943, it reads, "Dearest sister: I have thus far received three letters from you folks as a prisoner of war. What a treat to a confused, weary existance, they are: I read them over and over again until I have practically memorized and worn them out. Gee, it surely is great to hear from you once in a great while and to visualize you all at home. The Red Cross is really doing great work for us, and cannot be given too high a praise for it. I'm in good health and hope you're all the same. So long and God bless you all. Love, your brother, Ted." Ted Guss has been a prisoner for fifteen months.

Eighty Million Dressings Asked for Each Month

Warning that, with major battles of war yet to come, American women can not afford to slacken their efforts for one moment, Mrs. Richard Bissell, assistant director in charge of the Red Cross Volunteer Production Corps, pointed out that the Army has asked the Red Cross to supply 80 million surgical dressings a month, or about 3⅓ million a day.

"The loyalty, zeal and sacrifice of Red Cross workers will be needed more in the coming months than ever before," Mrs. Bissell said. "Commercial manufacturers have neither the labor nor facilities to meet the requirements of the Surgeon General's office. The Red Cross thus must make a large proportion of the dressings needed, and it is a vital obligation of the Red Cross to turn out these dressings for the casualties which must be expected.

"American men, wounded in battles, will in a very real sense be dependent on the work done by hundreds of thousands of American women in Red Cross chapters throughout the country. Only by a definite sacrifice of time and energy, only by a continued and devoted effort, can the need be met."

Favored as we were with a spring-like winter, we will not now complain of the rather wintry spring—not yet. But if the river isn't open by April 10th we will point out in as kindly a manner as possible that we seem to be getting off to a late start. Call us an ingrate, however, if we become offensive to the weather man. We are still putting our chips on that April 10th deadline.

Except for the continued advance of the Russian armies the war news these past weeks has not been spectacular—thousand plane raids have become more or less a commonplace and hardly worthy of mention. This lull whispers of big things in the making. Something tells us that one of these days the regular radio programs are going to be interrupted by special reports on further developments in the so and so.

Willkie is fighting the kind of a lone fight for the presidency that appeals to those who are suspicious of candidates who are hand picked by party bosses. He is the only candidate who, like Lincoln, is discussing the issues of the election and expressing his views on the problems with which we are confronted. And, like Lincoln, he is expressing his views with a refreshing frankness. We like him.

A few years ago Ralph Borsodi wrote, "Tomorrow, in a world which threatens to be socialized in a futile effort to eliminate predatory individuals by outlawing all profit, it is perfectly safe to predict that the selfish, cunning and ruthless individuals who devote themselves to predatory business under the present capitalistic regime, will devote themselves to politics in the new one." When government becomes the dominant force and offers the only field for advancement then rascals will all become politicians. But why speak of this merely as a possibility of the future? Brother, the evil day is knocking at the door.

City light plant earnings hit a new high in 1943, continuing the cycle of annual increases in volume that has been uninterrupted since early in the twenties. This past year's output totaled 4,744,000 kilowatt hours, compared to 3,857,000 in 1939 and 1,563,600 in 1929. There is nothing discouraging about those figures. More than half of last year's volume was developed by the hydro plant, which means that the diesel equipment has had an easy time of it. It is nice to know, however, that sufficient diesel equipment to take care of us in the dry years is standing by, ready to go to work.

Reports on the 9th District Republican Convention held at Detroit Lakes Saturday, stating that John Padden received unanimous endorsement as the party's candidate for Congress, do not give a true picture of what happened. The vote on endorsement was 66 to 25 in his favor and on an earlier vote on the question of whether or not any candidate should be endorsed only 44 affirmative votes were registered. These figures indicate that Harold Hagen, whose announcement of filing as a Republican had been read, was not without friends. Pennington and Marshall were among the counties opposed to any endorsement, which might have been expected, but it is significant that delegates of Otter Tail County, the party's stronghold, voted only 6 to 5 in favor of endorsing Padden. As long as the convention was so far from being unanimous it would have been better policy to make no attempt to give any one candidate the party's official blessing.

Worth reading is the condensation of Lawrence Sullivan's article, "The World's Biggest Payroll", in the April issue of Reader's Digest. It isn't necessary to tell you of course that over-his-ears-in-debt Uncle Sam is the hero of the story, maintaining a civil payroll of 3,300,000 people at an expense of more than a half a billion dollars a month. The article quotes Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia to the effect that while the state of Ohio has a total of 25,000 state employees, the federal government has 90,000 full-time federal employees working in that state. And what is true for Ohio is true for other states, including Minnesota. Such a condition makes it extremely difficult for us to be enthusiastic in our response to the government's appeals for financial support. And when the day of reckoning comes the politicians, who now are high-speeding the nation into bankruptcy, will be telling us from their soap boxes that all our troubles have been caused by the international bankers and the Jews.

Old Henry Ford last week predicted that the war would end in sixty days. He probably would have been closer to the facts if he had predicted that a Model T could make sixty miles an hour.

OPA Community Service Bulletin

By Mrs. Paul A. Lundgren Chairman

As previously indicated in this column, the members of the Price Panel and their assistants have during the month of March checked all food stores in this county, to find out how many above-ceiling price sales are taking place. Stores have also been checked on other matters such as posting of ceiling prices, etc. The stores where above-ceiling prices have been found will be visited again in a short time to see that they comply.

The report from Pennington county shows excellent cooperation on the part of the merchants. Here is the report: Number of stores visited, 31; stores in perfect compliance, 23; number of items checked, 434; number of items over ceiling 8.

I suppose you know that both the red and blue stamps are good for an indefinite period. Likewise sugar stamp No. 30 will not expire March 31st as announced but will be good for an indefinite period. This should eliminate last minute buying before an expiration date, which usually means that the consumer hoards food simply to use up the stamps, or gives away stamps not used.

Speaking of sugar, we may even get a little less in 1944. Industrial users of sugar have already been cut. There are several reasons for shortage of sugar. Namely, the greater need of our armed forces and our allies, the increasing use of industrial alcohol in the war effort, which takes the greater part of our sugar, and also the fact that shipping space for sugar is being diverted to more important war time needs.

PUBLIC OPINION

Editor Times:

We talk about bringing America back to God, but what have we done about bringing America back to God?

Before the close of the last World War, President Wilson issued a proclamation that all work cease one minute before 12 o'clock noon, asking that we devote one minute each day to prayer. We prayed, and in eleven days the war was over. It ended on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month, and it took eleven minutes of prayer.

Now we are engaged in a conflict five times as bad, and there is a war ten times worse ahead. Perhaps God would end this war in fifty five days if the Christians would pray five minutes each day. I have no boy in the service of my country but I am deeply interested in the sons of others. The boys prayed on Bataan; they prayed at Guadalcanal. There are no canteen night clubs on the battle fronts. The boys protecting our outposts cannot sleep—let us on the home front not sleep, as some do, but let us watch!

Brothers and sisters, comrades and friends, let us PRAY!

The Secret Weapon in Dan Mason's Attic

Dan Mason was always what we call a "string saver." When he unwraps a package he rolls up the string—folds the paper—and puts them both in his attic for safe-keeping.

"Never can tell when things'll come in handy," says Dan.

And you should see his attic! Stacks of paper, balls of string, empty bottles (Dan being a moderate man and sticking just to beer), old horseshoes—and goodness knows what-all.

We used to kid him a lot. But then comes the scrap drive, and Dan sets a record for the metal and the paper he contributes. And the glassmakers owe him a medal for the empty bottles he turns in.

From where I sit, Dan's one up on us all. What's more, he's got us doing it too—collecting scrap, returning empty bottles—not because somebody makes us do it, but because it's the Democratic way of working together to win the war.

Pick Vegetables Properly

Vegetables picked at the right time have much better flavor and quality than those picked too early or too late. Correct harvest also enables many vegetable plants, such as beans and summer squash, to continue production, instead of ripening the first early pods or fruits.

A. SKARSTAD GETS INSTRUCTIONS ON AIDING VETERANS

To Serve Employment Office in Helping Handicapped Service Men

Alfred Skarstad, who was appointed as interviewer in the United States employment service office at Thief River Falls February 26th, spent from March 13th to March 21st attending an eight-day training course on functions of the employment service and war manpower commission with particular emphasis on the procedure and plans set up to assist veterans in rehabilitating themselves to civilian life.

Although the services of the employment service are for all veterans, and unemployed generally, the special instructions given Mr. Skarstad were particularly for the purpose of rehabilitating the disabled or handicapped veteran. Under the re-employment policy of the Selective Service System, it is the responsibility of the War Manpower Commission to assist the veteran in obtaining employment if he is not physically handicapped.

If his service in active military or naval forces has rendered him unfit to resume his former position, he is entitled to vocational training to overcome the physical handicap of such disability, during which training he would also receive certain pensions, and under certain circumstances, be entitled to compensation.

The handicapped veteran in need of employment should contact the local veterans employment representative who will make every effort to place him in a position that will be least affected by his particular disability or handicap.

BOY SCOUT NOTES

Last Saturday, March 25th, a group of thirty scouts journeyed to Crookston [illegible] visited the Crookston farm school. The boys enjoyed an afternoon of swimming in the AC pool. Approximately twenty-five of the scouts passed their first class swimming tests under the supervision of Scoutmaster Quentin Jones and Mr. Bennet, assistant athletic director at the Farm School.

The trip to the farm school swimming pool has become an annual affair on the program of Thief River Falls Scouts. It is a splendid means of carrying out the Scout physical fitness program. It is also a means of giving recognition to the boys who have made the greatest strides in following the scouting program.

Keeping Score

No Shouts Yet

The city bowling league didn't quite reach the all-over-but-the-shouting stage last week, and it's doubtful if that stage will be reached this week. Oen's, with a three-game lead and needing but a win or two in their match with the Pharmacy to clinch the title, dropped all three games to the druggists, who bounced up to within one game of the lead. And the runner-up Poppler's Furniture team swept their three-game series with the Eagles Bombers to move into a tie for first place with Oen's.

Tomorrow night, in the final games of the season, Oen's will meet the last-place Eagles Aces; and the Poppler's will roll against the Terrebonne Milling team. The second place Pharmacy, who are only a game away from the leaders, will bowl the Hartz Office quint. It's very probable that the race will end in a deadlock for first place, for Oen's and Popplers should score sweeps in their matches tomorrow night.

Of the two, though, Poppler's has the stronger opposition, for the Terrebonne Milling team is capable of making up some hot totals. They defeated the Popplers in an early-season match, winning the odd game, and Stan Larson hasn't forgotten that, and neither have Ed. Karwand, Fred Lorentson, Dennis Wegge, and Dr. Cliff Jacobson, the other members of the Poppler team.

Well, we'll learn tomorrow night whether that ruddy look on the Popplers is a championship flush, or if it's only a symptom of first-place fever.

State Champions

In conversation with a couple of qualified experts who witnessed the state high school tournament—Lloyd Bennes and Roseau's Ambrose Kramer—I learned that Patrick Henry of Minneapolis deserved the state title they won last week-end. Jim McIntyre, Henry's towering center, was by long odds the most effective high school scorer they had ever seen, but they would have liked to have watched him in a game against Bemidji. Bemidji, they thought, with Phil Feir and Bob Brown shadowing McIntyre, perhaps would have been able to intercept a number of those overhead passes that the Henry guards tossed in to the lanky scoring ace, and they would have made it rougher for him to get his shots off when the passes did connect.

They were impressed by the sure hands that McIntyre possesses, for it was seldom that he fumbled a pass and he had a neat touch in laying up his shots. Kramer and Bennes admitted that McIntyre's foot-work while on defense wasn't so very nimble, but when a fellow can rack up 39 points in a game, as he did, he doesn't have to play much defense. The other team has to worry about the defense.

Juniors: Class Champs

The rangy and rough-house Juniors made a shambles of last week's interclass basketball tournament, for they rolled through the Seniors, 38 to 18, and then walloped the Freshmen, 45 to 15, in the finals. Bob Baker, Manny Forsberg, Phil Kays, Loyal Froseth, Jack Scanlan, Sonny Johnson, and Larry Rulien, gave the Juniors more experience and scoring punch than the other class teams could assemble.

Incidentally, Coach Glenn Hanna intends to send the 1944-45 Prowler basketball hopefuls thru a couple of weeks of spring practice. Several weeks of informal drill will give the coach an inkling as to the make-up of next season's club, and the indications are that the team will move up a rung or two in the district standings.

Dinner guests at the Emil Koglin home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Axel Anderson and children of Karlstad, and Mrs. A. F. Lanska and daughter LaVerne of this city.

BUDDING LILACS

East Grand Forks. — Why up here in northwestern Minnesota finding a lilac bush budded and ready to burst into bloom in March is something to chronicle. Sounds questionable but proof of it has been observed by many who have viewed the several branches which Mrs. George Hiller picked from a bush in her backyard just prior to a March snowstorm and brought to the newspaper office. A day or two more of the unusually beautifully March weather and they would have been full bloom.

'U' FARM EXPERT GIVES ADVICE ON LIVESTOCK HERE

W. E. Morris Talks to Local Farmers at Meeting Last Friday

Up-to-date pointers on livestock production were given Pennington county farmers at a meeting held at the Civic and Commerce rooms last Friday by W. E. Morris, extension animal husbandryman from University Farm.

In discussing the cattle program, Mr. Morris emphasized the importance of a year around pasture to maintain milk production the entire summer. He recommended the use of emergency pastures during the poor pasture season such as second cutting alfalfa and the late planting of small grains. He also encouraged farmers to cut their alfalfa hay early in order to secure the maximum amount of protein.

In order to supply sheep and hogs sufficient grazing in the summer time where permanent pastures were not available, Mr. Morris recommended the growing of dwarf rape. He stated, however, that where available, alfalfa pasture has proved the most successful.

In connection with the parasite control program of sheep Mr. Morris advocated the continued use of phenothiazine. He stated that the program was successful where it was used last year and that the nodular worm is being controlled. This parasite control is being emphasized this time because sheep intestines kept free from nodular worms are much more suitable for medical sutures and the dressing of war wounds.

For those who have not set up a control program for nodular worms, Mr. Morris recommended drenching the sheep with phenothiazine before the sheep are turned to pasture. He then recommended that during the summer months the following mixture be kept in front of them at all times: one part of phenothiazine to ten parts of salt.

87-YEAR-OLD MAN GETS DRIVER'S LICENSE

Gaylord.—When Louis G. Durocher of Henderson bought a driver's license on his eighty-second birthday, December 23, he had the distinction of being Sibley county's oldest citizen to obtain the new four-year permit. But on March 14, when George A. McKenzie, venerable Gaylord lawyer, strolled into the clerk's office to renew his driver's license for his 1900 Ford coupe, Mr. Durocher lost the honor. Both gentlemen are known for their strict adherence to the driving laws. Their advice to motorists is "Drive sanely and grow old."

TRAFFIC DEATHS DECREASE 37 PER CENT DURING 1943

Injuries in Traffic Slump 24 Per Cent Compared to 1942

Motor vehicle traffic fatalities in 1943 were 37 per cent under the 1942 total and 57 per cent under the 1941 figure, according to the annual summary of traffic accidents made by the Minnesota highway department. Traffic injuries were 24 per cent under 1942 and 45 per cent under 1941. The number of accidents reported was [illegible] per cent under 1942 and 46 per cent under 1941. Under the law all accidents involving personal injury or property damage exceeding $50 must be reported.

Decrease in accidents, at least in fatalities, was somewhat greater than the decrease in traffic. Total motor vehicle travel in Minnesota in 1943 is estimated at 4,354,000,000 vehicle miles, 25 per cent less than in 1942 and 43 per cent less than in 1941. Fatality rate was 6.2 per 100,000,000 vehicle miles of travel in 1943, compared to 7.5 in 1942 and 8.1 in 1941.

A total of 10,586 accidents were reported in 1943, with 271 fatalities, 1,720 severely injured and 4,154 slightly injured. If an army division went into battle and had this number of killed and wounded, and vehicles damaged, it is pointed out, the division would be seriously disorganized. The same number killed and injured on the home front may cause just as serious, though less spectacular setback to the war effort.

Of the 271 fatalities, 106 were pedestrians and 165 were motor vehicle occupants. Not a single bicyclist was killed in a traffic accident in 1943. Of the 5,874 injured, 4,322 were motor vehicle occupants, 1,381 pedestrians, and 171 bicyclists.

COOP. STORE HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The financial statement of the Cooperative store submitted to the members at the annual meeting Wednesday revealed a highly successful year of business, with total sales of $131,936. After withholding a reserve for doubtful accounts, paying interest on stock, and taking out 15% of the net earnings for patrons' equity reserve, a total of $6,742 remained for distribution to the members in the form of cash refunds.

In his report the manager reported that over $120,000 in cash dividends has been distributed since the store's beginning.

Mr. Shelston of the Central Cooperative Wholesale explained the Patronage Group Life Insurance plan. It was decided that this be adopted for the year 1944. All members will be covered under this plan according to the amount of their purchases for the year 1943, and the premium will be paid out of the earnings of the store.

Quite a lively discussion took place regarding the value of the original shares of stock, and the rate of interest which should be paid on share capital.

A few of those who hold original shares of stock contended that money invested in shares should earn at least an equitable rate of interest. They pointed out the risks involved in the early history of the store.

Those who favored a reduction in the rate of interest on stock, while acknowledging the important part played by these early pioneers, argued that it was the members who supported their store by purchases that made it a continued success. It was their contention, therefore, that earnings should be distributed according to patronage, especially in view of the fact that one-third of the company's stock is held by people outside of the trade territory.

One of the orginal stockholders stated that he had been repaid in money and services many times over his original investment, and made a motion to discontinue entirely the interest on stock. This was seconded and after some further discussion was carried by a large majority.

A plan for retiring the capital stock was also brought up for discussion.

Sofus Bjertness and Olaf Olstad were re-elected to the board. L. O. Larson, who has been one of the directors for the past few years, refused to serve any longer on account of his failing health. Adolph Erickson was elected to fill his place.

The members were entertained with singing by Clifford Rude, who furnished his own accompaniment, and by Mrs. Halmrast, who was accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Knutson on the piano.

there may be some delay until telephone service can be started...

Since the war started, the demand for telephone service has been much heavier than ever before. Existing facilities are carrying a capacity load. At the same time, metals and other materials necessary to provide new telephone facilities are going into weapons of war.

In spite of stretching what we have to serve as many persons as possible, shortages of facilities are becoming more acute. We usually can transfer service promptly for persons who move, but may not be able to furnish the kind of telephone or type of service wanted. In most cases, there will be a delay for new applicants.

We welcome your inquiries regarding service and will do our best to serve you.

PENNINGTON CO. TO SHARE IN HIGHWAY FUND ALLOTMENTS

To Get $12,400 for State Aid Roads and $25,125 for County Aid Roads

Allotment of $4,590,000 from the state road and bridge fund to Minnesota's 87 counties for improvement and maintenance of state aid and county aid roads, was announced today by the state board of allotment. Pennington county will receive $12,400 for use on state aid roads and $25,125 for use on county aid roads. Corresponding figures for Marshall county are $12,400 and $50,800.

The funds allotted, $1,240,000 for state aid roads and $3,350,000 for county aid roads, are the same as the 1943 totals, but the county aid is considerably less than in any other recent year. All the counties received the same county aid allotments as in 1943. A few received slightly higher or lower state aid allotments.

Keeping the 1944 county aid allotments up to the 1943 level was possible through use of unobligated reserve funds and because the drop in gas tax receipts has not been as rapid as had been anticipated. Members of the allotment board, Julius A. Schmahl, state treasurer; John L. Meeder, acting state auditor in the absence of Stafford King; and M. J. Hoffman, commissioner of highways, emphasized that continued decrease in gas taxes will unquestionably force a heavy cut in county aid allotments in 1945.

One-third of the net gas tax receipts go to the state road and bridge fund. From those receipts $1,200,000 is appropriated annually for state aid roads and the balance is available for allotment for county aid roads. The amount available for state aid roads each year includes the annual appropriation of $1,200,000 from the gas tax receipts, income from investments of the internal improvement land fund, receipts from delinquent taxes from the state 1-mill road tax which was repealed in 1941, and unobligated balances.

SCHOOL LUNCHES BEING SERVED TO MANY IN COUNTY

19,722 Bottles of Penny Milk Purchased by Pupils in February

Under this plan, the schools are reimbursed up to nine cents a meal per child for actual food expenditures. Penny milk is a part of this lunch, and last month 19,722 bottles of milk were purchased by Pennington school children.

The school lunch plan is administered by the Pennington school lunch committee, consisting of Mrs. A. C. Matheson, county superintendent of schools; Miss Ann Sward, county nurse; G. L. Netteland, Goodridge superintendent; P. L. Fjelsted, Thief River Falls superintendent; Ernest Palmer, county agent; and John X. Lynskey, executive secretary to the welfare board.

Have a Coca-Cola = Kia Ora (GOOD LUCK)

Kia ora, says the New Zealander when he wants to give you his best wishes. The American soldier says it another way. Have a "Coke", says he, and in three words he has made a friend. It's a phrase that says Welcome, neighbor from Auckland to Albuquerque, from New Zealand to New Mexico. 'Round the globe, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—has become the high-sign between friendly-minded people. So, of course, Coca-Cola belongs in your icebox at home.

Coca-Cola the global high-sign

Hats off to the People who Produce your Electric Light and Power

The Charles A. Coffin Foundation confers a special citation for distinguished wartime achievement on the ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER INDUSTRY

"Faced with unprecedented demands, the Electric Light and Power Industry has met every war-production requirement without delay and without impairment of its peacetime services to the public. This achievement merits the appreciation not only of American industry but of the entire nation."—FROM THE CITATION

THIS CITATION is richly merited—for here is a branch of industry that has done a remarkable war job that has not been generally recognized.

If electric power should fail, or if it be too little or too late, the disastrous effects would startle all America. Vital machines would be motionless. Millions of homes would be cold and an eerie blackout would descend over the land.

But, electricity has not failed. Rather, in 1943 twice as much power was produced as in the year before the war—with the minimum of new facilities—and despite large losses of skilled employees to the Armed Services.

In the words of J. A. Krug, Director, Office of War Utilities of W.P.B., "Power men—public and private—should be proud of the job that has been done in providing power supply. Power has never been too little or too late."

We of General Electric, who have built a large part of the electric equipment which generates, distributes, and uses the electric power of America, take pride in the way this equipment is standing up under the strain of "forced draft" wartime operation.

Many of the men and women responsible for this remarkable record are your neighbors—the manager or meter reader who lives across the street, the girl in the accounting department who is in your bridge club, the lineman with whom you bowled last night. A word of appreciation from you to them will lend added significance to this well deserved citation. General Electric Company, Schenectady, New York.

What is the Charles A. Coffin Foundation?

THE PURPOSE of the Charles A. Coffin Foundation is to encourage and reward distinguished achievement in the electrical field by "prizes to employees; by recognition to lighting, power, and railway companies for improvement in service to the public; by fellowships to deserving graduate students; and by the grant of funds for research work at technical schools and colleges."

Establishment of the awards was announced twenty-two years ago in a statement issued by President Swope and dated December 2, 1922:

"On May 16, 1922, Charles A. Coffin in his 78th year retired from the active leadership of the General Electric Company. Mr. Coffin has been identified with the development of the electrical industry since 1883. He was the founder and creator of the General Electric Company, of which he has been the inspiration and leader for thirty years.

"As an expression of appreciation of Mr. Coffin's great work not only for the General Electric Company but also for the entire electrical industry and with the desire to make this appreciation enduring and constructive as Mr. Coffin's life and work have been, the Board of Directors of the General Electric Company, created on his retirement and now desires to announce the 'Charles A. Coffin Foundation.'"

MINNESOTA GOP DELEGATES ARE NOW ALL PICKED

RESOLUTION BACKS STASSEN CANDIDA

Roy Dunn and Mrs. Ch Carlson Named on National Committee

While speakers extolled him as the man most needed at the head of the nation, Minnesota Republicans in their annual state convention Saturday passed a resolution endorsing Harold E. Stassen, Minnesota's former governor, and elected seven delegates-at-large committed to work for his nomination for president at the Republican National convention in Chicago June 26th.

Immediately after the convention, the newly elected delegates-at-large met with the delegates previously elected at the district conventions and organized for the fight which they are to carry on at Chicago for Stassen's nomination. Governor Edward J. Thye, one of the seven delegates-at-large picked during the afternoon, was named chairman of the Minnesota delegation of 25 delegates.

The Minnesota delegates at this initial meeting also voted to re-elect Roy E. Dunn, national committeeman, and Mrs. Chris Carlson, national committeewoman, and their names will be submitted to the national convention for approval.

The seven persons winning places in the spirited race for delegates-at-large, besides Governor Thye, were:

Mrs. M. L. Spencer, Republican state chairwoman, Winona; Senator J. V. Weber, secretary of the Minnesota Stassen-for-President association, Slayton; Mrs. F. Peavey Heffelfinger, Long Lake; Lawrence Hall, speaker of the House of Representatives, St. Cloud; U. S. Senator Joseph H. Ball, St. Paul, and Charles Tunell, Minneapolis labor man.

"Minnesota is proud to offer to our party and our nation," said the resolution adopted, "former Governor Harold E. Stassen who possesses to the highest degree those attributes of leadership that the party and the country needs today." It said his "demonstrated executive ability, unimpeachable integrity, courage and statesmanship" are recognized throughout the land and that he will win if nominated.

Senator Joseph H. Ball, giving the keynote of the convention, said that Stassen has taken the clear, forthright position on great issues which the people demand. Governor Thye told the convention he and Senator Ball, back from a trip to Nebraska, had found the people there eager for information about Stassen and said it is up to his friends here to carry on energetically the campaign for his nomination which he cannot do.

In addition to the delegates, the convention chose seven alternates to the national convention: Buren Watland, Jackson; J. S. Jones, St. Paul; Dr. R. C. Radabaugh, state chairman since Stassen's nomination in 1938, Hastings; E. C. Duncanson, Spring Valley; William Dixon, St. Paul; Herman Skyberg, Fisher, and Merrill Hutchinson, Minneapolis.

Delegates to the convention from Pennington county included Frank A. Rinkel, Theodore Quale, Dr. Edward Bratrud, Mrs. E. C. Karwand, Mrs. Alex Campbell and Anton Johnson, Highlanding.

FIFTH BOND DRIVE IS ANNOUNCED TO START JUNE 12TH

Secretary Morgenthau Says Objective in Campaign Is 16 Billion

Americans, rich and poor, will be asked to loan the government $6,000,000,000 between June 12 and July 8 to meet the record $16,000,000,000 goal set for the country's fifth war loan.

Secretary Morgenthau, in announcing details of the mammoth financing operation Sunday night, recalled individuals subscribed $5,309,000,000 during the January-February fourth war loan and added:

"We will need more than twice as much as we can expect to get in taxes."

He declared war costs since Jan. 1 have exceeded $23,000,000,000, "with critical phases of the war still ahead of us."

Again ruling out commercial banks as participants, Morgenthau said major emphasis will be put on individual purchases.

Corporations, associations and other "big money" investors are looked to for $10,000,000,000. They oversubscribed their $8,500,000,000 quota in the fourth war loan by $2,921,000,000, while individuals fell $191,000,000 short of their $5,500,000,000 mark. In the first of a series of two meetings this week devoted to a discussion of post-war planning, fifty members of the Civic and Commerce association and guests Monday evening in the Palm Garden Cafe heard E. He urged the setting up of a county-wide planning board including officials representing the county, city, villages, school districts and townships, adding that 62 Minnesota counties have been organized to date.

"As an indication of this city's ability to finance a substantial improvement program following the war, W. E. Dahlquist reported on an informal survey of records for the years 1927 to 1943. He pointed out that while, during a period of approximately fifteen years, the city spent roughly $815,000 on civic improvements, it at the same time reduced its indebtedness from $482,000 to $237,000, and ended the period with cash and government bonds on hand in the amount of $138,000.

Among the projects proposed for consideration over a period of years after the return of peace were the rebuilding of the power dam, new water intake in the river, enlarging the filtration plant, new First st. bridge, development of the airport and construction of new storm sewers.

SPECIAL EASTER RITES IN TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Climax of Lenten Season to be Observed Tonight Thru Sunday

In recognition of the Resurrection story as the climax of the Gospel, the Lenten period of preparation for its message comes to an end this week with the celebration of Holy Week services of commemoration. These services center about the events which culminated in the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

At Trinity Lutheran Church, Maundy Thursday will be observed in two services of Holy Communion: at 3:30 in the afternoon for those who prefer the Norwegian language, and at 8:00 in the evening. Rev. T. C. L. Hanson, of Holt, will assist the pastor, Rev. G. S. Thompson at the Norwegian service. In the evening English service, the pastor will preach a sermon on the Cross. Good Friday services in the church will also feature the Holy Communion at 8:00 P. M.

Services on Easter Sunday will commence with the traditional sunrise communion at 6:00 A. M. The Trinity choir, under the direction of Edward Anderson, will sing "They Have Taken Away My Lord." "Why Seek Ye the Living Among the Dead" will be the sermon theme. The festival service at 10:30 A. M. will include special rites for the reception of new members, prayers for the consecration of more than 450 Penny-A-Meal boxes containing the self-denial offering of members during Lent. This gift is for missionary and charitable purposes of the synod.

Wendell Willkie's presidential possibilities went into a nosedive in the Wisconsin primaries this week and Harold Stassen emerged from the storm as Dewey's leading opponent. If Minnesota's former governor can ring the bell in the coming tests of strength in Nebraska and Oregon he will very definitely be one of the leading contenders for the Republican nomination. His prospects are greatly improved.

Sunday will be the second anniversary of the fall of Bataan, which virtually was the end of the struggle to hold the Philippines. Resistance continued several weeks more on Corregidor but when the American and Filipino armies on Bataan surrendered the Japs had, in effect accomplished their purpose. Bataan was not a Jap victory however. As a result of the heroic defense maintained by our forces against hopeless odds, the Jap timetable was upset. The delay of four months enabled us to deliver much needed supplies to Australia and other strategic points and retain the foothold in the South Pacific. The defense of Bataan cost many lives, but it also saved the lives of many who would have been sacrificed later if the advance of the Nips had not been delayed.

Advance of Japan's armies into India may not be particularly important from a military standpoint but it could have far reaching effects politically in China. The Chinese have been bitterly critical of allied strategy. They feel that they have not been given due consideration by either the British or the Americans and Chinese leaders, operating under most difficult economic conditions, have not had an easy time retaining political control of their country. If the Japanese invasion of India further reduces the already small stream of supplies now being delivered to the Chinese there is a possibility that China's resistance will be broken by internal revolution. That would be a great victory for the Japs and would add tremendously to the difficulties we would be confronted with. Our rapid advance in the Pacific and the possibility that we may soon regain possession of the Philippines may bolster Chinese morale, but, after all, there is a limit to what they can endure. A Jap victory in India could have very serious consequences.

Willkie's withdrawal from the presidential race is not a thing to feel good about. Of all the candidates seeking this high office he has been the only one who has expressed himself on national issues. This is no reflection on men who, like Stassen, have been unable to speak up, but it is unfortunate that the only candidate both able and willing to speak has been eliminated. Maybe Willkie talked too much for his own good. Maybe he didn't play smart politics. But he at least was honest and forthright and courageous, and when he campaigned in Wisconsin he didn't tell the people of that state what he knew they wanted to hear. On the contrary he told them things he knew they didn't want to hear, but he said the things he believed to be true and proper. Although he is no longer a candidate, we hope he will continue to speak. America needs a few more Wendell Willkies.

WARD'S QUALITY CHICKS ARE BRED UP FOR EXTRA PRODUCTION.

Four years ago Wards launched its heritage chain program of flock improvement. In these four years this program resulted in an investment of $200.00 in "Record of Performance" breeding.

Our 4-Star Chicks have the direct bloodline of such famous strains as Creighton, Hanson, Gasson, Coombs and Scoresmore, well known for producing whole families of high egg laying champions. To qualify for our 4-Star standard of production a pullet must lay at least 200 eggs of 24-oz. per doz. or better under actual trap nesting. A common farm hen lays about 8 dozen eggs a year, ordinarily barely enough to cover her feed costs. Your egg production is in the chick the day it is hatched.

Place your order now for at once or future delivery. Chicks can be bought on our time payment plan.

How to Prevent an Egg Shortage: Eat Lots of 'Em Daily

YES, WE MEAN IT! EAT LOTS OF EGGS NOW—EVERY DAY—OR WE WILL BE FACED WITH AN EGG SHORTAGE THIS FALL. THE EGG MARKET IS FLOODED AND UNLESS WE EAT EGGS NOW AND REDUCE THE SURPLUS, FARMERS WILL BE DISCOURAGED AND WILL SELL THEIR LAYING HENS.

- BE PATRIOTIC — EAT MORE EGGS
- Serve at least one egg per person, per day.
- Use them in omelets, cakes and custards.
- Eat 'em poached on toast for breakfast.
- USE MORE EGGS — DAILY, SAYS WFA.
- Ask for an egg in your malted milk.
- Dye them and hide them on Easter Sunday for the kids to find.
- Use lots of eggs now! An egg shortage next fall will not be welcomed by anyone.

PUBLIC NOTICES

In Memoriam

In memory of Soren Sorenson who passed away April 12, 1942.

Two years have passed since that sad day,
When father dear was called away;
We loved you then, we love you still!
Forget you! No, we never will.
We often sit and think of you,
And think of how you died
But oh it is so hard to think
You could not say goodbye.
We did all we could to save you
Until God called you away.
It seems you had to go to a better place
And could no longer stay.
The flowers we placed upon your grave
May wither and decay,
But the love that lies within our hearts
Will never, never fade away.

Sadly missed by his wife, sons and daughters. Mrs. Mattie Sorenson, Mr. Sam Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Malchow, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ness, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Myrom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollander. 14p

In Memoriam

In memory of Lawrence Dietz who died April 3rd, 1943.

We have just a loving memory
A dear one from us has gone;
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled
A son and brother dear,
And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in Heaven.

Herman Dietz and family. 14p

Pvt. Alvin Dicken Writes from War-Prisoners Camp in Germany to Parents

In a letter written in January from a prisoner-of-war camp in Germany, Pvt. Alvin Dicken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dicken of this city, tells how the Red Cross organization eased the plight of the prisoners by sending them food parcels regularly. He says that at Christmas time he received a package including food, clothing and shoes, and that the Red Cross keeps the men well supplied with books. Confined to the camp for the past 15 months, he mentions that last August he met Myles Efteland, also of this city, in camp.

OENS AND KIEWELS WILL FIGHT FRIDAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Eliminate Competitors in Struggle for City Bowling Title

The Oen's and the Kiewel's bowling teams will meet in the championship finals Friday night to determine the city's bowling titlists. The Oen's City league champions reached the finals by defeating the Pharmacy in a first-round match and the Eagles Bombers in the semi-finals. The Kiewel's meanwhile were upsetting the defending champion Bratrud Clinics in a first-round match, and the high-average Western Oil team in the semi-finals.

Monday evening's first-round games found Bratrud Clinics turning in scores of 758-780-719, while the Kiewel's were posting games of 777-745-805 to win the odd game of the series. Western Oil, too, were forced to roll three games before winning their first-round match with the Schmidt's City Club; but they rolled scores of 829 and 820 in their second and third games, after losing the opener with a low 725. The City Club, carrying a 90-pin handicap, posted scores of 802-767-813, losing the third and final game by 7 pins.

Oen's with a two straight win, eliminated the Pharmacy team on Tuesday night, the city league champions marking up totals of 830 and 892, while the druggists were chalking up creditable scores of 825 and 879. The Eagles Bombers, with H. Olson tallying games of 236, and 190, scored a two-up victory over the Poppler's Furniture team, the Bombers having team totals of 873 and 868, while the Poppler's were racking up games of 847 and 809.

In an exciting semi-finals match, played after the first-round matches Tuesday evening, the Oen's after losing the first game, 896 to 907, defeated the Eagles Bombers, two games to three, to move into the finals. For the three games the Oen's had scores of 896-891-928; with the Eagles Bombers having totals of 907-794-839. Roy Oen, with a 215 game, and Cal Ripley, with a 211, were the Oen's high scorers in the third and deciding game of the series.

Wednesday night the Kiewel's continued their upsetting methods by eliminating the Western Oil, winning the match in two games. Kiewel's, with a 53-pin handicap, won the first game, 864 to 817, with Gib Baker getting a 194 game for the winners; and then boomed to an 892 to 807 win in the second game. Marshall Kays, with a 202, and Ebba Erickson, with a 211, sparked the winners.

.... With BUCK OLSON

Oen's the Tops

Regardless of the outcome of their city championship finals match with the Kiewels team—they should win, but they can lose—the Oen's team must be rated as the city's No. 1 bowling aggregation. The results of the week's bowling entitle the Oen's to the top rung. In a roll-off for the city league championship, the Oen's scored a two-straight win over the Poppler's Furniture team; in a first round match for the city championship they defeated the Pharmacy in two games; and in a semi-finals match against the ever-dangerous Eagles Bombers, the Oen's, after losing the first game, scored a two-and-one win. Clair Loretz, Roy Oen, Cal Ripley, Gordy Reierson, and Wally DuChamp were really under pressure in their duel with the Bombers; but they came thru with actual-pin counts of 896, 891 and 928.

Roy Oen had all kinds of trouble in controlling his curve ball in the first game with the Bombers, and finally had to settle for a 117 score. The Bombers won that game, 907 to 896, and Roy took the blame for the loss; but then he came back to roll scores of 177 and 215. Roy said, after going from a 117 to a 215, that as a bowler he was "consistently inconsistent."

The Bratrud Clinic team, city champions for the past two years, apparently have been affected by the slow spring we've had, for in a first round match against the Kiewel's on Monday night, the Clinic posted "cold" scores of 758, 780, and 719, and were eliminated.

Basketball Chatter

Tommy Quinn and Dick Lawrence, guards on the regional champion Lumberjacks, have been elected co-captains of next season's Bemidji team. Coach Glenn Barnum still believes that he could have set up a defense that would have effectively bottled up Patrick Henry's Jim McIntyre. If Bemidji had met Henry in the state finals, Barnum would have put Phil Feir and Bob Brown on McIntyre, with Feir playing in front of the Henry center and Brown covering the basket. But as one Bemidji commentator said, the only sure defense to use on McIntyre is a tennis racket.

The local chapter of the DeMolay is organizing a team to send down to the Cities for the state DeMolay basketball tournament. Anoka's Billy Bye, a member of the local chapter is visiting here this week and he intends to play with the team, and Lenny Lorentson plans on coming over from St. Olaf and join the boys in Minneapolis. With Bill and Lenny added to such locals as Ninsk Carlson, Bill McKechnie, Roger Tunberg, and Woody Schmeltzer, a pretty fair team should result.

Northrop Quint Wins

The Northrop team, by a score of 19 to 7 over Washington, continued its fine habit of winning grade school championships. I think that the Northrops, over the years, have won so many grade school titles that they will have to build an addition to the school to hold all the trophies.

The eighth graders, with Chuck Erickson and Durwood "Swede" Lund each scoring 10 points, edged past the Freshmen, 23 to 20, to win the junior high school championship. Chuck's long shot, in the final minute of play, cinched the game. Dick Borreson's 8 points kept the Frosh in the contest, and his play caught the eye of varsity Coach Hanna.

Lions vs. Catholic Men

The good-natured rivalry existing between the Lions and the Catholic Men's bowling teams reached its peak Monday night when the two teams engaged in a total-pins challenge match. The Lions, previous to the match, had composed a letter, which they mailed to the Catholics captain, Frank Kobliska, and in which they made disparaging remarks about the bowling abilities of the Catholic Men, and offering to furnish vitamin pills and bowling lessons to those members of the Catholic Men, who wished assistance, etc.

Well, the payoc is that the Catholic Men, with scores of 714, 784, and 765, totaled 2263 pins to win the total-pins match. The Lions had games of 757, 644, and 777, for a 2178 total. The question now is, who's going to teach whom?

EXPIRATION DATES NO LONGER ON RED AND BLUE STAMPS

Move Designed to End Last-Minute Rush of Buying

Red and blue stamps in War Book IV will be good indefinitely for the purchase of meats, fats, oils and processed foods. There is no change in the rate at which stamps become valid, and advance notice will be given if it is found necessary to retire any food stamps.

P. R. Fields, district rationing officer, pointed out that the removal of expiration dates will accomplish a two fold purpose. There will no longer be an excuse for the hoarding of tokens, and retailers will be relieved of the last minute buying rush which formerly occurred on expiration dates.

Housewives may continue to budget their family purchases of rationed foods on the basis of three red (meats and fats) stamps—worth a total of 30 points—every second Sunday, and five blue (processed foods) stamps—worth a total of 50 points—the first of every month.

STREAMLINES BRASS BED TO AID WAR DEMANDS

Willmar— Ever mindful each day of lending full support to war demands, a local woman whose identity is not disclosed, had the brass top sawed off her bed to contribute the metal to the scrap drive. With a son and son-in-law in the armed service she's conscious every waking moment of putting forth every effort to fight the war.

Battle Front Lunch on Display at Bank

General Dwight D. Eisenhower stops for lunch by a roadside during an inspection tour. Emergency rations are the same for private and general . . . and all such rations are provided by the War Bonds you buy. This thought, "Bonds Feed Fighting Americans!" is the theme of an exhibit now being shown at the Northern State bank.—Official U. S. Army photograph.

Two Roseau Women Cut Carload of Pulpwood

It is nothing unusual for a man to cut a carload of pulpwood in a given time, but when it is done by a mother and her daughter it is a different story, says the Roseau Times-Region.

That is what Mrs. John Rosen and her daughter, Miss Lilly Mae, have done. Their farm home is northwest of Roseau. And the financial incentive was but secondary. Their chief aim was to aid in the war effort. Mrs. Rosen has a brother in the service.

The two ladies cut eighteen cords which made up a carload, using axes and bow saw in the process. They did all the work, except when it came to loading, at which job they had help.

Rationing Dates for Coming Week

Sugar: Stamp No. 30 (Book IV) good for 5 pounds indefinitely. Stamp No. 31 (Book IV) valid April 1 and good for 5 pounds indefinitely. Stamp No. 40 (Book IV) good for 5 pounds Canning sugar through February 28, 1945.

Meats and Fats: Red Stamps 8A, 8B, 8C, 8D, 8E, 8F, 8G, 8H, and 8J (Book IV) valid indefinitely. Three more stamps will become valid in two weeks.

Red stamps No. 8 from A to M (Book IV) good for 10 points each may be used in advance of their valid dates for the purchase of large quantities of meat from farm slaughterers only. Enough stamps for purchasing of other requirements should be retained to take care of such items as butter, salad oil, canned fish, etc.

Processed Foods: Blue Stamps 8A, 8B, 8C, 8D, 8E, 8F, 8G, 8H, 8J, and 8K (Book IV) valid indefinitely. 5 more stamps will become valid May 1.

Shoes: Stamp No. 18 (Book I) expires April 30.

Airplane stamp No. 1 (Book III) good for one pair of shoes indefinitely. A new stamp will become valid May 1, 1944.

Fuel Oil: Period Four and Five coupons good for ten gallons per unit through September 30, 1944.

Stoves: Applications for purchase certificates on all gas, oil or coal heating and cooking stoves must be made to local War Price and Rationing Boards.

Gasoline: A-11 coupons good for 3 gallons each through June 21. B2 and B3, and C2 and C3 supplemental ration coupons good for five gallons each. B and B1, C and C1, and old type E and R coupons and also strip T coupons which do not bear the quarterly designation, all expired March 31.

For your protection against the Black Market rationing rules now require every car owner to write his license number and state immediately on all gasoline coupons in his possession.

Tire Inspections: Truck inspections must be made every six months or five thousand miles, whichever occurs first.

CREAMERIES HELP SITUATION GROWS MORE DIFFICULT

Short Course for Workers to Start at University Farm April 3

Efforts to solve increasingly difficult help problems facing most creamery and other dairy products processing plants in the state were moving forward this week, as the dairy division's staff at University Farm prepared to begin, on April 3, an especially organized two weeks' short course for creamery workers.

Meanwhile, records at the St. Paul office of Dreng Bjornaraa, state War Manpower Commission director, reflected, even more emphatically, the growing demand for help in the state's creameries. At week's end, U. S. employment service offices had 104 unfilled orders on hand, and Bjornaraa said that since the present effort started, USES had found 396 workers for creameries whose orders had been placed early.

Last week an area conference of creamery managers was held at St. Cloud, under WMC auspices. There was special interest in a discussion of training proposals and a statement by a representative of selective service headquarters as to the very limited extent that creamery workers would be deferred.

The most serious problem confronting the training program, particularly the class being formed at University Farm, is lack of suitable trainees. This is due, in part to apathy on the part of creamery organizations in the selection of trainees and a willingness to pay trainees while they attend school, thus assuring the men of employment when the classes end.

All industrial training in recent months, Bjornaraa explained, has demonstrated that unless employers select the trainees and agree to pay them during the schooling period, a training program inevitably lags.

Four Members of State Supreme Court File for Reelection This Week

Unprecedented in the history of the state, as many as four members of the Minnesota Supreme Court filed for reelection in the secretary of state's office at the capitol Tuesday.

The four, who filed in a group for six-year terms, were:

Chief Justice Charles Loring, St. Paul, a member of the state supreme court since 1930. He formerly resided in Crookston.

Associate Justice Harry H. Peterson, St. Paul, attorney general from 1933 to 1936, who has been on the high bench for seven years.

Associate Justice C. R. Magney, Duluth, former mayor of Duluth and district judge in the Eleventh Judicial district for several terms.

Associate Justice Thomas O. Streissguth, New Ulm, who was Brown county attorney from 1921 until 1942.

Retirement and resignation of three supreme court justices in the last year has resulted in the necessity of the most recent appointees, Justices Magney and Streissguth, to file for reelection in addition to Judges Loring and Peterson, whose terms expire.

INVEST IN AMERICA

Stake YOUR Claim NOW with War Bonds

It took a lot of grit for a man and wife to stow their children into a prairie schooner with a few bare necessities and fight it out with all the hardships the frontier had to offer. Yet, these self-reliant pioneers proved their ability to win the finest reward a family can have—security in a land of growing opportunities.

Today, solid citizens are staking their claim in America's future by buying and keeping War Bonds. They know Bonds help to win battle after battle. They know, too, that Bonds will provide security and opportunity for personal initiative when war-supported activity ceases.

Do you know of anything that offers you as much for your money as a War Bond?

A journey's end is the beginning of relaxation. In such a moment, Budweiser will prove a welcome companion. Count on Budweiser to make your simple wartime meals taste better. Every sip will tell you why.

In addition to supplying the armed forces with glider and bomber fuselage frames, wing parts, gun turret parts and foodstuffs, Anheuser-Busch produces materials which go into the manufacture of: Rubber • Aluminum • Munitions • Medicines • B Complex Vitamins • Hospital Diets • Baby Foods • Bread and other Bakery products • Vitamin-fortified cattle feeds • Batteries • Paper • Soap and textiles—to name a few.

LAND O'LAKES NEWS

WHY WE HAVE FARM CO-OPS

AGRICULTURE must depend on the initiative, judgment and freedom of action of farm people to manage, adapt and adjust their business to economic fluctuations. The desire to reduce marketing costs by assembling, processing and distributing supplies and products in volume was the challenge that led to cooperative action.

ACCEPTING THE CHALLENGE, farmers have developed ever-growing cooperative facilities in practically every rural community in the nation.

COOPERATIVE ACTION on the part of farmers of the Northwest seeking a more equitable market for their main crop ... butter ... led to the creation of Land O' Lakes Creameries, Inc., and its development into one of the major butter marketing agencies in the entire world. It stems from the soil. Through cooperation the farmers of the great northwest have inexpensive marketing facilities which they could never afford except through cooperative action.

IT IS THE INDIVIDUAL FARMER MEMBERS of cooperating Land O' Lakes Creameries who share in the increased returns which their improved marketing method makes available to them.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE FOR BUTTER

Mr. Egg Producer, it is even more important now that you feed your hens good egg mash or concentrate for heavy production. You are assured of a reasonable profit providing you hold up your production. Now would be a poor time to let up on your feed or to sell your laying hens because you have already passed the expense of getting them into production and with warmer weather, you can expect an increase.

THEY ARE DOING A LOT WITH WHAT WE HAVE

It's one thing to provide you with good telephone service when there are plenty of lines and equipment . . . and plenty of help, Like before the war.

But our job has been a lot different this past year: With no new equipment, except to meet war requirements, shortages of many kinds and a steadily greater need for service, telephone workers have had a busy time of it—

The rush of these war days has brought a rising load of calls at a time when it hasn't been possible to add switchboard or other facilities. Their fingers have been flying faster, their minds alert every second. But their voice hasn't lost the "smile" you like to hear.

And telephone installers and repairmen . . .

Shortages have added a lot to their job—the need to stretch and to save, to make war limited facilities do the utmost in meeting the greatest need for telephone service in history. Often they haven't been able to give customers the type of telephone wanted . . . nor the kind and amount of service. They like to do an all around good job. It's been increasingly harder this past year.

They used to be able to say "Yes sir, that service can be installed right away". But it's different now. Frequently delays can't be avoided—and many service requests can not be met at all.

• •

All along the line it has been a matter of doing a bigger job than ever before . . . with less to do with. Yet, judged by what you, our customers, tell us—and by our own measurements—the quality of service continues to be good. It wouldn't have been possible without the fine spirit that telephone people still have these days . . . and as a company we give them grateful credit.

You can be sure that telephone men and women will make every effort to keep your service as prompt and efficient as it can be kept in wartime.

Where the PULPWOOD SHORTAGE hits the farmer

Over 1/4 of all pulpwood is used in packaging farm products

THE FARMERS of this country responded patriotically to the appeal for more pulpwood. They cut wood because their country needed it. Few of them stopped to think that their own business of food production was threatened by the pulpwood shortage.

Already there have been cases where packing plants were unable to accept perishables because they could not get packing materials; and the distribution of food may be seriously upset this year unless the pulpwood shortage can be overcome.

So the farmer who cuts pulpwood is not only helping his country meet a serious wartime shortage; he is also adding to his income, improving his draft deferment status, and helping to provide for the packaging and distribution of his own farm products. Cut your pulpwood now!

Paper Containers Needed to Package Many Farm Products, Such as—

Packaging Eggs 139,803 tons
Packaging Seeds 4,884 tons
Packaging Milk 159,951 tons
Packaging Meats 417,890 tons
Packaging Fruits and Vegetables . . . 161,178 tons

PEELING SEASON JUST AHEAD

The season for peeling pulpwood will soon be here. Many mills must have peeled wood to meet wartime demands. Your County Agent or mill buyer can tell you the best ways of handling your wood for peeling.
